LADIES STEP FORWARD

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST

By Jean

Women with straight, lank hair are prone to look with green-eyed jealousy at those of the other extreme—too curly hair.

This type hair snarls and tangles easily and, if not constantly controlled, often tends to look frizzy. Special shampooing and protection from the elements is also to be watched carefully.

Long, loose hair styles are a poor bet with too-curly hair, but pert, head-hugging styles such as poodle, pixie and feather cuts have a world of charm.

The perfect cut and shaping of too-curly hair is a specialty at JEAN'S BEAUTE BEAUTY SHOP, 24100 Orchard Lake Rd. Phone GR. 47810.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: A little vinegar added to the final rinse water does away with the last trace of perspiration when washing heavy wavy curls.

Candlelight Wedding For Carolyn Ann Schuon

Miss Carolyn Ann Schuon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schuon of 20850 Runyemede in Farmington, became the bride of Mr. Larry Ray Sexton, son of Mr. Ballard Sexton of 22219 Hull Road in Farmington, in a double ring wedding ceremony held in the Grace Lutheran Church, 23300 Grand River in Farmington on Saturday, May 4.

The candlelight ceremony was officiated by church pastors, Rev. V. Frederick Halbooth and Victor F. Halbooth.

THE BRIDE'S WEDDING gown was of the Grace organza with short sleeves, a fitted bodice of Swiss Alpacas, a scoop neck and chapel train. Her head-dress, hand made by her mother was a pixie of the same material as the gown. Her bouquet was of lily mums and white mums and ivy.

Sue Schuon, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Farmer, a James Matousek and Miss Charlotte Sexton. They wore dresses of turquoise with bell shaped skirts, lace bodice, elbow length sleeves and scoop neck. They wore matching headpieces and carried bouquets of pink roses and carnations.

The best man was Mr. Roy Hacker. Ushers were Mr. Edward Mosey, Mr. Jack Keller and Mr. Larry Gilgallon.

A green silk dress with pink accessories and a cybindium orchid corsage was the ensemble chosen for the occasion by the bridegroom's mother.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore an ice blue silk organza dress with a lace bodice and crystal jewelry and an acymbidium orchid corsage.

A reception followed the church ceremony in the Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall where a buffet supper was served by Bowman's Farm Cupboard, catered by Rick Sexton, brother of the bridegroom, presided at the guest register. The bride and bridegroom led the reception for a honeymoon to Niagara Falls. The bride wore a three-piece navy suit trimmed in red and white for traveling.

The newlyweds are making their home at 2822 West Ten Mile Road in Farmington. Both are graduates of Farmington Senior High School and attended Henry Ford Community College.

He is employed with Hackler Landscaping and she is employed at the Ford Motor Company's Wixom Plant.

The Michigan Fair Employment Practices Law was enacted in 1955.

FHS Foreign Exchange Student Weds Area Girl

The First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth, Michigan, was the setting on Friday, March 23, at 7:30 p.m. for the marriage of Carol Elizabeth Pulfer of Livonia, to Rudolf Siegfried Schild, son of Frau Dr. R. Schild-Allemand and the late Siegfried Schild of Zurich, Switzerland. The Reverend Henry Welch officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, featuring Alencon lace appliques on the slender skirt and a chapel train. A Swiss crown of pearls secured a bouffant veil of silk illusion.

MISS PULFER carried a cascade of Stephanotis orchids and ivy. Christing Graf of Monroe, Michigan, was maid of honor. Sandra Plezia and Lynn Hyndman, both of Detroit, were bridesmaids. The attendants all wore identical gowns of candlelight taffets and Chantilly lace, adorned with moss green velvet sashes. Each carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The flower girl, Debbie Howe of Detroit, wore a dress of moss green chiffon over taffets. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Best man was Walter Koenig, a close friend of the bridegroom from Kuehnacht, Switzerland. Ralph Silver of Livonia and Hubert Smart of Detroit served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pulfer chose a dress of champagne silk with a lace jacket. Mrs. Schild wore a light blue broadcated dress. Both mothers carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Blue and White Band and Choir Plan Concert

Spring music of a light, frivolous nature divided by 44 bandmen plus 100 choral members—20th Century Musicale. This is the formula that Mr. Robert Zimmerman, band director, and Mr. William Feucht, choral director, have devised for the enjoyment of all on Tuesday, May 21, at 8 p.m.

The "Musicale," the last concert of the year, has something for everybody. The music selected is of a wide variety and is sure to include some point of musical interest, especially for those who did not attend any of the previous concerts because of the music presented.

The concert, though under the direction of Mr. Zimmerman and Mr. Feucht, will be shared entirely by the students.

Every detail from the choice of music to the program design to the paper mache properties has been organized by students.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained from any band or vocal member.

Baton Classes Plan Program

The "Joyette Twirlers," students of Joyce Ray at 23812 Farmington Road, will present a baton show Saturday, May 18, at 8 p.m. at the Ten Mile School.

This show will be a culmination of their work and practice during the fall and winter months.

The show will be highlighted with some extra acts which add variety and spice to the program.

CHILDREN APPEARING in the show are: Nancy Jones, Jenny Forrester, Diane and Deb Heffess, Mary Benedict, Joann Paul, Debbie Wiseman, Ronnell Lee, Roberta Pauline, Sandra Nordyke, Sherry Tison, Jane Blue, Alanah Tison, and Linda Finlay.

Guest appearances will be made by Linda Harper, tap dancer, Robert Hawkins and Randy Cleveland, comedy skits, and Betty Urban, twirler.

The "Joyette Twirlers" will also be seen marching in the Memorial Day Parade.

NEAT TRICK

Suspend small objects to be painted by a string from an overhead support. This provides out-of-the-way drying space while allowing rotating while painting all sides.

Local Teacher To Lead Tour

Mrs. Florence Coveyou, residing in Detroit and a teacher in Farmington Schools, will act as leader of a teacher group touring Europe this summer.

The National Education Association, teacher's professional organization, is sponsoring the educational tour.

Teachers from approximately 12 states will travel in the group, which leaves New York early in July. The countries to be included in the trip are Portugal, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, Belgium, France and England. Academic credit may be earned for participation in the tour.

MRS. COVEYOU is a veteran director of NDA-sponsored travel projects. She is also an NEA-NEA educational travel representative for the Detroit area. She has traveled widely in Europe, having a particular interest in the people of Northern Peninsula. Mrs. Coveyou is 40-year-old teacher at Beechview School.

Teacher groups sponsored by the National Education Association will be covering the globe during the summer months. Three of the groups will travel around the world by air. Such tours are more and more coming to be considered an integral part of the teacher's education.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Henry, Jr. of Prospect Avenue, Farmington, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Roberta Elizabeth, to Mr. John Cabot Ross of Cleveland, Ohio, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ross of 1114 Belmont Avenue in Farmington. The couple have set their wedding date for June 29 and will reside in Cleveland.

Farmington Garden Club To Landscape City Park

In an effort to enhance the downtown area of Farmington, the Farmington Garden Club is going forward with plans to landscape and develop the city park at Oakland and Grand River.

Mr. Carl D. Johnson, 8888 Howard Road, Farmington, of the landscape architectural firm Johnson, Johnson, and Roy, has volunteered to assist in this project and has presented a beautiful landscape design which will be started immediately and completed as funds are available.

MR. JOHNSON, also a lecturer at the University of Michigan School of Architecture and Design, is well known in his field and he has recently been engaged to design the landscape for the new Farmington Medical Center, and the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

The City of Farmington has agreed to assist the Farmington Garden Club and Mr. Johnson in this worthwhile project and because it is for the entire community, memorials will be accepted. For more information about this, call Mrs. Conroy, GR. 4-4222.
