

Michigan's rarest bird is the Jack Pine Warbler.

Area Army Pvt. In Germany

Army Pvt. Thomas G. Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Page, 2570 Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington, was recently assigned to the 2nd Quartermaster Group in Germany.

Page, a member of Company B of the group's 9th Quartermaster Battalion, entered the Army in November 1962 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 20-year-old soldier attended Pinney High School, Pinconning.

NFHS Parents Group Issues Annual Report

It was very gratifying to see the large attendance at the Parents Organization meeting held on Tuesday, May 21, to hear a discussion on youth activities. The following executive board was elected for the following year: President - Lyle K. Young; Vice-President - Mrs. Carolyn Hawkins; Recording Secretary - Mrs. Pat Wirth; Corresponding Secretary - Mrs. Becky Dolan; Treasurer - Mrs. Ruth Slocum.

We would also, at this time, like to report the services performed by the Parent Organization since its inception this spring.

MRS. MILLIE KINGHORN was the volunteer driver on February 2, 1963, at which time she took students needing dental treatment at the County Clinic to the Royal Oak Dental Clinic.

Some 40 students participated in the Florida Program for eighth graders held April 22 to 25 (inclusive). The Chairman worked with Mrs. Jackie Davis, PTA Council Executive Committee Chairman; Mr. Harold Humble, school coordinator for the program; and Mrs. Margaret Lupia, in charge of personnel.

The volunteers in this program included the following: Helen Hinman, Beverly Bramlage, Florence Naumann, Ruby Kennedy, Olga Jajick, Phyllis Auman, Lois Holmes, Joan Grassie, Greta McMullen, Jean Park, and Millie Kinghorn. We would like to thank these volunteers for their valuable assistance.

Early Indians called Michigan "Legislaw" meaning "Great Water."

Farmington Scout Troop 116 To Hold Court of Honor June 12

District Scout executives, similar to the present Boy Scouts, moving to Detroit in 1910, he worked as a neighborhood commissioner and district commissioner from 1912 to 1934. He became a scoutmaster in 1913, and has served as a field commissioner for the Detroit Area Council since 1934.

Among the top Scout officials attending will be Edward H. Leland, Chief Scout Executive of the Clinton Valley Council, Pontiac; Albert C. Grabner, Ottawa District Chairman; Edward Goetz, Ottawa District Scout Executive; John Hunt of Farmington, Council President; and the new Council President, Arthur Brooks, of Birmingham.

FARMINGTON'S Superintendent of Schools, Gerald V. Harrison, will participate in the Court of Honor. The Reverend William H. Holmes, of North Farmington Baptist Church, will deliver the invocation.

Members of Troop 116 who will receive Eagle Awards are: Richard G. Bensinger, Michael R. Bensinger, Kim G. DeCoursey, Norman J. DeCoursey, Peter B. Dolan, Gary M. Gibson, Stephen H. Garrard, Roger D. Mingo, Paul C. Mingo, Keith A. Swanton, Brian W. Swanton and Randall G. Slicko.

Grand Rapids was the first city in the world to begin fluoridation of the public water supply to reduce tooth decay, and today Michigan is a leader in this safe and effective public health measure.

Wayne State, in Detroit, became a state university in 1956 through action of the Michigan Legislature. The school was founded in 1868.

Area Soldier Has Training At Ft. Rucker

Army Specialist Four William H. Woodward, 19, whose wife, Bonnie, lives at 2578 Powers Rd., Farmington, recently completed a five-week aircraft maintenance course at the Aviation Center, Fort Rucker, Ala.

During the course Specialist Woodward received instruction in the operation of Army airfields and in the servicing and maintenance of fixed and rotary wing aircraft.

He entered the Army in August 1961 and received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Woodward, 3200 Doherty Dr., attended Farmington High School.

Eastern Michigan University, formerly Michigan State Normal College, established in 1849, was the first teacher training institution west of the Alleghenies.
