The bill introduced by Senator King

The bill introduced by Senator King which is intended as a companion to the Gell free text book bill, has been assend by the senate. The King bill requires publishers who sell books, in Michigan to give bond that "they will sell thim as cheap here as they do his states. Senator Stratish copposed the bill, claiming it was not practical. Senator Gold who pushed the free text book "bill through the senate will sak the house committee on education to report out his bill at one."

The senate is inclined to treat the one down to report out his bill at one.
