Lenten Series Will Include Home Sessions

The Lutheran Church of the Incarnation will observe the season of Lent this year by a combination of services held in the Middlebelt Elementary School.

In retrospect, what fun we have had - the friends we've made - the programs we've enjoyed.

The highlights of this, our first year are the music and gifts and pot-luck dinner in December; the picnic in May; the Senior Citizens Club in August; the atmosphere of every meeting under the splendid direction of Mrs. Walter Carlin, assisted by her Club Committee. The color movies have been so entertaining, and the speakers so interesting! The attendance has grown from six at the first meeting to over sixty at the Christmas party.

Lutherans Set Lent Program

The Lutheran Church of the Shepherd King, Middlebelt and Maple Roads, will observe Lent with special Wednesday evening services at 6:45 p.m. and 8 p.m. with "The Words of Christ on the Cross" as the theme. The Youth Choir will sing at 6:45 and the Senior choir at 8 p.m.

"Mountains Where God Meets Man" will be Pastor Boehmke's topic for both the 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. Sunday services during Lent. Nursery facilities will be provided for the 11 a.m. service.

Jesuit Missionary Exhibit at U of D

An exhibit illustrating the world-wide activities of the 6,600 Jesuit missionaries is on display this month in the Main Library on the University of Detroit McNichols Campus.

Photographs showing the work of the Society of Jesus, the largest missionary order in the world, are included along with objects made in mission countries.

WSU to Present Brahms' Music Life of Christ

The newly organized Wayne State University Choral Union will join with the University Orchestra in presenting the "German Requiem" by Johannes Brahms in the Ford Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 5.

The event marks the first effort in many years in presenting a major work by a combined group in the music activities program at Wayne State University. Present plans call for such presentations to be made annually.

VALTER POOLE, conductor of the university orchestra, will conduct a combined Choral Union and Orchestra of 170 students. The organist will be Randall Robinson, 21335 Rensselaer, Farmington.

The Choral Union is being prepared by its conductor, Professor Jacobson, and will be joined by members of the Men's Glee Club, conducted by Professor Harry Langford.

Carol Charles of Farmington is also taking part in the program. She is a vocalist. Admission is free.

Presbyterian Youth To Meet at MSU

"Life Together" is the theme of the Presbyterian Youth Adult Conference, scheduled to draw some 100 young men and women from congregations across the state to Michigan State University Feb. 22-24.

Joining to sponsor this annual event at MSU's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education are the United Presbyterian Church, Synod of Michigan, and the MSU Committee on Church Related Programs.

Senior Citizens Club Member Looks Back on Year's Activities

EDITOR'S NOTE: A member of the Senior Citizens Social Club of Farmington had this to say recently about her experiences with the club since its formation.

In retrospect, what fun we have had - the friends we've made - the programs we've enjoyed.

The highlights of this, our first year are the music and gifts and pot-luck dinner in December; the picnic in May; the Senior Citizens Club in August; the atmosphere of every meeting under the splendid direction of Mrs. Walter Carlin, assisted by her Club Committee. The color movies have been so entertaining, and the speakers so interesting! The attendance has grown from six at the first meeting to over sixty at the Christmas party.

Wisdom Source In Man Probed

The divine source of man's intelligence will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" to be heard at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

From the Bible this passage will be read (James 1:5): "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

Correlative readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this sentence (p. 306): "Spirit, God, fathers unfolded thoughts into their proper channels, and unfolded these thoughts, even as he opens the petals of a holy purpose in order that the purpose may appear."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (3:5): "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding."

Churches Plan Choir Trade

The Lutheran Church of the Shepherd King and Grace Church, Pontiac, will exchange choir members at the 11 a.m. services. The choir will be under the leadership of Mrs. Laura Blide and Mrs. James Parsons respectively.

This is a continuation of endeavors between these congregations which in the past have included pulp exchanges between Rev. Karl Boehmke and Rev. Stenback. Joint participation in men's retreats and joint youth projects.

Schedule Lecturer At Art Institute

Dr. Frank C. Hibben, professor of anthropology at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, will give an illustrated talk on "Archaeology of the American Southwest," Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 8:30 p.m. in the Detroit Institute of Arts Lecture Hall. The program is sponsored by the Detroit Society of Archaeology and the American Archaeological Institute of America.

The public is invited to attend the lecture, which is free of charge.

Seventy major changes were made in Michigan's proposed new constitution. Fifty-one of these changes received near unanimous support of the 144 delegates.

Gets Key Post At Middlebury

Miss Laura, a Dean's List student, has been assistant manager of the college band for two years. A member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, she participated in the Women's Forum and has served as Sophomore Guide and Junior Counselor.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Lam of 28130 Westbrook Road, Farmington.
