Marie Ann Rozenboom Exchanges Wedding Vows

Miss Marie Ann Rozenboom, daughter of Mrs. Leonard Rozenboom and the late Edward Rozenboom of 881 Alford Drive in Des Plaines, Illinois, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Glumb, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Glumb of 23391 Newell Drive in Farmington, on Saturday, June 15, in the Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Farmington.

Officiating at the 11 a.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. Father George F. Duffy of the Our Lady of Sorrows Parish.

THE BRIDE wore a white satin gown with a controlled floor length skirt, sweetheart neckline in front and a V-neckline in back, lace applique at the bodice and skirt, from three-quarter sleeves and an attached train bustle. Her head-dress was a pearl and crystal crown securing a finger tip veil. White roses and ivy made up the bridal bouquet.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Elaine Reiser, the bridegroom's sister. She wore a white georgette over pink tulle and carried a basket of pink carnations and roses.

BRIDESMAIDS were Mrs. Cynthia Sargent, the bride's cousin, Carolyn Smith and Miss Kathleen Neumann of Des Plaines, Ill. They wore dresses of white georgette over azalea tulle. Their headresses were white veiled hats. They carried bouquets matching the flowers carried by the matron of honor.

George Glumb, Jr. served the bridegroom as his best man. He is the bridegroom's brother. The groomsmen were Michael Reiser, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Howard Rozenboom, the bride's brother, and Don Warthman. Ushers were Michael Reiser and Victor Dush, the bride's uncle.

Elizabeth Heideberg was the flower girl. David Glumb was the ring bearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her godfather, Edward Beesley of Royal Oak.

The bride's mother chose a coral pink georgette with three-quarter length sleeves and a bateau neckline. Her accessories were white shoes and matching accessories and a yellow orchid corsage. For the evening reception she changed into an aqua sheath.

The reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Eckles and Schoolcraft in Livonia. A luncheon was also held immediately following the church ceremony for the wedding party.

Vacation Valley at Echo Lake, Pennsylvania was the honeymoon destination for the newlyweds. The bride wore a white arnel pleated dress, sleeves with a striped sash for traveling. They plan to make their home temporarily with the bridegroom's parents in Farmington.

She has been employed as an IBM lab operator for Littelfuse, Inc., of Des Plaines. He is a 1959 graduate of Farmington Senior High School and attended Chicago Tech. He is currently employed by Mackworth G. Rees.

Kendallwood Komments

EMILY ORR GR. 4-7499

It's back to work for this reporter. 'Twas nice to have a six-month vacation. In case you missed last week's 'Komments' the Wayne Haydel family was transferred to Illinois and is making their home in Prospect Heights.

Your past reporter, Janice Haydel, and Debby Moran were seated and dined at a luncheon at Rotunda Inn last Monday. In attendance were the gals from the neighborhood. . . . Then last Friday, the Bill Barrett's of New Castle moved from our area to Grand Rapids. This family of six includes, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barrett, Nancy, Joan, Bill, Jr., and Julie and best wishes in their new home.

JUNE MAY be the popular month for weddings, bridal showers, etc., but as far as history is concerned these things are going on all year long.

Finstance Pam-Blythe was guest of honor at a Bridal Shower in her honor by Mrs. R. Wozniak of Quail Hollow.

Bride-elect Carolyn Sabatino was guest of honor at a shower given by her mother in the Alroy Room at Geis's Hall in Detroit. Mrs. Sabatino's sister, Mrs. Marian Asio, was co-hostess at the affair. Guests included about 150 and gifts of every description were presented.

THE BILL SALSBURY family of Bayberry Road vacationed at Bangor Lodge which is located at Brace Bridge, Ontario. It's a favorite spot with some of our Farmingtonites.

In fact, Canada is a nice spot for vacations. . . . Incidentally, Mrs. Jan Salsbury was hostess at her home at a bridal shower for her future sister-in-law. This event took place last Saturday. . . . Neighborhood cook-outs are fun and serve as acquainted parties. Just recently a group of residents of K-1 had a ball. . . . Present were the Ed Dubnar's, E. Swienger's, Bill Haydel's, Tom Ferris' plus his horn and many others. . . .

Fall fashions are in the spotlight and it's time for an affair of this kind and we have a flash, yet the Women of St. Fabian have completed all plans of their "Annual Fashion Show" which will be presented at a luncheon at Boisfort Inn and the date to circle on your calendar is Thursday, October 3. Chairman, Marge Ettig, will give us most details to report in the next issue.

Just a reminder, my number is GR 4-7499 and deadline for copy is Monday, 9 a.m. Your cooperation and phone calls will be appreciated. In case a column does not appear now and then, it's only that sailing season is still in full swing and races are held every Saturday on Lake St. Clair. . . .

Undersea mining for diamonds off the coast of South Africa is proving highly rewarding. . . . Record messages provide Bonn, Germany, telephone subscribers with movie and theater listings, food recipes, stock quotations and the names of doctors and druggists—everything but the right number.

Named to U of D Blue Key Honor Fraternity

Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Johnson, 2329 Shadyridge, has been elected to Blue Key, National Honor Fraternity at the University of Detroit.

The basis of selection for this honor is a system of points awarded for nearly all activities on campus, including above average scholarship.

The organization seeks to inspire intellectual attainment, enrichment of student life and the progress of the university.

BLUE KEY was founded at the University of Detroit in 1943, the 75th chapter of the fraternity.

Robert, a junior at the university, is also a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, National Business and Professional Fraternity, and was recently included in the annual publication of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Attend the Legion meetings.
