Tonight is the Westbrook Association Meeting. Business will commence at 8 p.m. The meeting has been out collecting dues these past few weeks, and they have approximately 80 houses each to cover.

The buffet-style dinner dance is set for May 19 at the Westbrook Lake Country Club. This is a wonderful chance to invite friends and business acquaintances to a very lively place. There are about 30 tickets left, so call Yvonne Weinstein (338-1784), Carol Jorgenson (474-3554) or Nancy O'Hara (476-3153).

THE FESTIVAL OF THE Lively Arts, a week-long series of programs sponsored by the Episcopal Churches, was held at Christ Church Dearborn. On Monday, April 22, Mrs. Donald Brann and Mrs. Ralph McCort attended the "Illustrated Lecture on Contemporary Art" by Mr. Laurence Barker, head of the Graphic Arts Department at the Cranbrook Academy of Arts. And on Friday, May 3, Mrs. Yvonne Weinstein and Mrs. E. J. Kallman (McCort) attended the performance of The Bishops Company in their presentation of "The Great Divorce" by C.S. Lewis.

After months of planning and writing a schedule, Alice McCabe, Jean Draper, Jeannette Gable and Vita Acciaioi all of Chesterbrook departed via the rail on April 24 for New York City. A dinner party with all 4 couples preceded departure. The ladies found they were able to pretty much stay on their schedule and so did lots of shopping and sightseeing. They enjoyed the Broadway show "Mr. President" very much. A brunch on Sunday at the Sun Maritz was very nice. A bus tour through Chinatown, Bowers and Greenwich Village and dining in some very nice places completed a wonderful 5 days when they returned home on Monday the 29th.

DID YOU KNOW you are spending less of your food dollars for more and better quality meat than you did in 1955. How this came about and other facts about modern meat buying and cooking were explored on Tuesday, April 23, at the VIP Home-makers meeting held at the home of Mrs. Rex Jernigan. Marilyn Acciaioi, Barbara Jernigan and Carol Jorgenson had attended the lessons on this subject presented by the cooperative extension service MSU, and following the usual procedure passed along the information to their fellow club members. This month the club is planning an open meeting and will present two very important movies on the subject of cancer, "Time and Two Women" and "BSE". They will be shown at 8:30, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Lee Draper, 32541 Chesterbrook.

If you live in Westbrook and can plan to attend please call 476-619. Admission is free and refreshment will be served. Submitted by Marilyn Acciaioi.

Mrs. Barbara Ericson, the Crusade Chairman for the American Cancer Society Crusade would like to express "thanks" to the many hundreds of volunteer crusaders, and in the Area Captain Mrs. Abele. A total of $572.60 was collected for Westbrook and part of Kendallwood and a total of $3,249.51 for Farmington and Farmington Township. All this work was done at a time when our weather was most unpredictable and was usually unfavorable.

MR. BILL CLOGG would like you all to know of the Kendallwood Swimming Club annual spring dance on Friday May 24. The Plum Hollow Country Club would be the place to bring a group of friends (not necessarily Pool members) from 9:30 to 1:30. For tickets you can call GR. 4-7752, or anyone of the following neighborhood ticket salesladies: Mrs. Brogren 476-7172; Mrs. Richardson 474-8380; Mrs. Wilson 476-0247; Mrs. Sell 476-1148; Mrs. Armstrong 474-8132; Mrs. Strenz 476-0824; Mrs. Little 474-7216; Mrs. Siefelt 476-6889.

It was my pleasure along with Mrs. Huber, Mrs. Robie, Mrs. Sell, Mrs. Con and Mrs. Gibney to chaperone the Duckel Choir to take part in the Choir Festival held at Ferndale High School. Duckel's boys choir, girls choir and mixed choir took part. Ratings were given by numbers as 1 for outstanding, 2 excellent, 3 fair etc. All 3 of these choirs received a 1 rating, and the mixed choir was selected to take part in the Honor Assembly at which 4 schools will be represented on May 21, again at Ferndale. Farmington should well be proud of this wonderful choir and its leader Mr. Eddy Ellegood.

THE LAST NIGHT of bowling for Thursday Tangles, Team No. 4 are champs. Team No. 6 are in second. Mrs. William Blakley of 22720 Lilac just arrived home from another very interesting vacation. Her plans originally were to accompany a planned tour. When the schedule of the tour was shown to her she realized that she had made it a few years ago, herself. Cancelling her reservation, Mrs. Blakley made arrangements for a Caribbean Cruise aboard the liner Empress of America.

After arriving home, Mrs. Blakley received a phone call from her son, Russell, in Atlanta, Georgia and told by Greyhound to spend a month with his family.

RUSSELL IS EMPLOYED as a Technical Writer for the Longhedge Company of Marietta, Georgia.

We want to report that Miss Opal Kileen and Mrs. Grace Knox are back and in the process of getting settled in their home at 22365 Lilac. They say they enjoyed their year in New York and that it certainly is a fabulous place to live. Welcome home.

We're pleased that Steven Kreuter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kreuter of 22689 Lilac, has the cast removed from his arm that he broke in February.
