BETTY ROBERTSON 476-0564 EDNA MOSLEY 474-2410

The cold weather and the sandra is at home and doing vasion of the flu has kept activities in the subdivision down to a minimum these past few weeks.

In the Boy Scout department, Steve Robertson participated in a ceremony of the Order of the Round Table at Walled Lake High School with his Explorers Post 45 on Feb. 13. The following Saturday, the whole Robertson family attended a Father and Son Campout of Troop 384 held at Island Lake Recreation Area.

Ginnie Skerik and her Cub Scouts, Den 4, helped make the decorations, name cards, etc. for the annual Blue and Gold Cub Scout Dinner held on Feb. 21st at the Farmington First Methodist Church. The boys in Den 4 in the sub are Andy Adair, Dean Billman, David Duncan and Randy Skerik.

IN THE ILLS and first department, I believe the hardest hit family the past week was Bill and Donna Planko and their youngsters. Sandra, who is four years old, was a patient for a week at Children's Hospital in Detroit with an infection and the flu. At home, Donna was caring for their two younger sons and the baby, also ill with the flu. At the latest report...

Card of Thanks
The kindness and sympathy of neighbors and friends in our recent sorrow will always remain with us a precious memory. Our sincere thanks and gratitude to the Farmington Boy Scout Department, Spencer J. Heeney and the Farmington Elks Lodge for all those comforting acts.

William Feuchl, conductor of the annual Easter Cantata which will be presented in the Farmington High School auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 2, this week released a brief synopsis of part of the historical and cultural period alluded to by the famous Mendelssohn work, "The Elijah."

ONE DAY Ahab sent his chief servant, Obadiah, in search of pasture for his starving animals. Now, Obadiah was a firm believer in the Lord and had had many prophecies in a cave from Jehovah. It was while Obadiah was searching for pasture land that he found Elijah. Obadiah brought Ahab to Elijah, who told the king to gather together all the priests of Baal on Mount Carmel where the people might see who was God.
