

YW-Wives Here to Help Stage Spring Fling for Homemakers

Hundreds of YW-Wives, who are mothers and homemakers, active in Ladies Day Out and other YWCA groups for women not employed outside the home, will converge at Central Branch YW, 2230 Witherell St., April 21 for their 14th annual Spring Fling.

The YW-Wives Council is handling arrangements for the affair. Serving on the YW-Wives Council from Farmington are Mrs. Hannah Gardner of 3078 Quaker Town Lane, Mrs. Thomas Coffield of 3742 Carson Road and Mrs. Ralph Updegraff of 3215 Red Glover.

COMING FROM all parts of metropolitan Detroit served by YWCA's seven branches, they will arrive at 9:30 a.m. by chartered bus, private automobiles and public transportation. They will bring with them elaborately decorated bus luncheon.

YOUR PHARMACIST SPEAKS

By: JOHN D. SCHMALZ, R.Ph.
One of the more common minor injuries is to the puncture wounds caused by rusty nails, glass splinters and a wide miscellany of sharp objects. Although we speak of these as minor injuries, they often pose very definite dangers in that they are difficult to clean thoroughly, often they do not bleed well, and the threat of tetanus cannot be taken lightly. It is not imprudent to seek professional treatment in cases of this nature and, most certainly, if fever, pus, or red streaks indicative of infection develop, a doctor should be consulted.

Let's talk now of prescriptions, the often seemingly unintelligible scrolls which are your tickets to welcome relief from a host of ailments or disorders. You want them filled efficiently, carefully and with the finest drugs on the market. In that case, we will be looking for you at JOHN S. PHARMACY, 3151 - 13 Mile Rd., Phone GR. 4-4700.

THIS WEEK'S HOUSE. HOLD HINT: If you have no cement, a paste of salt alum and boiling water can be used to fill cracks in a concrete floor.

Beauty Salon Awards Prizes

Jeann's Bel-Aire Beauty Salon this week announced the winners of their recent contest after Farmington City Councilman Howard Thayer pulled out the names of the lucky patrons at a drawing held in the salon on Friday, March 29.

First prize of a fox cape went to Mrs. D. L. Cruco. The second prize, a wig went to Fran Posner. Another wig, the third prize, went to Marilyn Branson. A makeup kit, fourth prize, was won by G. Castegne. The fifth prize, also a makeup kit, went to Margaret R. Clark. Other winners were G. Chambers, Mrs. Berry Mrs. J. Taylor, Marylou Selzer and G. Berger. All were winners of cologne or shampoo from Jean's Beauty Shop.

Earn Scholastic Honors at Central

Five hundred and seventy-eight students at Central Michigan University have maintained a B or better average through the Fall semester, according to Dr. M. C. Pike, dean of students.

Three Farmington students at the M. Pleasant campus and school are on the coveted Scholastic Honors List. They are Joan L. Cogsdill, Martha J. Keegan and Henry C. Rosely.

These students qualify for the Scholastic Honors List. The averages are based upon the Students academic record at the University.

Kendallwood Komments

JANICE HAYDEL GR. 6-2288

Did you know April first has been a fun and prank day for 100 years? It is believed to have been started by a Frenchman in 1681 and it caught in an April trick you would be called an April Fool!

There's nothing fishy or April fooling about things that must be done this month. Taxpayers have to be mailed. Easter eggs and Easter bonnets must be ready. Spring housecleaning and maintenance started. Fishing and baseball equipment made ready and rainwater collected for sudden April showers.

Also check Thursday, April 4 on your calendar. This is a very important date for all residents of Kendallwood. At 8 p.m. tonight your Kendallwood Farms Association will meet at the O. E. Dunkel Junior High School to elect the 1963-64 officers. Every home on Kendallwood should be represented at this meeting. Let's make "our" wonderful Kendallwood an even better place in which to live. See you there.

JOAN and FRANK ROSELER of Baintree Rd. entertained their three table bridge club on a Sunday night and walked away with the first prize! Winning the second prize were Marge Hallen and Al Charlet; third prizes were won by Ann O'Connor and Jim Wyatt.

The wedding of Pam Rowlette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rowlette of Kendallwood Dr., to Harold W. Waack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Waack of Farmington was held on October 23. A reception was given by the bride's parents at their home last week.

Pam and Harold are 1963 graduates of Farmington Senior High School and now reside in an apartment on 8 Mile Rd.

Mary Trebble is the chairman of the annual card party sponsored by the Women of Kendallwood Farms to be held on Wednesday April 21 at Our Lady of Sorrows Social Hall. You won't want to miss this event as it promises to be one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season. Mary wishes to announce the committee who is hard at work making plans: co-chairman, Lillian Axelsson; refreshment chairman, Rita Wayne; co-chairman of refreshments, Bea Schumacker; soliciting chairman, Pat Achtenberg; co-chairman, Jackie Martin, serving chairman, Mildred Madigan, staging chairman, Mickey Williams; ticket chairman, Shirley Kinney. Shirley can be reached at GR. 6-1707. Tickets are limited so don't be left out! Call early. Be sure your reservation is made in time.

The Women of Kendallwood Farms invites all of their members to sew and mend clothing for the children at the 75th North State and Training School. The date is Monday, April 8, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Craftsbury home of Marie Glick.

Speaking of April 8-Happy Anniversary - Wayne Haydel.

PINKIE DAVIDSON entertained her Kendallwood Bridge Club Thursday night. Prize winners were Barbara Cooley, Pinkie Davidson and Eileen Schenckel. Fran Kezera substituted for vacationing Louise Paisley.

Helen and Steven Lillak left their Kendallwood Drive home in K-4 last week. They will reside in a nearby motel until the close of school when they will make their home in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Steven is employed by Bethlehem Steel; Steven is on your prom.

Tom Schmidt of Bayberry in K-4 was involved in a nine car accident several weeks ago on Grand River. Just as Tony managed to get out of his car the interior burned completely.

JC Auxiliary Hosts Meeting

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary sponsored the spring meeting for District 8 Thursday evening, March 28, at The Parker House.

The primary purpose of the meeting was to elect a State District 8 Vice President whose duties include guiding and directing all auxiliaries in this district: Ann Arbor, Howell, Livonia, Milford, Northville, Plymouth, Redford, South Lyon, Walled Lake, Wayne and Ypsilanti.

GUEST SPEAKER was Beth Glary from Redford, State Jaycee Auxiliary President. Brief speeches were heard from district leaders running for the state offices of treasurer and secretary.

Following the order of business, with Pat Hartzel of Redford being elected to succeed Farmington's Norene Martin to the post of Vice President, our auxiliary presented a program highlighting the musical comedy shows for which Farmington is so well known. The programs, name tags, table decorations and entertainment were reminiscent of four show themes: The Roaring 20's, World War I theme, the musical shows, and this year's hilarity theme.

PROMINENT and personable Bob Chesley emceed his way to success - the hit of the evening! Musical entertainment featured Doris Bryant, Don Kobman, Shirley Richardson and Donna Tupper. One hundred seven members from District 8 Jaycee Auxiliaries enjoyed the program and Farmington's own version of "Sing Along with Bob Chesley."

The evening concluded with everyone enjoying Parker House's famous whipped cream cake and coffee. While refreshments were being served, over 30 prizes were awarded, adding to the festivities.

Chairmen Jo Hogan and Sally Will and Jaycee Auxiliary President Rosemary Fitzpatrick, report that the evening was highly successful and the city of Farmington was very favorably represented.
