

3 Local Coeds Now Teaching

Several hundred senior teacher education students at Western Michigan University are "trying their wings" in the classroom this spring as they engage in their practice teaching work.

Dr. A.L. Sebby, director of student teaching, says that prospective teachers are assigned throughout Southwestern Michigan learning the practical side of classroom teaching from experienced teachers. At the same time they are also going to school and in group situations are examining the problems which they have encountered.

Most of these students will complete their academic studies this spring and will be ready for state certification as teachers and will enter the ranks of classroom teachers in the fall.

Among those practice teaching are: Patricia Anne Sewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sewell of 32391 Loomis; Karla Ann Wyss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Wyss of 20300 Randall; and Florina Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wanda Noble of 2215 Tulane. All of these students are from Farmington.
