Sings with MSU State Singers

Miss Pamela Overton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin W. Overton of 22950 Warner, Farmington, appeared Wednesday evening, March 27, at Nardin Park Methodist Church as a member of the Michigan State University's "State Singers" in a program of religious music. This is a Continuing Education Program of the College of Arts and Letters of the University. Each year our card party profits are donated to the orphan fund at the Plymouth State Home and Training School for retarded children. This year too, our entire profit will go to this home, specifically for the purchase of braces and orthopedic shoes for children who are educable and may some day be returned to the community and play their role as useful citizens.
NATURALLY THE success of any civic function depends largely on the community. The merchants for their generous donations of door prizes and tickets and the members for their diligent cooperation in giving assistance to the various committees.
 But in spite of all these wonderful and energetic people, our card party and the future mobility of some of the children depends on the performance of our chairman and her committees.
 This year our chairman is Mrs. Ronald Trebble whom you all know as the one person you can count on to handle any chairmanship with the efficiency of a person who has an in-born talent for organizing. She is always impeccably well-dressed, sophisticated, poised and independent-minded, with a stimulating and invigorating personality that converts dull chatter into a surge of fascinating conversation.
MARY IS A WOMAN of many and varied interests including gardening, flower arranging, antiques, interior decoration, fashion, sketching, music and club work. She seems to live in a gentle climate of complete awareness and selectivity that enables her to be good and beautiful things in life.
 Women that have worked with Mary know that they can depend on her judgment, for it is as accurate as it is spontaneous. But her many friends receive tremendous pleasure from Mary's wit, spirit, compassion and an abundance of life.

LADIES STEP FORWARD
 (Advertisement)
 The woman of today can actually match the sister of centuries past in the matter of makeup. The nicer ladies of Jezebel's day blazed the way with their eye makeup, and tinted their eyelids, upper and lower as well with early greens and yellows. Red ochre was rubbed on their lips and vegetable dyes on their finger-nails.
 More recently we note where the author of a fourteenth century Book of Hours and Virtues rebuked ladies for incessant looking in mirrors and combing their hair—these ladies in many tresses to make it straight and seem crisp. So, it would appear that the ladies of today with a reasonable and understandable concern for their appearance are more advanced in a mandate handed down virtually at mankind's beginning.
 Perhaps the shortest and most direct route to beauty for the local feminine contingent is in the direction of JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP. Our operators and stylists know beauty in its modern form and specialize in quality work at sensible prices. Make your appointment at JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP, 24100 Orchard Lake Rd., the modern, roomy shop. Phone GR. 4-7810.
 Change your hair style for Spring.
 A list of Jean's Bel-Aire Beauty Salon winners and the prizes they won are given elsewhere in this week's issue of The Enterprise. Congratulations to the winners.
