Slate Sunday Bible Lesson

A Bible Lesson on the subject of "Mortals and Immortals" will be read this Sunday at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Farmington.
Golden Text: "The corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality" (1 Cor. 15:53).
Related readings from the Christian Science textbook include these lines: "Either here or hereafter, suffering or Science must destroy all illusions regarding life and mind, and regenerate material sense and self. The old man with his deeds must be put off." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures) by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 296).

"It's always the hempecked husband who grows crowd away from home," Ray S. Francis, Cheryllene (Kans.) Republican.

THE PROPOSED ORCHARD METHODIST CHURCH EDUCATIONAL BLDG. ADDITION.

Plan Building Crusade At Orchard Methodist

Under the General Chairman, the Crusade of Myron Schiller, the Crusade Committee is busy at work with plans for the coming Building Crusade at Orchard Methodist Church.
Vice Chairman is James T. Jones; spiritual chairman Herbert Ricketts; Marian Palmer, Chairman; Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, and he has already met with the Board of the Church and representatives in a preliminary session. Dr. Wilson will be in this area about May 17 for two weeks during an intensive phase of the Crusade. He will be in the area Sunday, May 19 and May 26. He comes to Orchard after 30 years in the pastorate - improving church property, liquidating indebtedness, and building parsonages, educational units and churches.
TEAM CAPTAINS are: Roy Aydelotte, Ed Baker, Robert Carey, Merle Conley, William Fagan, Kenneth Kerr, Herbert Letcher, Wayne Parkinson, Sheldon Watson, Walter Willsing, and David Wilson.
This Building Fund Crusade of May 17 thru May 27 will represent a determined effort to raise a minimum of $65,000 toward the retirement of the indebtedness of the present building at 30450 Farmington road so that construction can be begun on an

Plan Festival This Weekend

The Bernardine Sisters, Order of St. Francis, under the direction of Mother M. Carmela C.S.B. and Sister M. Berenice, have been feverishly employed in the dressing of authentic Irish folk costumes, as well as promoting ticket sales and general interest in their forthcoming festival, scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, May 18 and 19.
This event, which is to be held on the grounds of their Provincial House, corner of W. Tenth Mile and Jackson, is the first of its kind in Farmington Township, and several weeks of intensive work under the joint sponsorship of the local Catholic parishes, four separate locations, and five outstate institutions.
THE PURPOSE of this section is to provide for the initial development of building plans to include an all-girl academy, and the establishment of housing facilities for the poor of the Provincial House for this Order in Michigan. It is anticipated that by establishing this training facility, many vocations will be attracted to the religious life, and the tremendous problem of providing teaching sisters will be somewhat lessened in this area.
A special children's matinee will open the festival at 12 noon and continue until 6 p.m., Saturday, May 18, only.
Individual parish chairmen for this affair include William Pendergrass and George Rotary, St. Fabian, Farmington Township.
Farmington Chapter No. 239 O.S.S. held its annual Mother and Daughter banquet Tuesday evening at the Farmington Masonic Temple.
Mrs. Jean Marsh, Worthy Matron, gave the welcome. Mrs. Jean Brown was toastmistress and Mrs. Lucille Hargrave made the invocation. Karen Caputo sang to the Mothers and Mrs. Charlotte VanWicklin gave the toast to the Daughters.
A lovely dinner was served by the Eastern Star Brothers. The tables were decorated with dolls dressed in orchid net and ribbon.
Mrs. Alma Primrose presented a Tom Thum Wedding for the entertainment which was impressively given by the following: Minister, William Williamson; Bride, Jayne Marsh; Groom, Randy Brown; Maid of Honor, Karyl Wallace; Best Man, Terry Frisk; Bridesmaids, Sandra Brice, Mary Ann Williamson; Bride, Jayne Marsh; Groom, Randy Brown; Maid of Honor, Karyl Wallace; Best Man, Terry Frisk; Bridesmaids, Sandra Brice, Mary Ann Williamson; Junior Bridesmaid, Laurie Ann; Flower Girl, Cathy VanWicklin; Ushers, Richard Marsh, Hugh Harwell, Marshall Reid and Fred VanWicklin; Ring Bearer, Mary Ann Williamson; Father of the Bride, Larry Caputo; Mother of Groom, Bonnie VanWicklin; Soloist, Linda Williamson.

Eastern Star Banquet Held

At the spring meeting of College Women's Volunteer Service held May 9 at St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Home for Children, 2740 12 Mile Road, Mrs. Lloyd W. Mosher, President of CWVS, gave a history of College Women's Volunteer Service and pointed out that College Women's Volunteer Service members had participated in a project at Sarah Fisher Nursery when it was at Providence Hospital.
CWVS was founded 30 years ago (1933) to give college women an opportunity to utilize their skills and interests in community service.
Mrs. THOMAS S. McMillan, 28702 Old Bedford Road, Farmington, Placement Chairman, then introduced eight volunteers who have recently become involved in social service work through College Women's Volunteer Service. One of those introduced, Mrs. Ernest Lose of 3866 Hill Road, Farmington, has organized a library at Detroit League for the Handicapped, 1401 Ash Street, Detroit, and gives book reviews there at least twice a month.
Hostesses for the meeting were from Marygrove College Alumnae and included Mrs. Fred Wiggins at 32214 Bonanza Hill Road, Farmington, Marygrove delegate to C.W.V.S., and Mrs. James Hampton of 32178 Red Clover, Farmington.

Slate Speaker For Luncheon

The monthly luncheon meeting of the Women's Association of the Congregational Church, 26275 Northwestern Highway at Lahser Rd., Southfield, will be held at 12:30 on Tuesday, May 21. Service will be as usual at 10:30. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Harold Hiltz, 22740 W. 10 Mile Rd., Southfield.
THE PROGRAM SPEAKER is Rev. Allen Jenkins, Minister of the First Congregational Church of Royal Oak.
His program, "An Afternoon with Carl Sandburg" should be all the more interesting as Rev. Jenkins is a personal friend of Mr. Sandburg.
Luncheon decorations will be done by the Eleanor Taylor Group.

News From Briar Hill

FRANCES MANN MA. 6-5946

The 1963 Briar Hill Spring Dance is now just a pleasant memory for about two hundred people. The dinner was excellent; there were over a hundred given away with the Robert Setters of Briarion taking home the grandmother clock donated by Homestead House of Farmington; Marlene Dunham, Jim Nordeen and Bob Auman proved to be excellent movie players; and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful singing of our own Kaye Britton of Northwick. All this was due to the efficient work of the Social Committee headed by Jack Douglas and including Ted Klinghans, George Britton, Jake Hage, Sheldon Hedges, Ray Mooney, Douglas O'Neill, Jack Sheldon and Bruno Wickham.
A SINGULAR HONOR was given to Susan Palmer, daughter of Marion and Vic Palmer of Northwick; when she was recommended by the teachers as chosen as Student of the Month at O.E. Dunckel. Susan is at present and for the next month waiting around the school in her crutches as her foot is in a cast because of a broken bone. We can offer her our congratulations and our sympathy.
A buffet luncheon was enjoyed by the members of the Briar Hill Morning Bowling League on the 9th of May at Redford Inn. Trophies were eagerly accepted, as money distributed and an election held for next year's officers. For the 1963-64 season it will be Pat Wirth, president; Sue Morgan, vice-president; Lois Holmes, secretary and Connie Wingle, treasurer.
The newly organized North Farmington High School Parents Association will be holding a meeting on Tuesday evening, May 21, at 8 p.m. There will be a short business meeting and a report of informed people on the activities of our youth in our own area - both good and bad. Parents of students - your presence is requested.
On April 28, Lucy and Dick Andridge drove their son, Philip's bride back to Bordertown. New Jersey. Philip was due from ferrying service between Sweden and the States on that Sunday but he didn't come in until Thursday, May 2. So the three of them did some sight-seeing - Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell and the U.N. building.
DICK CAUGHT A plane for home on May 2 because his bowling team was fighting for the championship of the State League the next day. Upon arriving home, he discovered daughter, Carla, had come down with the flu. He had to leave for his eighth birthday on May 5. So back to Bordertown he flew on Saturday to visit with his son and then he and the daughter drove back on Monday. Quite an eventful week!
Casey Arkesteyn bought himself a real tree mower because he felt the rotary was too dangerous. Cutting the lawn last Saturday, he put his hand in the wrong place and ended up in the hospital for surgery on some badly damaged fingers. Moving the lawn these days is not only tiring but can be hazardous.
Bruce and Joanne Mayer of Briarion left by jet on May 8 for Los Angeles for a four day, three-week vacation. Their itinerary calls for stops at San Diego, Mexico, Coronado, San Francisco, Las Vegas and Palm Springs. At home, reading their postcards will be Bruce's mother and their pet, 21-pound Noah.
AN INVITATION has been issued to us to attend the Annual Spring Dance of the Kew-Forest Wood Swim Club. It will be held at the Plum Hollow Country Club on Friday, May 24, and tickets are only four dollars per couple. Anyone interested, call GR. 4-7752.
If you haven't purchased your flag from Jim Moreen yet, better hurry so you can display it all through Michigan week which starts on May 19. The Ruthy Jalich, Pat Norton and Cindy Ramsey. In the orchestra could be found Sue Schumacher and helping with the choreography were Cindy Hug and Linda Andridge. Sound effects were handled by Bob Hage.
