n 75th Birthday
Charles S. Dorst, a Gravel retired veteran of many years, lay celebrated his 75th birthday.
Dorst, a registered representave with Manley, Bennett, Mcnald and Co. in the Building, started in the investment business 53 years ago as runner for a Cincinnati bond use.
Co-workers and partners of s firm marked the event with cake cutting ceremony. Dorst, a resident of Farmington.

The Women of Kendallwood Farms will hold an installation dinner and hair style show on Tuesday, June 11, at St. Fabian Social Hall at 8 p.m. Hair fashions will be created by hair stylists from Robert and Charles Beauty Salon. Members may invite guests to this meeting-the last of the year. However, reservations must be made by calling Joan Harris, GR. 6-1093, Helen Bishop, GR. 6-0103, or the president, Gale Girolami - GR.
GR. 6-0066.

Officers for the 1963-64 season to be installed at this time are: President, Lillian Axelsson; Vice president, Janice Haydel; Residing Secretary, Wanda Gilmore; Corresponding Secretary, Ruth Thomas; and Treasurer, Mickey Williams.

Cub Scout Pack 48 will hold their annual family picnic on Sunday, June 9, at 2 p.m., at Marshallbank Metropolitan Park.
The "B. of N." Bridge Club members were entertained by Shirley and George Ols last week.
Now it can be told-Joe Ste-bastian from radio station WXYZ will be master of ceremonies at the North Farmington Little League Banquet to be held on Friday, June 14, at the North Farmington High School Gym from 8 to 11 p.m.

MARGARET, Andy, Mark and Michael Starnsky have enjoyed their home on Bainbre Rd. in "K3 for the past 4 1/2 years.
On June 7 they will say goodbye to their friends and neighbors and head for Johnston, Pa. where Andy is employed by the Crane Co. A farewell dinner was held last week for Margaret and Andy at Menz's.

As summer approaches the water in the creek will be at its lowest level. Even so this meandering stream can be an other distinctly enhancing feature of our beloved Kendall-wood. Enhancing it-if, it isn't cluttered with grass cuttings, garden weeds, tin cans, beer cans and other "miscellaneous" debris that someone finds more convenient to dispose of in the creek instead of at the proper places.

New neighbors-Jan and Lee Walsh recently moved into their home on Bainbre from Minn-neapolis, Minnesota. Lee is employed by the Minneapolis Iron-cycell Co. The Walshs have a ten month old daughter, Ann.

On June 7, Belle and Bill Roberts will celebrate their wedding anniversary.
The Red Tree Bridge Club met at Donna and Jack Fiehnman's. Winners were Jack Fiehnman, Joann Billmeyer and Donna Fiehnman. A mid-night supper was served.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Diane Betti. Diane was 9 on May 30.
Birthday wishes on June 4 to Andy Gilmour and Walter Haydel.

Ann and Russell White of Bainbre entertained at a dinner party Saturday night. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Ver-derbush and Dr. and Mrs. Pierre DePatie. Another recent highlight in the lives of Ann and Rusty was a long weekend vacation trip to the Sahara in Ontario, Canada where they enjoyed many recreational facilities.

JEAN and CHARLES Allyn's household was full of excitement recently when five year old Shady came to live with the family on Kendallwood Dr.
Jean and Charles have another adopted son, Tony, who is 7 years old.

The Kendallwood Keglers Bowling League concluded the season with a dinner dance at Souffle's Nonfiction Inn. Business was furnished by Herbie Ross and his orchestra. Comedian Paul Lennon was the highlight of the evening.

First place trophies were won by Jerry Campbell, Ed McConnell, Nancy Buchanan, Elaine Demister and George Rotary, members of the team called "The Launchees." Maxine Benish received a trophy for high series and high game for the ladies. Mitt Schwartz captured the trophy for high game in the men's series. George Rotary had high series for men. The most improved bowler was Lois Hausman. Trophies were also presented to the members of the Astronauts and the Capsules Jack Reed, founder of the Kendallwood Keglers Bowling League, was presented with a plaque for a job well done.

NEWLY ELECTED officers of this league are President, Paul Robinson; Vice-president, George Rotary; Treasurer, Bud Wilters; Secretary, Jo Owen.
People interested in joining this league are asked to contact any of the officers.

Margaret and Bob Lander of Red Clover feed to Indianapolis where they spent a very exciting Memorial Day at the "500 Mile Race."

Staman Stitches
To Sew Cancer Pads

The Staman Acres Stitches will meet to sew cancer pads on Wednesday, June 12, at the home of Paula Seidel, 8 p.m.
Co-hostesses for the evening are Bev Ellis, Millie Unks and Jerry Tyson.

A program of flower arranging by Gloria Giles has been planned. Since this is the last meeting until September, we hope to see everyone there.

News From Briar Hill

FRANCES MANN
MA. 6-5916

Our household was strictly female this past weekend. I and Jack left to go with Boy Scout Troop 116 for camping and a thirty mile canoe trip down the Manistee River.
Rick came back with a cold and Jack was just plain tired but both agreed it had been fun.

Bruce and Gertie Carroll, who had moved recently from Brirton to a new home in Kimberley, are now parents of twins, a boy and girl. They were born last Wednesday and weighed in at 8 lbs. 12 ozs. for the girl and 7 lbs. 3 ozs. for the boy. Congratulations to all!

EIGHT YEAR OLD Pam Moffitt of Brirton had to spend a few days at St. Mary Hospital last week because of an infection. And Joan Babcock of Beaconree was in Old Grace Hospital for a week while her mother and father cared for her family.

The Tuesday Bridge Group met on May 28 for a picnic at the lake cottage of Helen Kir-land. It was also a farewell party for Dorothy Strage. Wishing her bon voyage were Margaret Lupia, Betty Hopkins, Kilty Jones, Ginny Robb, Marge Ewing, Jan Patterson, Corrie Wingie, Lois Holmes, Kay Norton and Margaret Fay.

The Strage family, formerly of Ravenscroft, are saying goodbye to their home at 4025 Hester Ave.
They are moving west, visiting relatives in Seattle, Washington, before moving into their new home at 4025 Hester Ave.
They are moving west, visiting relatives in Seattle, Washington, before moving into their Next Monday will find the sixth graders and their parents at a "Moving Up Dinner" to be held at Beechview School. It will be a happy time but some of the boys and girls will be losing friends as some of the students will go to Dunham in the fall and some to the new East Junior High.

And on Thursday evening, June 13, we have quite a few young people graduating as seniors from Farmington High School. Those graduating are Linda Young, Sharon Steiner, Lynn Murphy, Rick Andriano, Tom Harris, Mike Martella, Kathy Knight, Craig and Kenneth Douglas, Jon Kennedy, John Sloane and John Pallant.

WITHE MANY planning to go to college, we are going to have quite an imposing list of college students from Briar Hill.

Monday, June 10, is an important day as it is the date for a School Election. At 11 a.m. Briar Hill cast our ballots at Dunkel Junior High from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. A trustee is to be elected for a four year term and the Community College issue is to be voted upon.

Elaine and Sheldon Watson and their sons were among those attending the Indianapolis 500.
The baby and Sally stayed home with Elaine's mother and aunt.
They also visited relatives as Indianapolis is "home." It has only been about a month since

The Deats family of Brirton spent the weekend at their new tent trailer. The weather was perfect and they all came home with sunburns.
The date for the next luck dinner of the Briar Hill Book-Club has been changed from June 19 to June 18. Bring your dishes to the home of Sharon Mckeays; 34233 Banbury at 7:30 p.m. and bring if unable to attend, please call her. This will be the final meeting and all members having books should return them.
