The annual Open House at Ketchikan School gave the very definite impression, the children were studying the many mysteries of Spring Mrs. Mac's third grade class has gone into the study of birds.

The nine boys of Den 4, Keith Heimforth, Mark Champane, Arnie Kahkonen, Dyle Lafferty, Dave Davidson, Spike Heithier, Mike Gluckstein, Lee Sharp, Jack Stevenson have been together in Scouting since their first days in Cub Scouts.

NEW DEN MOTHER, Florence Sharp and Asst. Den Mother Lennie Heimforth will be very proud of them when every one will close this season by earning 1 arrow apiece, at the same time. This Den has won the attendance award for parental support since September and it is a great honor at the last meeting, they have a promise of a ball game to look forward to.

Ronnie Tamminga, who recently moved here from Pennsylvania has been a guest of the Den and shared in their many experiences. They have toured the Cleveland Dairy, Wonder Baking Co., Vermont Plant. Projects have included drying eggs, and decorating an egg tree that was taken to the Sarah Fisher home the week before Easter.

Growing things has been a big project too for the boys, as they have planted chives from a seedling and made a chemical garden of coral formation on coal. The big Spring Derby was held at Bond School last Saturday, where their handicapped friends took part in competition.

PAT AND BILL BLAU of Nottingham treated their children, Dobra and Mary Pat, to the cinema movie "How the West Was Won" and a Chinese dinner afterwards on Saturday for their Easter treat. The Blaus family usually travel to Maryland for Easter, but this year stayed home and cooked a turkey.

Treasurer of Westbrook Association, Mr. Robert Kroepel and his family were hosts for the big Easter feast to Mrs. Lillian Boyt of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. John B. McCallum and family of Livonia.

John and Kathie Burnie of Nottingham with Ellen, Jane, Jim, Martha, and Meg visited relatives on the East side early on Easter Sunday and returned home for Easter dinner.

Steve, Dea and Ann Dougherty of Bella Vista spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maronick in Dearborn, talked with a sister in San Francisco and were able to see a brand new little niece of 1 week. A turkey dinner completed their Easter Day.

SUSUMU, MARTHA and Tommu Hada of E. Marchand spent the past 3 weeks traveling to Hillsboro, Oregon. A stop-off in San Marcos, Texas, to visit a brother and the rest of the time in Oregon with another Mr. and Mrs. Hada gave them plenty of time to relax and visit. Just a few excursions on the side and not too much beach, as weather did not permit much outdoor activity.

Flying by jet on April 13 Pat and Dick Allen spent 1 week visiting relatives in the New York area. With several sight seeing tours of Manhattan, visiting the historical Mystic, Connecticut, lunching at Sardi's East with the authors Faith Baldwin, a stage show featuring Danny Kaye reveals a pretty busy week. Highlight of the trip was an all day tour of West Point where they were quite impressed with the very beautiful chapel, among many other things.

Ward Kelman was assisted in his second birthday celebration by Grandparents, and Godparents Mr. and Mrs. Pattee on Friday, April 19.

Visiting from Oregon is Mrs. Florence Ninkay who is sister of her sister, Mrs. Ann Johnson of Lorikay.

Born April 12 and weighing 7 lbs. 9 ounces is Kelly Ann Hurfin. The Hurfin family of Bella Vista, Shirley and Kenneth, and their other children, Kristin, Matthew and Peter, find their new little sister a very good baby.

THE JOHN LANZATELLA residence was filled to capacity on Sunday, April 21, with some 60-80 guests. Employees of the Fashion Division of Advertising from the J.I. Hudson Co. and their families gave a farewell party for two of their associates. One student from the University of Cincinnati had completed his stay of 8 weeks and was returning back to school. Other residents from Westbrook atending were Dale and Barbara Bowman of Lorikay.

With only two more weeks of bowling, it looks like the Sharks are a sure-fire winner. Rex Jernigan with his 231 leads the scores for the men with Art McClean, Tony Pasienza 214, Don Fuller a 220 and 214, Bill Swartz 200 and George Valassis a 210 and 207. The 5-7 was

Ed and Marie Keller spent their spring vacation by leaving God Friday and driving to the Pennsylvania Dutch country where they spent a couple of days before going on to Washington, D.C. to the Council for Exceptional Children. They have very good friends in Washington whom they were glad to visit. He is in the State Dept., dean of the Foreign Language Institute. They returned home via Atlantic City arriving here Sunday evening.

The Trouts, Berna, George, and the three children, planned to leave on vacation two weeks ago today but, just as they were to leave, Timmy and Tina came down with the three-day measles. They had a rash but no fever so the doctor gave permission for them to leave on Sunday. They drove down to the very lovely summer home George's folks have in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia, near the Sky Line Drive about 50 miles from Roanoke. The spring blooms were beautiful, the weather warm and delightful. They, too, had to be back Sunday.

ZAR READER LEFT Sunday afternoon for three days in Ann Arbor attending meetings of the "Six Upcoming Performances of 'Charley's Aunt', a production to be staged by the United Nations Seminar in New York City. She left here last week Wednesday and returned Monday. Her parents left the day for Pueblo, Colorado, on a combination business - for Jim - and pleasure trip as that was home territory for them for many years before they moved to Farmington. She returned Monday.

DOUG COOPER WAS in Philadelphia a couple of days last week on business. Sally Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hammett and her brother, Edward, drove on from Ramsey, N.J. arriving here last Saturday. They will spend a week at the home of their uncle, and three cousins, the Caldwells of Birmingham, joined them for a family dinner Sunday.

A reminder: The Mens' Association meets tonight at New in Hummors, 2762 Wellington. Bill Brown will speak on "Planning the Automobiles of the future." He is with Ford Motor, will tell how new car design evolves, and how both the stylists and the engineers try to satisfy the same customers.

BILL IS IN TROOP 102 and Tom in Troop 109. Den 1 had a theme of Air for their skit. Den 5, Rocks, and Den 9, under the sea. The Pack welcomed a new boy, Robert Kin, who transferred from 1126 in Detroit. Mr Ultz was presented with a 2 year pin and Mr. Wiggle with a 1 year pin.

Visitors present were from a new pack No.111, Mr. Sellers and Mr. Holloway, the cubmaster. There will be no square dancing this month. The next meeting is May 10. The boys had a lovely display of the crafts made this last month and there will be many happy mothers on their day in May.

The Cubs are having a paper drive and would appreciate your saving newspapers and magazines for them. Pick up will be on May 4. If you can service call, GR. 4-7538 or GR. 4-3117 and cub scouts will gladly come and pick up.

After Church Take The Family Dinner Home

Adult education classes, which were held first and second semesters in Farmington Senior High, were attended by a large number of adults. First semester class enrollment was 154 adults, and in the second semester 190 enrolled for classes. Eight teachers instructed adult students first semester in bridge, oil painting, sewing, can, stocks and bonds, typing, upholstery and watercolors. Second semester nine teachers taught classes of Bishop sewing, bridge, drawing and sketching, oil painting, sewing, stocks and bonds, typing, upholstery, and watercolors.

Mr. Richard Tyler, the Director of Adult Education, reports that efforts to expand the program and increase the publicity for next year's classes, which will resume in the fall, are being developed.

BRASSET THE BUTLER, played by Bob Brasset in the upcoming Farmington Players' production of "Charley's Aunt" adds mirth to a scene above in which Ann, played by Bonnie Goeman, and Lord Fancourt, played by Dick Manning, take time out for a coffee break. The play will open next Friday evening, May 3, in the Farmington Players' Barn on 12 Mile Road between Farmington and Orchard Lake Roads.

Players Open Box Office for Charley's Aunt

The box office is open for ticket purchasers planning to attend one of the six upcoming performances of "Charley's Aunt", a production to be staged by the United Nations Seminar in New York City. Tickets are on sale for the following dates: May 3, 4 and 5 and May 10, 11 and 12.

The box office is located on the site of the Players' Barn on 12 Mile Road between Farmington and Orchard Lake Roads and will be open Monday through Friday between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 10 p.m. and on Saturday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Ticket information can be obtained by calling the box office during the open hours, 474-9787.

WITH JUST ONE week of rehearsal left before opening night, the cast for "Charley's Aunt", which is being directed by Mrs. Fred Hamilton, is in the final stages of polish. "There's life in the old girl yet," meaning that everything is going well, says Hamilton. "Lady" of 60 known as "Charley's Aunt" and played capably by Mrs. Franklin Sullivan.

When the curtain rises next Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. the riotous English comedy written by Mrs. Fred Hamilton, is set in the final stages of polish. "There's life in the old girl yet," meaning that everything is going well, says Hamilton. "Lady" of 60 known as "Charley's Aunt" and played capably by Mrs. Franklin Sullivan.

MUCH OF the comic situation explodes when the aunt, "from Brazil, you know, where the nuts come from," arrives unexpectedly and is introduced to a young student fellow impersonating her (in order to provide a chaperone for a young lady visitor). Playing the young impersonator is Dick Manning and Bob Thomas and Dennis Broadhead will be seen as his fellow students.

Bonnie Goeman plays the lovely Amy in need of chaperoning and Mrs. James Smolligan plays her friend. A supporting cast of Jim Tully, Ron Jackson and Mrs. William Salisbury thickens the plot with more belly laughs.

Farmington JC's to Hold Safety Seat Belt Clinic

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce will again stage a Safety Seat Belt Clinic in Farmington offering motorists an opportunity to have free installation of the car safety devices which meet all requirements of the state and are recommended by the Automobile Manufacturers' Association and the American Medical Association.

The Jaycee Safety Seat Belt Clinic will be held this year on Saturday, May 11, beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing throughout the afternoon at the Downtown Farmington Center parking lot.

CO-CHAIRMEN of this year's clinic are Doug Wenderick and Bill Hanftan. They indicated special home installations may be arranged for those persons interested in having seat belts put in their car but for some reason are unable to be available for the Saturday, May 11, Safety Clinic. Wenderick can be contacted at GR. 4-8004 and Hanftan can be reached for appointments at GR. 6-2592.

"These belts are not only recommended by the AMA and the Society of Automotive Engineers but also by the National Safety Council and the U.S. Public Health Service," Wenderick said.

IT WAS POINTED out by Hanftan that the seat belts will be available in a variety of 10 different colors to match car interiors.

Stereo Organ Concert Set For May 7

Music lovers will get a chance to hear something new and different Tuesday evening, May 7 at 8 p.m.

A special organ concert will be held on this date at the American Legion Hall on Grand River at Lakewood featuring the first "moving stereo" organ ever built. This unusual instrument promises many exciting stereo high-fidelity effects never heard before.

Free concert tickets are available to the public at Welsby's rubber store at 33317 Grand River, Downtown, through the courtesy of Ernie Welsby.

At the console of the Lowrey Coronation Organ will be Frank Renaut. A national radio and TV artist, Renaut has also had an extensive career appearing with well-known orchestras. In addition to his duties as organist with the Trinity Reformed Church in York, Pennsylvania, he has his own television show.

"Tuesday evening's concert is right in tune with the times. Music organ playing has swept the nation, with people of all ages finding family fun and musical expression at the keyboard."

"Anyone can play the Lowrey Organ. Beginners can instantly duplicate the thrilling sounds of clarinet, trombone, guitar, vibraphone, accordion, mello box, violin and many other orchestral instruments," Welsby said.

Renaut will be on hand after the concert to answer your individual questions on the full line of Lowrey Organs for home and professional use. Free tickets from Welsby's include the whole family, since so many youngsters are playing the organ right along with their parents these days.

School Rummage Sale
