Ada Bronson left here July 13 and flew to Los Angeles to visit a niece, Carol Bronson. After a few days there meeting and being entertained by Carol's friends, they drove to Las Vegas. Ada didn't make any money at the tables but they did have a wonderful time. They went to the Flower Drum Song, to Guy's and Dolls, and they saw Liberace play and put on one of his shows. They drove back to Los Angeles where Ada had a few more enjoyable days before flying home last Sunday.

THE FRANKLIN Garden Club is meeting tonight at the home of the Glen Shoemakers, 24924 Riverwood, in Franklin. Members are to bring interesting pictures they have taken of their gardens.

Sorry this is so short a column, but with a daughter, husband, and four grandchildren with us please forgive me for spending every possible minute with them. They will be leaving about noon tomorrow on the return trip to Massachusetts. I try to do better for next week.

Plan Dog Show Here Sunday

The Wolverine Dog Training Club will present its Seventh Annual Dog Obedience Show for the third straight year at the Farmington Senior High School.

The public is cordially invited to attend the four-hour show in the FHS gymnasium on Sunday, August 11, beginning at noon. The show is scheduled to run until 6 p.m. and action is slated for each of the four rings at all times. Refreshments will also be served.

Trained dogs will compete in Novice A, Novice B, Graduate Novice, Open, Utility and Breed. More information on the Wolverine Dog Training Club can be obtained by attending a session on the first Tuesday evening of any month at 7 p.m. in the VFW Hall on Seven Mile Road just west of Grand River. There are no wallflowers in Lakeland in the Himalayas wasteland. Men outnumber women and the latter are permitted to practice polyandry in Briar Hill.

Janet Cassidy's fifth birthday was Monday, July 29, and her party was the cake and ice cream were Julie Ann Kersul, Susie Colombo, and Patricia and Marie Morris.

Several months ago, the Cassidys had a "once-in-a-lifetime" thrill when they won a trip to Europe. Unfortunately, they were unable to go but the cash settlement helped to ease the disappointment somewhat.

DEBBIE DUNN and brother, Tommy, spent the last weeks of July in Tower Hill, Illinois on the farm of their grandparents. They had a pony to ride and helped care for the cows and pigs. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kelly, their aunt and uncle, brought them home last Saturday and then continued on to Canada.

The week of July 21 found the Auman family of Briarion in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. They were guests of Bob's sister and family and enjoyed many hours talking in their boat.

A new kindergarten children were not registered this spring are to be registered this Friday, August 9, at the school nearest to them.

Children must either already be five years of age or have a birthday coming up prior to December 1. Birth certificates should be taken.

THE ENMETT family of Old Bedford rented a trailer and went north sight-seeing and staying in state parks. They visited Mackinac Island, the Traverse City area and Muskegon. Three youngsters recently returned home from a camp at Erie, Michigan—Dorothy Robertson and Judy and Elizabeth Loebe. They came back sunburned, with souvenirs and minus five pounds each.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Watson and son, Mike, of Indianapolis were guests at the home of the Shellen Watsons of Evansville. They arrived August 1 and left last Monday morning. While here they visited Greenfield Village and crossed the Ambassador Bridge into Canada and came back via the Tunnel.

For the second time Roy Robinson had a red-belly snake as a pet which has produced babies — nine of them. He'll be happy to show them to you.

DORVILLE ROBINSON underwent surgery last Saturday and is now recuperating at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia. He's hoping to be home this week.

In just a few weeks, high school children will be registering and parents will be purchasing school books, and club officers will be starting to work on next year's program. Please call if there are any items you would like to bring to the attention of the "guys and gals" in Briar Hill.

ing of the bonds will be paid by the Township. There will also be furnished the usual closing papers, including a non-litigation certificate, dated as of the date of the delivery of the bonds. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan, or such other place as may be agreed upon between the township and the purchaser.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposals for Bonds".

Farmington Township Clerk
Approved July 16, 1963
State of Michigan
Municipal Finance Commission

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of such bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from September 1, 1963, to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid produces the lowest computation to the Township. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $3,950.00 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Township Treasurer must accompany any bid. The check must be for the full amount of the bid and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the bond bids and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Dickenson, Wright, McLean & Cudlip (Claude H. Stevens, of Council), attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the print-
