News From Briar Hill

FRANCES MANN
MA. 6-5946

Summer is almost gone. School bells have started ringing, meetings are being announced and it's time to pull away the fall clubs and get out the bowling ball. Nature herself will be changing from her summer finery to her brilliant fall colors, and isn't it great to be alive!

JANE TURK of Ravenscroft, reunited in marriage with Cliff Hanna on August 9 at Orchard Methodist Church. They are now at home after a short trip to the upper part of the lower peninsula. The groom is connected with Barr and Hanna Men's Store in Bloomfield Hills, and the bride is working at Farmington Junior High. May we wish the best to them and their future.

The Women's Evening Bowling Group will start their new season at Northwest Lanes with a meeting at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, September 11. At 6 p.m. the first balls of the season will be thrown. However, they are still in need of a few regulars, so if interested call Marge Scott.

Marge tells me people are abandoning puppies and kittens in the woods. Let's hope it's not someone from Briar Hill as the dog shelter will pick them up if called.

What happened to Ruth Ramsey's bathing suit could not even be considered humorous as a Halloween prank. On Monday evening, August 26, she left it hanging over night on the line. Next morning she discovered someone had slashed it to ribbons. It was practically brand new twenty-dollar suit and the Ramseys are willing to reward anyone who can give them any information. It's a little upsetting to know something like this can happen here.

Miss Sue Nelson, fiancée of Bob Wicklander of old Bedford, is visiting from her home in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin until September 15. She will then return for the start of her senior college year.

Don Wicklander, meanwhile, has been visiting relatives in Illinois and hoped to get back to Windsor to see friends left behind when they made the move to Michigan.

Karen Kinley, 12-year-old daughter of John and Kathy Kinley formerly of Northbrook, came from Ohio last week to visit two of her favorite friends, Beverly Hatch and Barbara Palmer. One day was spent saving fun at the State Fair.

FIRST MEETING of the Briar Hill Book Club will be held Monday evening, September 8, 8:30 p.m. at the home of Norma Surbeck on Barbary. Speaker of the evening will be Robert Schaefer, president of the Friends of the Library. Guests are welcome and are requested to call the hostess.

If anyone reading this column has had a desire to start a book review group, I would be happy to give them the background of ours and how we operate.

VIRNON NEWTON and his daughters, Debby and Kathy, spent two weeks in August visiting relatives in Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

Visitors at the Lupia home on old Bedford are Rose and Robert Thomson and their children, Norma and George. Rose is a favorite sister of Pat's. They returned home to Ironia, New Jersey last Sunday.

Saturday, August 31, found Mike Lupion leaving for Virginia. He is to teach at a military school near Richmond and will be a student evenings at the University of Virginia.

GRADE SCHOOL, junior high and senior high students are back in school again. Some college students have already left and others will be leaving in the next week or two. Briar Hill has quite a representation. Attending the University of Michigan will be Loyd Manar, Gary and Al Shoup. Judy Laubus and Mike Martilla, Oakland University at Rochester will have Linda Young and John Turk. Lynne Murphy and Don Wicklander are students at Central and John Sloane has chosen Eastern. Still others are Ted Morris, Wayne, Julie Himm, Michigan State; Sharon Steiner, Northwood College; Midland; Ray Norton, North Western; Dave Fredericks, Wittenberg; Mike Lupion, University of Virginia; and Jim Lemieux, Ferris Institute. If I have omitted anyone, it was not intentional, and if I erred, please let me know.

Goodwill Seeking Household Discards

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to Farmington is scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, every week. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pickup, call the local Goodwill representative Miss Lora Ault telephone number GR. 4-4284 or ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

At Home in Old Homestead

MARY CHECKETTS

Dick and Sue Lattimer, Mendonville Drive, would like to introduce the newest member of their family to their friends and neighbors in the subdivision. Dick's younger brother, Ron, has come to live with Dick and Sue. He is 16 years old and will be attending the 11th grade at North Farmington High School.

The first square dance of the fall season in Old Homestead, with Jack Worthington as caller, will be held Saturday evening at 8 p.m., Sept. 14, at Bill and Pat Morgan's residence, 12559 Paddockford. Pat Switzer will contact all regular members by phone prior to the dance but this, however, will be the only time each individual will be personally contacted before a dance.

Don't forget the 4th Men's Annual Stag Party to be held at the Morgan's next Saturday evening, Sept. 7. If you haven't made your reservations yet, there's still time to let Pat know you'll be assured of a nice, thick juicy steak. Call GR. 4-4859.

AS THE FALL social season starts perhaps a few of you would be interested in reserving the night of October 12 for the St. Mary's Hospital Guild's Buffet Dinner Dance at Roman Hall in Livonia. An evening of music by Paul Maceri's orchestra for dancing and entertainment will be enjoyed by all who attend. The proceeds are to be contributed to the St. Mary's Hospital extension fund. As a volunteer I do have a few tickets available for the dance.

If you are interested in becoming a hospital volunteer the next general meeting is to be held in Room 18 at St. Mary's Hospital on Wednesday, Sept. 18. There are many types of work to do during both days.

Don't forget the 4th Men's Annual Stag Party to be held at the Morgan's next Saturday evening, Sept. 7. If you haven't made your reservations yet, there's still time to let Pat know you'll be assured of a nice, thick juicy steak. Call GR. 4-4859.

THE BIRTHDAY Corner has been lit up pretty brightly this week along with the candles on the anniversary cakes that have been glowing for some of our residents.

Kim Oddo, along with a few of her neighborhood playmates, celebrated her birthday on August 23. After a birthday lunch Kim's mother, Ann, took all the youngsters to the Wonderland Center's children's circus for an afternoon of rides and fun.

Sis and Ray, Campbell's daughter, Debbie, became 11 years of age on Saturday, August 24.

Barbara Christian, youngest daughter of Jim and Marjorie Christian, turned 4 on August 24 also, however, her birthday party has been postponed a bit until everyone is back from vacation.

Celebrating a big milestone in her life last week was Ruth Handzik who became a teenager on Thursday, August 29. She is 13 now.

Annette Humm had a lot of help celebrating her 7th birthday which was on Saturday, August 31. Several of her friends were over for a party of frolic and fun.

Bambi Karle had her dream (and every other child's dream also). Her grandparents presented Bambi with a real live Shetland Pony for her 6th birthday on August 30. She received her little coal-black friend (tentatively named Snowball) a few days beforehand so that on her birthday Bambi and some of her neighborhood friends — Donna Howe, Julie and Ann
