2nd Annual Flea Market Set for Sunday

Mrs. Dorothy McCollum of 24105 Locust Drive in Farmington will hold her Second Annual Flea Market on Sunday, June 23, on the grounds of her home between the hours of 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

This year, Mrs. McCollum reports, there will be 47 antique dealers from around the state and the midwest attending the Flea Market and exhibiting their wares.

"Everything from antiques to any junk will be on display," says Mrs. McCollum. Displays will include jewelry, art work, oil paintings, furniture (early American), European items and "something for everybody," says Mrs. McCollum.

ENTERTAINMENT will be provided on the 13 acre grounds by the students from the Miss Harriet Dance Studio. Refreshments to be served include popcorn, ice cream, potato chips, hot dogs, coffee and ginger ale. There is an admission charge for adults.

Mrs. McCollum's home has a colorful history which goes back more than one hundred years. During the Civil War her home was one of the stations for the underground railroad, smuggling slaves to the north out of the reach of their southern owners. Conrad Lam flew to Atlantic City last Saturday for the convention of the American Medical Association. Mary, who has stayed on for summer school in Middlebury, Vt., went to Atlantic City to see her mother's Day with him. Conrad flew home yesterday.

Jimmie Davis brought Lou Slater home with him for the summer. Lou's home is in Farmington and he is a classmate of Jimmie's at the Brigham Young U. Both have summer jobs here.

MORE BELLEVILLE grandchildren are coming their education. Tim Belian was the only member of his class at the U. of Michigan to take the 5 year mechanical engineering course. He was graduated June 8 and left last week Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif. where he has been employed by North American Aviation Co.

A granddaughter, Donna, was happy to see her husband, Jerry Gorry, graduate, with high honors, from the U. of Detroit. Jerry plans to enter the U. of Michigan this fall to get a masters degree in business administration.

ANNE FELLARH graduated last Thursday night from the U. of Detroit, magna cum laude. Congratulations Anne.

The Sheriff home is certainly filling up. George's father and his sister, Aloha Hull, with her two daughters, Betty and Susie, drove on from Des Moines, Iowa and were due to arrive today. Tomorrow their daughter, Louise, now Mrs. Thomas Alden, is due to arrive from Schenectady, N. Y. with her two little boys, Peter and Teddy.

Louise has not seen her grandfather for three years so this will be his first meeting with two-year-old Ethel.

Then, Saturday, Ethel is having the Gray Ladies from Pontiac at the hospital, with husbands, for a pot luck supper - a group of 50 or 60 is expected.

The Franklin Knolls Women's Club. Again this year the Club contributed to Camp Oakland and is sending a child from the Michigan League for Crippled Children, Inc. to summer camp in Farmington.

A large number of members and guests were on hand to welcome the new officers and enjoy an excellent program.

Providing the fine entertainment was a singing group from Farmington Senior High School known as the "Twelve Tones."

The Franklin Knolls Women's Club is pleased to take note of such an accomplished group of young people and is proud in the knowledge they are a product of the community.

AS FOR THE SKIT, any member who cannot attend all the meetings should make it a point to attend the opening one, since it is apt to be a hilarious preview of the year to come.

The installation of officers ceremony included the presentation of the gavel to the new president and a gift presentation to the outgoing president.

Publicity chairman Anne Oswood reports that the skit, performed by the members was an "all out effort."

"The Play's The Thing," says Anne, "Poise, grace and charm are all forgotten in the spirit of putting on an entertaining skit."

LADIES STEP FORWARD

For the benefit of vacation-bound women, let's have a few words about their hair. Whenever they go—beach, mountains, wherever—it's a good bet that they will spend considerable time under the benign warmth of old Sol. In cultivating a glowing tan, there will be much attention given to protecting the skin with salves, creams and ointments. This is fine, but bear in mind that the skin one protects so lovingly suffers much less from the sun than does the hair. Careless and extensive exposure to the sun fades, bleaches, dries and otherwise creates problems for hair beauty and manageability.

Still on the subject of hair—

there are precious few hair problems that can't be quickly and beautifully solved at JEAN'S BEA-IRE BEAUTY SHOP. From a shampoo or tint, to the most striking permanent you can hope to enjoy, you are assured of competent, experienced attention at JEAN'S BEA-IRE BEAUTY SHOP, 24109 Orchard Lake Rd., Phone GR. 4-7810.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: A small magnet on your dressing table will come handy to collect scattered hairpins and bobby pins.
