

At Home in Old Homestead

Spring has arrived in all its beauty in Old Homestead. At the moment we have more than 100 apple trees in bloom to delight the eye. The pear trees along Quakerturn Lane will soon add their blossoms to the already lovely scene.

A bonus for the table instead of wild apparitions is sending the tender spears up in the fields. From experience I have found that the youngsters are best at locating enough for dinner.

WE WERE SADDENED last week at the awesome fire that so quickly destroyed the home of the Tabb family, neighbors on Howard Rd. The family escaped in their night clothes with out injury. Misty, their much loved colie, however, was so fortunate. She will be missed by the many youngsters in the area as well as by her owners.

The interest and offers to help from neighbors are appreciated by Mrs. Tabb, but she feels that they can manage without outside help.

Fire has been proved to be a good servant but a terrible master. Youngsters and adults who made a trip to Tabb to see the results of the fire have gained a new respect for it.

Bel-Aire Hills NANCY CORT GR. 4-2021

I want you to know I'm going to try to represent our subdivision the best I can. It's been quite a while since there has been any Bel-Aire news in the Enterprise and I think you must be as much as I do. Now that it's Spring again, you will all, no doubt, be doing things of interest to everyone.

I hope you will share my enthusiasm in getting the "show on the road."

I WILL TRY to phone as many of you as I can, but as it is almost impossible for me to call everyone in Bel-Aire. Please call me if you know of anything for the column. If everyone cooperates, I'm sure we can keep up an interesting column.

Please call GR. 4-2021 and ask for Nancy (same number, different name) if you have anything for our column.

Westbrook Manor News

JOYE MCCORT GR. 4-2334

Congratulations are extended from this column to two Westbrook boys, Tom Davidson and Bob Huber, for their performance as two of the soloists in North Farmington's presentation "Where's Charley?" Color and really outstanding art work from the Art Department accompanied the Westbrook Farmington orchestra, costumes, choir, and sound gave an approximate audience of 1,500 for 2 nights, a thoroughly marvelous show. Enthusiasm and talent in Farmington clearly are plentiful and it is time we gave serious thought to providing a place suitable to the needs of it.

A FOUR GENERATION get-together, although brief, was held at the home of Betty Norman, maternal grandmother of Mrs. George Bakeman, Betty's Mother, Mrs. Merle Hayek, Betty and her two girls, were together on Mother's Day at the Nottingham residence. Betty had arrived home at 3 p.m. from a weekend of camping with her girl scout troop at Camp Marlin, and an hour later the two ladies departed for a trip to Iowa.

Barbara Murray of Aranee was feted with a dinner cooked and bubbled by Cliff Wells and Will Rice dinner for the family, with Bobby, Billy and Tommy. The boys had presented their gifts made in school and from Scout activities. Barbara was pleased with the results of her Den No. 9's work on hot plates made of plywood. Paul Ellery, Gary Drayback, Timmy Dodd, Jimmy Davis, Jim Carpenter, Brad Bratton and Steve Eckes designed their own hot plates. The room was decorated and burned the design of, painted and shellacked them for their mothers on Mother's Day.

Although traveling to Lansing is not new to the Richard Newman family of Coronet, visiting Delores's mother was a bit special on Sunday for Linda and Paul.

It was a very busy day at the Bob and Ruth Murray residence on Nottingham. Sunday seemed to be an ideal day to have all family and friends in the indoors, but there was still time to go visit grandmother in Detroit.

Orchard Meadows Sub

JOAN BROWN Greenleaf 6-1159

The small twins in the neighborhood have celebrated their fifth birthday. Brett and Barbir Stevens had separate parties, one for the girls and one for the boys. Barbie was first with her party on Saturday, May 4. As guests, she had Lisa Hickey, Carol and Kathy Gray and Debbie Grant.

Brett had his party on the following Sunday. Frank Stevens took his son and his friends to Mission Lake for a cook-out. The boys going along were Joe Meyers, Tom Shaw, Terry Brown and Steve Combes.

TO ADD TO THE festivities of the twin's birthday, their grandparents visited them also. Mrs. L.T. Oleschewer was here from Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Stevens were here from Jackson.

Yvonne and Dan Hickey left our apple blossoms for the sunny south on May 9. The Hickey's left for Miami Beach and will return this Thursday. The Hickey children remained at home.

Two of our second graders, Gale Ripard and Steve Dehaan made their first communion at St. Fabian's Roman Catholic Church last Sunday. Joe and Jean Ripard entertained with a dinner for family and friends in the afternoon to honor their daughter.

STEVE DEHAAN'S grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pears, were here from Grand Rapids to celebrate this important day in Steve's life.

church service and ending with a late dinner at Ted's Restaurant was a treat for both mothers and for young Scotty and Shelly. The dinner also in honor of Shelly's third birthday coming up this Friday.

It is with deep sincerity that we extend to Cliff Wells and his wife, Terry, our sympathy in the loss of his mother.

ON THE OCCASION of First Communion, Sharon Suwak, E. Markson, was pleased to have her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Suwak from Cleveland, attend the services, an afternoon celebration, which included a buffet lunch was served to 25 guests. A lovely white sheet cake was inscribed "Go Bless Sharon."

Vernon and Dottie Vickland recently announce a new member of their household, Steven Lee, born May 4 and weighing 8 lbs. 4 ozs. He makes the second boy beside Fred and evened the score with the two other girls, Lynn and Cathy.

The Thursday Tempis were all together again, but this time to celebrate the end of their buffet lunch was served to 25 guests. A lovely white sheet cake was inscribed "Go Bless Sharon."

Three silly trophies went to the loudest bloyer, and the recipient was Frank McMullen, the biggest joke teller, and this was Shirley Clark's and Cathy Kraft got a bottle of pills for getting the most splits. Eli Johns was the most improved lady bowler, and Bob Walker won for the men.

The entire league was able to attend the banquet with the exception of the Walkers and G.
