

Falcons Open Baseball Season With Home Contest Today

The Farmington Senior High baseball team will open its new season at home this afternoon against Redford Union, a Suburban Six League power. Game time will be 3:30 p.m.

Season Opener Won by Raider Tennis Squad

North Farmington's Varsity tennis team won its first match of the 1963 season Monday by whipping the Northville Mustangs 4-1.

Mark Glywood, playing first man, lost to Mustang's all-conference tennis man 6-2 and 6-1.

FOREST HAYFORD, playing second man, won 6-0, 6-3. Third man, Drew Hodge, also won 9-6, 6-3.

In doubles competition the Raiders swept both matches with the duet of Bob Phair and Jim Livingston teaming up to win 6-2, 6-1.

North Farmington's other doubles team, paired Cliff Burk and Jim Calk, they whipped their opponent 6-0, 6-2.

The Raiders tennis team will take on the Falcons from Farmington April 19 on the Birds' home court.

COACH RON HOLLAND has developed some speed merchants on his North Farmington High track team this season but he's not surprised, since both Glen Landsberg (crossing tape, R) and Bob Huth (L) are members of the Raider

Brown and Gold Trackmen Stun Ann Arbor High

On a day when usually the only thing running is your nose, three of North Farmington's school records were broken.

The 40 degree weather did little to hamper the Raiders from an 83 1/6 to 25 5/8 victory over Ann Arbor University High.

While Dan MacCutcheon was putting the shot 44' 10" for a new school record Bob Linderman was doing his share in the victory. He broke school records in the high jump (5' 6") and 100 high hurdles (17.3).

THE RAIDERS swept every first place in the meet but one. First place in the 2400 mile relay eluded them.

A run-down on the meet goes as follows:

Pole vault (tie), Gary Forkel and Gary Forkel, 10'; high jump, Bob Linderman, 5' 6"; shot put, Dan MacCutcheon, 44' 10"; broad jump, Bob Huth, 17' 10 1/4"; 100 high hurdles, Bob Linderman, 17.3; 100 yard dash, Doug Wood, 2:17.8; 440 yard run, Tom Trauch, 5:52.8; 1800 yard hurdles, Ken Borgegus, 22:7; 220 yard dash, Glen Landsberg, 28.6; mile run, Andy Eawing, 5:07.8; mile relay, Bless, Phillips, Gullbult, Spryter, 4:08.2; and 880 yard relay, Landsberg, Linderman, August, Trauch, 1:41.6.

The Raiders entertain Fowlerville today on the North Farmington track.

Farmington Bowling News

The big news of the week at the Farmington Lanes is the Junior League for the week including Juniors Carl Hunt, 216; Junior Russ Roth, 211; and Bantam Jim Applepie, 118 pins over average. Bantams Greg Mollet, a 132 triplate; Junior Girls Marilyn Connor, 164; and Shirley Jacobs, 83 pins over average.

Two tournaments are available at Farmington Lanes this month.

The Suburban Proprietors are holding a tourney which includes a singles, doubles and team event. Bowlers may enter all or any part of the competition.

The National Team Handicap Elimination Tournament will again be held this year with a rules change which allows teams who haven't bowled at Farmington Lanes to be eligible for the competition.

Summer leagues will be starting soon at Farmington Lanes with openings still available for men, women and juniors. It's an ideal time for beginners with free instruction available.

Blue and White Golf Team Wins

Seniors Glen Hoppenstedt and John Sloane led the BLUE golf team to a decisive 10 stroke victory over North Farmington High Tuesday.

The two long ball hitters each carded a seven-over-par 44 on the tough front nine of the Farmington Country Club course.

Although playing in 40 degree, rainy weather, the two duellers were completely surprised when they found out that they had tied for low man in the meet.

The remaining three golfers who helped Farmington to victory were seniors Dick Fusc, Bob Kraft, and Tom Kaufman. "Fusc" shot a respectable 46, but Kraft was a bit off of his usual performance in carding a 47. Kaufman trailed just behind Kraft with a 48. North Farmington's low man was Craig Polley, who shot a 46.

"It was so cold, we could hardly hold onto the clubs," chivered Hoppenstedt after coming in with his 44. "If we play like that in the late season, it'll be all over for us."

The BLUE golfers will certainly be a bit sharper on April 22 when they take on Walley Lake in the first league meet of the season. They will meet the Vikings at Edgewood Country Club. The Walley Lake team is led by Brian Kane, a lad who has been low man in the conference for the past two seasons.

Call Baseball Rally for Boys In Farmington

A rally will be held Thursday, April 18, 7:30 p.m. at the Farmington Senior High School for all boys living in the Farmington District. Boys aged from 8 to 15 and their parents are invited.

All boys who have played in either Little League or Babe Ruth are as welcome as the newcomers.

AT THE RALLY the forthcoming baseball season will be discussed and all important dates will be mentioned and explained.

The officials will be introduced at the rally.

The registration fee will be discussed and the time and place of registration set.

The commissioner, Pat Patton, cordially invites all the parents. Patton says, "Parent help is always in need. A few men can't start the ball rolling and keep it rolling. So, see you there, April 18 at the Farmington Senior High. Let's have a good turnout."

1963 Baseball for Boys Rally Held in North Farmington

With over 1,000 boys and their parents attending the Rally at the North Farmington High School gymnasium Tuesday, April 2, and over 800 boys registered, Saturday, April 6, a monumental season is in store for the Farmington Baseball League.

Although registrations were supposed to start at 10 a.m., there was a large crowd waiting outside Bond School at a.m. The large numbers in attendance demonstrated the wide acceptance and success of the Farmington program through North Farmington.

THE RALLY on Tuesday featured a short address by Commissioner Frank Reynolds and guest speaker Herbert Neal, from the Board of Education who while praising the Little League Program, described how well it worked in conjunction with the Board of Education's sports and recreational program, and a description of the individual leagues by their respective presidents.

Particular stress was placed on the need for parental assistance in managerial and coaching.

In spite of the huge mob at Bond School, Saturday, every-day, April 20 at O. E. Dunkel Junior High from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

N. Farm. to Hold Boys Baseball Registration

An additional date has been set for those boys who missed the last registration date. They will be able to register and get their physical exams on Saturday, April 20, at O. E. Dunkel Junior High, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Without registering and the physical exam no boy will be allowed to participate in the North Farmington baseball program. April 20 will be the last time when they can register.

BECAUSE OF OVER 800 expected aspirants there is an urgent need for participating parents. All those men and women who would like to catch, manage or help in any other way, please get in touch with their respective League presidents, their phone numbers are: Colt Poay League, Robert Hutchinson, GR. 4-0333; Major League, John Coelen, MA. 6-5849; Minor League, Robert MacLennan, MA. 6-3780; Tee Ball League, Paul Bobenage, GR. 4-7112, and Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. Robert Benya, GR. 6-3068.
