Charlie Brown received a prize as our oldest resident. Eddie Carden for the most outstanding figure, I've forgotten just what got him the right robe walking. I think Mary Cochran must have gone the farthest, but Bill Weightman certainly got the wettest.

GRACE TAYLOR danced the role for us, and those of us who have seen the native dance in Hawaii knew she would have been in demand by Kodak or a hotel on Waikiki.

Those of us who had but to enjoy that wonderful evening want to extend our sincere appreciation to the Cochrans, to Jim Broome, and the Quarter Notes, and to all on the committee.

Bank Exhibits Ancient Coins

Interesting coins of biblical days will be displayed at the Northwestern Twelve Mile Office of National Bank of Detroit, beginning Thursday, August 1, as one of the highlights of a touring exhibition of rare items from the Bank's famed Money Museum.

Leonard Zawacki, manager in charge of the Northwestern Twelve Mile office said the display also includes a representative collection of contemporary coins and paper money of countries throughout the world.

THE EXHIBIT, which in effect is a miniature edition of the Money Museum at the NBD Main Office in downtown Detroit, will remain at the Northwestern Twelve Mile Office through Tuesday, August 13.

It can be viewed during banking hours, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Thursdays, and until 7:30 p.m. on Fridays.

The exhibits, designed to be of interest to children and adults alike, are dramatically mounted so as to tie them in with the countries and settings with which they are associated.

Items in the traveling exhibit are chosen from among more than 14,000 specimens in the Money Museum. Originally the personal collection of Nate S. Shapero, chairman of Cunniff, Ham Drug Stores, Inc., and director of the bank, it rates as the largest such collection in the Midwest. The Museum is located at the mezzanine of the main office of National Bank of Detroit, Woodward at Fort Street.

The Allens also had their daughter, Barbara, with her husband, Woodrow Cook, and their two boys, Dick and Bill with them, plus Woodrow's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark, from Muncie, Ind. A house full!
