Jr. Gardeners Flower Class

The Junior Gardeners of the young people interested in flower arranging are also invited to meet Friday, August 2, at the home of Mrs. Keith B. Willoughby, 3258 Biddestone, from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

The program for this meeting will be a study of the fundamentals in flower arranging, taught by Mrs. Willoughby, and each youngster will have an opportunity to apply her skills in this art. Everyone is to bring her own container and flowers and suitable foliage for an arrangement.

For the August meeting only, the Junior Gardeners will meet on a Friday. All members are urged to be present and any Probably the longest dry spell in the United States lasted from October, 1912, to November, 1914—767 days. It happened in a California desert town. The town's name: Blythe. According to the World Almanac, the probability of fraying a perfect bridge hand—13 spades—is 1 in 10,000,000,000,000.

Kendallarks Stage Summer Patio Party

The Kendallarks were royally entertained on the evening of July 16 at the home of Mrs. Roger Belanger in Kendallark at a patio party which was aptly named a "Midsummer Music Munch."

About 25 present, past and future members were there to receive the music for the beginning of the fall season; and everyone enjoyed the punch, sandwiches, hibachi - grilled steaks, and cake - and coffee, some of which calorie - laden goodies were contributed by several of the guests.

There was a run-through on the music and a lot of friendly getting acquainted before the ladies reluctantly departed, with their promise to get together for a practice on August 13 at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Grace Coffman at 3281 Heathstone.

Wife Crowned Co. Queen

Mrs. Ruth Solar of 38400 12 Mile Rd., Farmington, wife of Charles Solar, local zone manager for Investors Diversified Services, Inc. and its subsidiary, Investors Syndicate Life Insurance and Annuity Company, has been named May Queen of her husband's sales division for the 6th consecutive year. She was crowned on July 29 by divisional sales manager John Kohl and received the Queen's awards.

MR. SOLAR won the honor for his wife by achieving the highest sales production record in his division during the recent May-Sales Campaign.

More than 3,200 investors representatives working out of 158 divisional sales offices in the company's national sales organization compete for these honors annually.

Investors Diversified Services, Inc., a 69 year old investment management company, is the largest financial institution of its kind in the world. Currently, IDS has assets under management in excess of $4.5 billion and services through its IDS-associated mutual funds - Investors Mutual, Inc., Investors Selective Fund, Inc., Investors Variable Payment Fund, Inc. and Investors Inter-Continental Fund, Ltd.; face-amount certificates issued by Investors Syndicate of America, Inc., an IDS subsidiary; life insurance policies offered by Investors Syndicate Life Insurance and Annuity Company.

Kathleen Cooper Farmer Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Kathleen Cooper Farmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farmer of Ten Mile Road in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 29, with Mr. Bruce Gordon Miles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miles of Detroit, in a 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony held at the Salem United Church of Christ in Farmington.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. Carl H. Schultz, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza over satin gown with Chantilly lace, a tiered front panel and a bustle draped train. She wore a shoulder length veil crowned with a large organza rose surrounded by orange petals. The bridal bouquet was of roses and carnations with trailing greens.

Mrs. Carolyn Se Hall, the sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Evelyn and Helen, who wore matching gowns of blue taffeta with white lace bodice and bell skirts. Their head-dresses were veiled rose petals. They carried bouquets of blue tipped white carnations.

Kent Miles, the brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. He wore Robert Walld and Gerald Bellere.

SUSANNE HALL, the niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Steven Hall, the nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The altar and chancel of the Church was decorated with white chrysanthemum, gladiolus and daisies.

For the wedding, the bride's mother chose a yellow embroidered linen sheath with matching hat and accessories. She wore a bronze cymidium orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink organza sheath with lace bodice and matching accessories. She wore a pink tipped cymidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Dorothy Billing played several organ selections and accompanied Mrs. Clara Simpson, the soloist, in vocal selections, "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Farmington Blue Star Mothers Hold Meeting

The Farmington Chapter of Mothers are familiar with this Blue Star Mothers of America group as they have been invited to help West Bloomfield Hills Chapter No. 29 celebrate their 20th birthday.

It was a lovely party with delicious food and a real party air.

President Irene Kreuger was presented with a corsage as a representative of State. Irene is vice president of the Southeast district Blue Star Mothers.

All past presidents of the group were presented with a corsage and a certificate. Present at the party were Mrs. Edna Ramage, May Fox, vice president of the Southeast district Blue Star Mothers.

All past presidents of the group were presented with a corsage and a certificate. Present at the party were Mrs. Edna Ramage, May Fox, vice president of the Southeast district Blue Star Mothers.

THE LADIES from Chapter No. 49 who attended were Ethel Linn, Fern Ramage, May Fox, Irene Kreuger, Bertha Werschlin, Dorothy Gay, Margaret Ahoney, Laura Brundel, Grace Auten, Mary Jo Brown, Margaret Karth, Mary Ellen Smith, and Gladys Williams.

Other chapters represented at the party were No. Pontiac; No. 47, Novi; No. 61, Ulica. Gold Star Mothers who are an honored part of the Blue Star Mothers each received a corsage of golden brown mums.

THE REGULAR meeting of Chapter No. 49, Farmington took place at the Wheeler Street Fire Hall after a long wait in the hot sun while a call was made to the Township Hall to remind whoever is concerned that someone had forgotten to place us on the calendar for that day and so we were met with a locked hall.

Patience is a virtue and far be it from anyone to say how many chapter women had a diamond placed in their crowns by the One up there who loves all. Anyhow, to whom it may concern, our meeting day is the third Thursday of each month at 12:30 p.m. at the Wheeler Street Fire Hall.

The meeting started late but all business was accomplished. On the first Sunday in August all Blue Star Mothers in Chapter No. 49 are asked to attend church in a body, in uniform.

THE CHURCH PICKED for this Sunday is the Clarenceville Methodist Church, Chapter

LADIES STEP FORWARD

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST BY JEAN

According to statistics, one woman in three has tried to diet and forty-nine per cent are concerned in varying degrees with the overweight problem.

Food fads however, are nothing new. Egyptian queens often went on seven-day diets of dried figs soaked in milk to beautify their complexions. Aztec brides dieted on tomatoes and avocados for 21 days before marrying. The favorite health food in the south of France is almond milk and grapes, and the Bulgars prefer sour milk and cucumbers.

Here's more food for thought: There is only the barest chance that JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP can't do wonders with your hair. Whether it be a tint or permanent, you are assured of professional attention at JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP, 24109 Orchard Lake Rd. Phone GR. 4-7810.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: When having photos taken, it is a good practice to use slightly darker powder, a bit more makeup on brows and lashes and a clear red lipstick.
