MRS. DONALD C. HARMS

Kingsley-Harms Wedding Vows Spoken on Saturday, June 15

Miss Sue J. Kingsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald V. Kingsley, and her late husband, Dr. Gerald V. Kingsley, of 12083 Ward Street in Detroit, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 15, in Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church with Mr. Donald Christian Harms, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harms of 25792 Briarton Drive in Farmington.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Hugh Gorman, pastor of Ward Memorial Presbyterian.

The bride wore a white organza gown, floor length with a small train, long sleeves and appliqued lace. She wore a pearl tiara headpiece which secured a bouffant veil. The bridal bouquet was of white roses.

The sister of the bride, Patricia Kingsley, was the maid of honor. She wore a pink and white tulle dress, street length, and carried a bouquet of roses.

BRIDESMAIDS were Mrs. Sandra Saville and Miss Mary Jo Porter. They both wore gowns matching that of the maid of honor.

Bruce Larson, a close friend of the bridegroom's, served as best man. Groomsmen were his brothers, Thomas and Steven Harms. Ushers were an uncle, Donald Harms, and a cousin, Robert Campbell.

The flower girl was Kathy Lynn Kingsley, cousin of the bride. Marguerite McFarlin was the ring bearer.

The bride attends the University of Michigan where she will be in her senior year next fall. The bridegroom was graduated from U. of M. this month and is employed by the City of Detroit Housing Commission.

The couple plans to be at home June 22 and will reside in Detroit.

The election of Donald MacKinnon, 2608 Ridgewood, Farmington, to the office of President of the Board of Directors of Catholic Social Services of Oakland County was announced recently at the annual dinner meeting of the agency.

Royal Oak residents, Adolph F. Klein and Ivan E. Garske, were also elected to first terms as 1st Vice President and 2nd Vice President respectively.

Michael Capo, also of Royal Oak, was re-elected to serve as Treasurer of the Board; and Reverend John A. Trese as Secretary. Father Trese is the Director of Catholic Social Services in Oakland County.

Farmington Kiwanians To Attend Convention

Walter Gale, Al McGaw (Alternate), Ron Taylor and Tom Adeock, all members of the Kiwanis Club of Farmington, will attend the 88th Annual Convention of Kiwanis International in Atlantic City, New Jersey, June 20 - July 4.

More than 16,000 Kiwanians and their families from the United States, Canada, Mexico, and the Bahamas are expected to gather in the City of the Boardwalk for the four and a half day event. Convention sessions will be held in Atlantic City's Convention Hall, the largest of its type in the world.

WORK TO BE accomplished at the convention will include the election of officers for 1963-64 - a president, president-elect, treasurer, and six trustees; recognition of the top clubs and Kiwanis districts, based on community service activities; and the adoption of resolutions upon which the organization's 1963-64 community service program will be based. Omerie H. Tucker, Gallie, New Mexico, radio station owner and president of Kiwanis International, will preside.

Principal speakers, in addition to President Tucker, will be The Honorable Dean Rusk, U.S. Secretary of State; Max Freedman, syndicated Washington columnist; Ward L. Quaal, Executive Vice-President and General Manager of WGN, Inc., Chicago; and the leaders of Kiwanis' two sponsored youth organizations, H. Pettus Randall III, president of Key Club International, the high school service organization for boys and James S. Mathews, president of Circle K International, the college men's service group.

An afternoon ladies event will feature a fashion show, "The World We Live In," with Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America, and a court of Miss America state contest winners. The program will be produced and directed by the Miss America Pageant.

A COMPLETE program for youngsters in attendance has been scheduled, including an all-day sightseeing trip to Philadelphia.

Some thirty amateur bands, choruses, musical groups, soloists, and special acts will be presented during the convention period. Some are composed of Kiwanis members while others are Kiwanis-sponsored youth and adult groups.

Highlights include an inspirational musical "In Memoriam"
