FOREST PARK

ALVIRA DALEY 476-3377

Everyone was in a gay and festive mood as they attended the Forest Park Bowling League held in the bowling room at Redford Inn, last Saturday night, April 20.

The food was served buffet style. It included a great variety of dishes, tastefully arranged to the foot-tapping music of the orchestra.

The ladies looking very lovely in their gaily colored dresses, also each member awarded a sum of money, as a bonus let over at the end of the bowling season.

A COMMITTEE, which included Bruce Clifford, Joe Zuchowski and Norm Kennedy was appointed to work out plans for the coming year.

Last Saturday night, April 20, Jack Langford of Nine Mile gave his mother, Mrs. Clara Hampton, in marriage, to Mr. Harold Lang in a beautiful ceremony at the Redford Inn.

The bride looked lovely in a gorgeous gown of green and white, with a bodice and overskirt of Chantilly lace of the same color.

Three hundred guests attended a reception which was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Livonia.

Jack's brother, Joseph, and his wife, Shirley, were there from Ogden, Utah for the festivities. Joe is attending Officers' School for the Air Force in Utah. Mrs. Francis Bartlett, Jack's aunt, who came up from Chattanooga, Tennessee, was one of the bride's attendants.

LAURIE BETH STARK was six years old on April 13, so she celebrated with a party given by her mother, Mrs. Carl Stark of Livonia. The guests were six boys and six girls from Laurie Beth's kindergarten class. Each child won a prize at the games and then played both indoors and out.

Last Friday night, as Barbara Bathey came around the corner of her home on Ontaga, she was startled by a loud noise. She looked up just in time, to see the back porch of the house across the street come flying into the front yard.

A strong gust of wind had pulled the cement support from the ground, tossed the supports, roof and all, over the house and threw them on the driveway where they broke into a million pieces. Dr. Kormmeyer, who occupies the house on Ontaga, said he was almost afraid to look out the window for fear of what he would see because of the terrible racket he had heard.

Mrs. Kormmeyer, who was working with the Farmington Players, that night in the upper part of their barn theatre, said the wind was blowing so fiercely and the tin roof rattled so noisily that they thought the building would blow away. The noise was so alarming that they had to stop working and go downstairs until the storm abated.

Lt. Completes Army Platoon Leader Course

Army 2nd Lt. David M. Burke, 22, son of Mrs. Myrtle Burke, 2208 E. 11th St., Farmington, completed an army orientation course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

During the course Lieutenant Burke received instruction in duties and responsibilities of infantry platoon leaders.

The lieutenant is a new graduate of Farmington High School and received a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi and Psi Upsilon fraternities.

The frozen food industry continues to grow at a rapid pace. According to sales records, the demand for convenient frozen foods has grown from 1.2 billion pounds in 1957 to about 10 billion pounds today.

A DAY IN THE LIFE of a City Clerk or Treasurer can be just plain hard work, at least Farmington High School seniors (L to R) Kathy Warner and Susan Hoshman had to endure after looking over the shoulders of their real-life counterparts at Student Government Day activities last week.

Farmington City Treasurer Kathryn Colter (L) and City Clerk Trena Quinn opened their letters to give the two girls an idea of the bookkeeping involved in their duties for the City.

Farmington Oaks
EDNA NOSLEY 474-2410

Latest arrivals to the subdivision are Ralph and Waltraud Venn, who moved into their home on Tall Oaks this past weekend. The Venns moved here from Floral Park, Indiana with their four children, Lasha, age 5, starting kindergarten at the end of the month, Susan, 3 years old, and Ralph and Robin 21 month old twins, will be helping mom around the house.

Waltraud was born in Germany and has been in this country for eight years. Ralph is originally from Pennsylvania, and came to this country at the age of 17.

Everyone is invited to a benefit dinner being given on April 27 at the Farmington First Methodist Church from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. "All you can eat".

Money raised will be presented to Carol Lawrie to help defray expenses for her trip to Spain. Carol has been selected by the Michigan Council of Churches as an exchange student from this area.

Don't forget to call me with news of your family's illnesses, birthdays, or if you're interested, drop in and trade your news for a cup of coffee.

ALLAN OLSON'S parents arrived from Springfield, Mass. for their first visit to Allan and his home here in Farmington. The Olsons recently returned from vacation in Florida and time their visit here to coincide with their Easter homecoming.

St. Mary Hospital on Tuesday for surgery and will be there for a week.

THE VILLAGE WOMAN'S CLUB
COUNTRY AUCTION
Flea Market

MRS. JOSEPH W. IRVIN, 5715 Forman Dr., Birmingham, and Mrs. H. W. Wisting III, 2916 Cottontail Lane, Bloomfield Hills, are pleased to announce the annual Village Woman's Club auction which will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 4, at the corner of Telegraph and Long Lake Roads. Proceeds will further the educational, cultural and philanthropic projects of the club.

Village Woman's Club Plans Country Auction

"The Fourth of May is Auction Day" is the slogan to remember, not only for members of the Village Woman's Club who are searching their homes for treasures and knick-knacks to contribute to their sale, but also for the bargain hunters and antique collectors in the community.

The Bloomfield Hills School, on Long Lake Road west of Telegraph Road in Bloomfield Hills, will be the scene of the event. Preview of the auction and flea market sale will begin at 10 a.m. The auction will start at 11 a.m. and other refreshments will be available. Advance tickets may be obtained from ticket chairman, Mrs. Paul Johnson, 682-3051, or Mrs. Grierson, MI. 6-6330.

Mrs. DALE O. MILLER, of Bloomfield Hills, is the chairman, report that treasures and antiques are being contributed daily for the auction, and that the flea market items of unusual diversity will be obtainable for a pittance. They also point out that the proceeds of the sale will further the purpose of the club to provide educational, cultural and philanthropic programs for the community.

During the past year 28 classes and special events in the fields of religion, art, music, current history, theatre, language, antiques, travel and foreign arrangement have been sponsored. In addition, widespread donations have been made to philanthropies such as Camp Fiske, the Birmingham Community House and programs for gifted children, foreign students and teachers working with the mentally handicapped. "It is the hope of the members that funds from the sale will enable the club to expand its program to the same high standard and variety of classes, and be able to carry on its contributions to the needs of the community," says Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Robert Chissus, chairman of solicitations, has indicated that there will be both unusual and antique articles at the auction.

Mrs. JAMES HUBBARD, Jr., and Mrs. William T. Collins, Jr., are in charge of the sale are appraisers. Mrs. Arthur Fauser, selections, Mrs. Kenneth Conner, pages, Mrs. Cranston S. Jones, collections, Mrs. Jack Waters, chairman of the sale are appraisers. Mrs. John Fauser, selections, Mrs. Kenneth Conner, pages, Mrs. Cranston S. Jones, collections, Mrs. Jack Waters, chairman of the sale are appraisers.

Other chairmen who are working to insure the success of the sale are: Mrs. J. W. Irwin and ceramics modeled by Mrs. Richard Ernst.

Call Mrs. Davidson, GR. 4-4114 or Mrs. Jajich, MA. 6-3109, if you haven't made reservations.

Diligent Worker Bows Out With 'Thanks'

Dear Readers:

It is with an overflowing heart that I turn over the duties and the satisfactions of the Farmington Blood Bank Chairman to the very able hands of Mrs. Jane Goodrich. Fifteen years ago, on November 10, 1948, I took over the blood bank, and now that it is impossible for me to continue, I would like to try to thank all the lovely people who have given so unselfishly of their time, efforts and blood to help me.

First of all, I think our appreciation should go to the donors, some of whom have been faithful to every bank all these years, and without whom, of course, no bank could be a success.

And then, the volunteer workers - how can I ever thank them enough - the registrars, the canteen helpers, motor corps and parking lot attendants. Special thanks, also, to the Gray Ladies and nurses, to Mrs. Marion Nelson, Mrs. Olive Lathrop, Mrs. Alfred Gaines, Mrs. Mary O'Connor, and to so many others. My thanks to Mr. Kiley and the Enterprises for all the publicity and editorials; to the American Legion and Salem Church for use of their halls; to the various organizations who have furnished such delicious hot dinners for the workers.

I think I can never adequately express what a great thrill it is to be able to say "yes" when blood is requested to save a life - it is double repayment for all the work expended. And I shall always treasure in my heart the memories of the wonderful friends and deeds with which I have been associated through the years.

So, it is with mixed emotions that I turn over the duties of the Farmington Blood Bank Chairman to the very able hands of Mrs. Jane Goodrich.
