Universalists Pick Officers
The 110th annual meeting of the Universalist - Unitarian Church of Farmington was held Friday, May 24, at the church. Dr. Martin Gluckstein of Farmington was elected moderator for the 1963-64 church year. Trustees named at the meeting were Henry Heston of Livonia, Miss Marion Kellogg of Highland Park, Alfred Benson of Farmington and Dr. Alden Shaw of Northville. Paul Bransford and Mrs. Harry Gibson, both of Farmington, are continuing members of the Board of Trustees.

In an earlier meeting, the Association of Universalist Women of the church elected Miss Adeline Minor of Farmington as president. Other officers are Mrs. Richard Ingram of Redford, vice president; Mrs. Frank Vincent, Livonia, secretary and Mrs. Alfred Smith, Farmington, treasurer.

Orchard Meth. Women to Be At 'Cross Roads'
The Women's Society of Christian Service of Orchard Church will hold their annual meeting at "The Cross Roads," a dinner club - restaurant, Cross Roads is a club known throughout the city as a place where families may enjoy dining out-together without the presence of alcoholic beverages, being served on the premises.
Well known entertainers are featured at the club. Top performers who are interested in Christian movements are their main attraction. There is also community singing.
Drivers will leave the Orchard Methodist Church parking lot at 8:30 sharp. However, some car pools are being formed in nearby neighborhoods. For information on transportation call Marion Palmer - MA. 6-6978. Children are welcome - so don't stay home for want of baby-sitters.
Neither the Mary Martha circle, nor Mizpah Circle will meet in June, July or August.
The new slate of officers, along with the retiring officers will meet at the home of retiring president Adeline Palmer for a program planning luncheon May 29th at 10 a.m.
The Women's Society officers training day at Royal Oak Methodist Church is June 7th at 10 a.m.

BON VOYAGE WISHES for Carol Lawshe, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lawshe of 3331 Meadowlark, were extended by the President of the Women's Civic Club of Farmington, Mrs. Marjorie McIntosh, Carol, a Junior at Farmington Senior High, has been selected by the Michigan Council of Churches as a foreign exchange student who will visit Madrid, Spain, for two months this summer. Mrs. McIntosh presented Carol with a $25 check from her club.

Strawberry Social, Band Concert Slated
Northwest YWCA is inviting the general public, including friends to a strawberry Social and Band Concert on the front lawn of the Branch, 29940 Grand River, Thursday evening, June 6, from 7 to 9 p.m.
Strawberries and ice cream will be served in the early evening, with the band concert following. Datus Moore will direct the Pearson Junior High School band and his dance combo which will start playing at 7:45. People are urged to bring lawn chairs or blankets so they may sit on the lawn.
Tickets may be secured in advance at the Branch or at the door on the night of the festival. The festival will be held indoors in case of rain.

Will Speak Out on Hypnotism on Sunday
The absolute stand of Christianity against any form of hypnotism will be emphasized in the service this Sunday at Christian Science Church. Subject of the Bible Lesson is: "Ancient and Modern Necromancy," alias "Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." The readings will include this verse from Jeremiah (23:26): "I will be the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters."
"The bonds of matrimony cannot be classed as redeemable securities." — George B. Dowry, (N.M.) Independent Review.
The Kendal-lone Trio, (Marjorie Belanger, Wyn Hartom and Betty O'Connor) sang "Smile With Me" and "Bye Bye Blues."
Roaring Twenties Dance Routine was performed by Margaret Aides, Mary Martin, Marilyn Waite and Dolly Williams.
Comedy Routine was sung and danced by Beverly Morski.
The Kendal-larks will again be performing in September with two engagements.
They are closing once more this year with their annual dinner banquet at Pura June 8th. An invitation has been extended to the past members. Past members are invited and should call Marjorie Belanger for reservations.
The Kendal-larks suggest anyone interested in performing with the group next year call Mrs. Belanger, GR. 4-0686.

Kendal-larks Perform Here
The Farmington Kendal-larks recently sang for the Kiwanis Club at Botsford Inn.
The Kendal-larks closed this season with their performance for the Farmington Teachers Association, Tuesday May 28, at O. E. Dunkel School. This was a return engagement for the Kendal-larks, having sung last year at this time for an equally enthusiastic group.
For their program the chorus under the direction of Mr. E. Ellegood, accompanied by Beverly Morski and Carol Jones, sang "Praise Be Thine," and "Good-night, My Someone."
The small acts group sang and danced their way through the following numbers:
Soloist Grace Coffman sang "Sorretto" and Betty O'Connor sang, "Selections from Show-bow."
The Kendal-lone Trio, (Marjorie Belanger, Wyn Hartom and Betty O'Connor) sang "Smile With Me" and "Bye Bye Blues."

Incarnation Lutheran Church held its first service in Ten Mile Elementary School on October 1, 1961, later moving its services to the Middlebelt School.
It was officially organized on October 28, 1962.
THE CONGREGATION took title to its building site on Ten Mile Road and the parsonage on Marquette Road and called its first pastor, the Rev. George Stegmier, who was the minister in charge of the congregation.
The program in which the congregation is now involved will culminate Sunday, June 9, with a Thursday evening service, June 6, from 7 to 9 p.m.
Strawberries and ice cream will be served in the early evening, with the band concert following. Datus Moore will direct the Pearson Junior High School band and his dance combo which will start playing at 7:45. People are urged to bring lawn chairs or blankets so they may sit on the lawn.
