ANNE M. PHILLIPS

MA. 6-5335

Carl Ambrose died Sunday afternoon at Beaumont Hospital. He had been suffering from a heart condition for several months. The funeral was yesterday morning, with interment at Holy Sepulchre. He is survived by his wife, Ellen, three sons, one daughter, and twelve grandchildren. We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to his family.

Jim Wankel also lost his brother from a heart attack Sunday evening. Jim and Loretta had driven to Lawton and spent the previous weekend with him. He seemed in perfect health. Jim and Loretta returned to Lawton Monday afternoon. We wish to extend our sincerest sympathy to them.

GERRY DYNDIA is in the University Hospital at Ann Arbor with serious illness. We know that is very serious but hope and pray for his recovery.

Mary Tyghem lost a niece last month from this same disease, septicaemia. She was the daughter of Mary's oldest sister, lived in Nova Scotia, was married and the mother of two small children. We wish to extend our sympathy to Mary.

Marvin Tyghem brought two of his college friends home over a weekend of skiing. They went to Alpine and to Pine Knob and were home for a good dinner before driving back to college Sunday evening.

The Missals are back from their annual five week visit to Florida where they stay at Fort Lauderdale. They have many friends there. Fred plays a lot of golf, they have a wonderful time.

JIM AND EMOGENE DAVIS left here Feb. 6 with the trailer we have seen parked in their yard. They left for Tampa, Fla. where they spent two weeks. The fishing was excellent but it was too cool for swimming. They left the trailer in Florida with its owner and drove to Tryon, N.C. to spend a week with the Weavers. They reached home last Saturday.

Sunday afternoon Sheila and Bill Holden entertained Jane Lovejoy (Mrs. Elijah P.) who, for many years on the Detroit Board of Education, and for some time its president.

"CONTRAST IN RHYTHM" MARCH 22nd-23rd, 24th Killarion, Farmington.

Jan Post 346, attend tonight.

Re-Elect

HOWARD W. THAYER

CITY COUNCIL

on April 1, 1963

I have never bowed to either SPECIAL INTEREST or PRESSURE GROUPS in matters pertaining to the City.

I have acted in the interest of every taxpayer in this City by carefully studying each yearly budget and INSISTING it be kept within reasonable limits.

I have made an honest effort in the past four years to be a councilman OF THE PEOPLE, by making myself available at all times to anyone, either by phone or in person who might seek advice or information regarding City affairs.

May I have your continued support in my bid for Re-election on April 1.

Church Theater Group To Stage Play Locally

The Presbians (Presbyterian Theatians) of the Redford Presbyterian Church will present "The Dark Night", by R. W. Hill, a chancel drama, on Sunday evening, March 10, in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

This play is one that will be a deep religious experience and will challenge the depths of space of our christian faith.

IT IS A PLAY about a church in a totalitarian state. It is happening now, and it could happen in America.

The community is invited and welcome to attend this challenging experience.

13 Named to Honor Society

Thirteen members of the Junior and Senior classes met the qualification of high scholarship, leadership, and character, entitling them to membership in the Clarenceville Chapter of the National Honor Society at the end of the first semester.

Parents of the initiates, members of the administration, board members, and honor society members attended an initiation ceremony held in February.

At this time Carole Welton, President of the Honor Society, introduced Christine Babinski, who spoke on scholarship, Charolette Helton, on character, and Sharon Marbury on leadership. Larry Wehner charged the new members with the overall purpose of the honor society. Jeanne Knowlton replied for the new members.

Schmidt presented membership cards and pins to the following: Ariel Aronson, Donna Behnam, Vicki Dittman, Patricia Griffe, Volker Hamann, Marilyn Leeds, Jeanne Knowlton, Leslie Schenberger, Geri Shultz, Nancy Simons, and Sharon Stevenson.

Refreshments prepared by the Honor Society members were served.
