Kendallarks Stage Banquet

Saturday evening, June 8, was the time and place for the Kendallarks Stage Banquet. The Kendallarks enjoyed a most delicious dinner and pleasurable evening with their husbands at the end-of-the-season banquet. Part of the fun came when the ladies were asked by Mr. Pyro to sing for the other diners, and the audience enthusiastically requested encores.

The President of the Kendallarks, Mrs. Roger Belanger, received possible engagements for the group from two separate sources during the course of the evening.

A representative of the Ontario Theatrical Agency asked if the group would consider being paid agency prepare its program next year, and Mr. Mayhew of the Dearborn Presbyterian Church indicated that a group from that church would in all probability contact the Kendallarks to perform at one of their functions.

Saturday evening's social gathering was the last meeting of the Kendallarks for the season, although tentative plans for a July "reunion" coffee-klatch are in the making.

The National Music Camp at Interlochen is a unique center of musical art. Situated in a virgin pine forest 14 miles south of Traverse City, it attracts the nation's best junior musical talent for 10-week summer sessions.

Michigan leads the nation in production of seedling evergreens.

Bethel Queen Installation

The sixteenth semi-annual installation of officers of Bethel No. 55, Farmington, International Order of Job's Daughters, was held recently at the Southfield Masonic Temple. Installed as Honored Queen was Miss Jeanne Osborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Osborn of Southfield.

The Bethel was opened by the Guardian and Associate Guardian, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legg. The welcome was given by Mrs. Wilma Senger, Past Guardian of the Bethel.

THE THEME FOR the Installation Ceremony was "The Heart of Faith." The story was narrated by Miss Charlene Evert of Farmington.

The Honored Queen was Joanna Becker, who served as the Installing Officer for the ceremony.

Refreshments were served to 250 guests in the dining room. Dancing followed, with music by Chuck Bashor and the Terry Bocharney Orchestra from Cody High School.

There has been a very busy year for Tween H. Troop 378. December was quite a busy month, with a bake sale December 15 to help finance a summer camping trip. Then the week later the girls and their guests along with leaders, Mrs. Lieb and Mrs. Leach, and driver Mrs. Perry, spent a fun-filled day at the Lakeview Lodge in Rochester. There was a snow machine and then spaghetti and cocoa for supper. Afterwards there were records played and money and billiards. It was a wonderful day and Christmas party.

In Feb. when the temperature was dropping to 10 and 15 below zero, we spent a weekend in barely-heated log cabins in Lapeer. It was terribly cold. There was no running water and no electricity and the cabins were full of holes, but despite all this we had a lot of fun snowmobiling and hiking through the woods.

In March was the birthday party and we, of course, participated. The GIRLS were divided into three groups to make conservation posters to finish their first class badge.

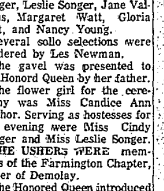

In the early part of April the girls had a fashion show and awards presentation. The parents were present to see the girls receive their first class badges. Lois Leach was a pop corn lover as a wedding present from the girls. Lois is the former leader of the troop.

MISS JEANNE OSBORN
evening, Joanna reappeared as Past Honored Queen of the Bethel. Jeanne was escorted to her station by her father Mr. Jack Osborn.

Also serving as installing officers were Betty Sandfur, Joan Mahlmeister, Pat Wofford, Cynthia Reimer, Jean Wofford, Gerrie Saxon, and Bruce Woolsey. The Bible was escorted by Charles H. Berg Jr.

The invocation was given by Mr. Melvin Boring of Southfield United Presbyterian Church. Other officers installed were Sue Hadsall, Senior Princess; Sandie Haviland, Jr. Princess; Teres Grana, Guide; Charlotte Ann Lees, Marshal; Lorraine Hoeglund, Chaplain; Irene Brunck, Treasurer; Diane Line, Recorder; Sue Ellen Legge, Librarian; Linda Williamson, Musician; Janet Hollis, S. Custodian; Sharon Thomas, Jr. Custodian; Nancy Chum, Inner Guard; Ethel Fletcher, Outer Guard; Jerre Bachelor, Jr. Messenger; Sharyl Dorrow, Third Messenger; Barbara Tarr, Second Messenger; Mary Ann Cape, Fourth Messenger; Karen Cape, Fifth Messenger; Those installed in the Choir are: Sandra Barich, Barbara Bottle, Shirley Casabon, Barbara Clarice, Nancy Drury, Nancy Franklin, Cynthia Goltra, Alice Johnston, Kathryn Line, Cynthia Morris, Jane Rahn, Nadine Youvanovitch, Kathleen Schreffler, Kathy Sheffer, Connie Shook, Candice Slagle, Cindy

In May we had a car wash to again help finance a summer camping trip. It wasn't very successful, but we did make money.

On June 9 Troop 378 with leader, Mrs. Lieb, and one of the troop mothers, Mrs. Papke, walked the 12 mile Old Post-Trail in recognition of doing this we received a the holder and a card stating we had walked the 12 miles. This was actually a Boy Scout event to which Girl Scouts were invited.

THE LAST MEETINGS in June were spent planning our trip to Niagara Falls. On Sunday, June 16, we left, with drivers Mrs. Lieb, Mrs. Papke, and Mrs. Leach. We went across Canada because it was shorter, and set up camp just outside Niagara Falls, Ontario.

We saw the falls that night. The next day we went to New York to see the tourist sights here. We went on the Maid of the Mist, which goes right near the bottom of the falls. We also went to the Cave of the Winds tour - right below the falls. We spent the evening viewing the falls and exploring the gift shops.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crass of 24800 LeDine Court in Farmington wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Sue, to Mr. Dale William Perry, son of Mrs. Emily Perry of Berkley. Miss Crass is a June graduate of Farmington Senior High School. Her fiancé is a senior at Olivet College where he is affiliated with Kappa Sigma Alpha fraternity. No wedding date has been set.
