Diane Marie Smith Weds In Double-Ring Ceremony

Diane Marie Smith of Farmington and John Kevin Doyle of Detroit were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony in Our Lady of Sorrows Church on Saturday, May 18. Reverend Father George P. Duffy officiated as the bride and bridegroom, joined on the altar by a wedding party of ten, shortly before the Blessed Sacrament and exchanged the bonding promises.

A high nuptial mass sung and played by George Ruhl proceeded the ceremony. THE BRIDE wore a floor-length gown of silk capotee accented with silk organza ribbons. Her bouffant veil was held by a Queen's Crown tiara of pearls and iridescents. She carried a bouquet of white orchids on a lace-covered prayer book adorned with stephanotis and ivy.

Bridesmaids included Janet Main and Patricia Hatfield, friends of the bride, and Kathleen Doyle and Eileen Duffy, sisters of the bridegroom. They wore belted gowns of white lace over yellow taffeta and carried ribbons of white and green. CAOLYN SMITH, sister of the bride, was Maid of Honor. Her dress was identical to the bridesmaids and she carried a ribbed basket of green pom-poms.

Brendon Doyle, brother of the bridegroom, served as Best Man. Others included Jack Doyle, William Doyle, Thomas Smith, and Raymond Unks. The bride's mother chose a beige lace dress having a geometric overlay with matching accessories for the occasion. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink shantung three-piece suit with complementing accessories. Both mothers wore eymbidom orchids to match their dresses.

The church ceremony was followed by a reception at the St. Francis Council Knights of Columbus Hall in Farmington. Dance music was provided by Ken Sebastian and The Ensemble with vocal selections by Carolyn Smith, sister of the bride.

A white wool suit with navy accessories was worn by the bride as the couple left for a honeymoon trip to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. Kevin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Doyle, 4714 Webb Avenue, Detroit, is a 1959 graduate of Visitation High School. He is employed by General Motors Corporation and is attending the University of Detroit.

Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith, 24461 Broadway Drive, Farmington, is a 1959 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School and is a graduate of Cleary College in Ypsilanti. She is currently employed as a computer operator at the new newsprint mill which will make their home in Dearborn.

The so-called fringe benefits paid by manufacturers and their processors to employees rose to nearly a quarter the payroll (24.9 percent), representing an increase of 117 percent in 10 years. The United States consumes about 260-million gallons of water every day. Flowers clusters of the pussy willow are called catkins.

LADIES STEP FORWARD

BY JEAN

If you have fine hair it is very likely soft-shinned and sleek, but it poses a number of problems of its own. Cold weather loads it with static electricity, heat leaves it limp and you are probably in a never-ending search for props to give it body.

We might suggest frequent washing and cream rinses to provide more body, but we caution against vigorous yanking on shampoo snails as fine hair is even more fragile when wet. Also, be careful of too-energetic brushing and combing which only adds to friction troubles.

Fine hair responds nicely to a permanent which is soft and loose and free of frizzing tendencies. This type permanent—as is true of any permanent—is properly and expertly given at JEAN'S BEAUTY SHOP, 24109 Orchard Lake Rd. Try us. Phone GR. 4-7810.

Mill Creek Qwesters Plan Last Social Meet in June

The May meeting for the Mill Creek Qwesters antique study group was held at the home of Mrs. James Moore, 36083 Castle Meadow.

Mrs. Preston Meisel presented a study paper on "Pattern Molds and Pressed Glass." She also brought many examples to show from her own fine collection of pressed glass.

The June meeting will be a social event culminating activities until next fall. Many interesting field trips this season include, Greenfield Museum, The Detroit Historical Museum, an antique doll shop, and an auction.

THE DUES from the chapter and chapters all over the country have contributed and aided historically important places such as: Sturbridge Village and the restoration of Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Qwesters have also contributed to the restoration of paintings in the Stephen Decatur House, Washington, D. C. (furnishing for the Martha Washington Lobby) at the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa. and also donated funds for the preservation of many other historical buildings.

Anyone interested in joining the Farmington group or receiving further information, may call Mrs. Preston Meisel at GR. 4-6099.

Job's Daughters Plan Rummage Sale

International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 5, will sponsor a "Rummage Sale" Saturday, June 1, at the Fire Station on Wheeler Street (one block North of Grand River and one block East of Middlebelt). Doors open at 10 a.m.

The Honored Queen, Miss Joanna Becker will preside at the last meeting of her term June 5 at 7:15 p.m. at the Farmington Masonic Temple. A very nice evening is planned.

There will be a Majority Degree given to the following girls: Louise Lind, Carol Menke, Carol Jones and Jane Smith. Secret Pals will be revealed with a box social. All orders are invited to attend.

Several girls and their parents commuted to the Alma Masonic Home for a picnic on the grounds. The club's granddaughters were the guests for the day.
