

It is a fine thing to have ability, but the ability to discover ability in others is the true test of education in the U.S. to establish a professorship in steam engineering and iron shipbuilding, in 1881.

Local Soldier Has Maneuvers

Army Specialist Four Peter R. Hunt, 38, son of Mrs. Myrtle A. Hunt, 30129 Piper's Lane Ct., Farmington, and other members of the 4th Armored Division's 128th Maintenance Battalion, completed four weeks of summer field training at Grafenwör, Germany, recently.

The training included the soldiers' Annual Training Test (ATT). The ATT is the toughest and most complete assessment of a combat unit's readiness. The test is conducted under the most grueling, exacting and realistic conditions possible in peacetime.

A SUPPLY CLERK in the battalion's Company E in Germany, Specialist Hunt was stationed at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., before arriving overseas in November 1962. He is a graduate of Wayne High School and attended Detroit Institute of Technology.

News From Briar Hill

FRANCES MANN

MA. 6-5946

There may be some children who might envy Jimmy Sheldon as he has not been to school yet. Jimmy, however, is probably more than anxious to go as he has been ill in the hospital with pneumonia. He's back home now and following doctor's orders so he can join his new school mates soon.

Speaking of illness, perhaps some of you girls from the Women's Morning Bowling League would like to drop a card to Ginny Morgan. She's been seriously ill for several weeks with a very high temperature and the doctors have not discovered the cause. Her son, Jeff, had been here visiting and he and Ginny's sister-in-law, Sue Morgan, left last Friday for California. Send all cards to 129 W. Grandview, Sierra Madre, California.

SPEAKING OF THE Women's

Morning Bowling Group, their first day was last Wednesday and Margie Ellig took care of a 7-10 split like an expert. Kitty Jones had quite a bit of trouble trying to hold on to the ball as she lost so much weight this summer, her fingers are too small for the holes in the ball. Anyhow that's the excuse she gave.

The first evening of the Men's Bowling Group found the Hillman taking care of a 2-7-10 split with ease and his team member, Hank Arauz (who won a trophy last season for high average), rolled his first ball into the gutter and the second got one pin. Bowling is a "ball" and if any of the new families who have moved in recently care to join us, call Russ Schenkel at 626-5937 for the Men's group, Margie Scott at 626-5974 for the Women's Evening Group or Lois Holmes at 626-5960 for the Morning Group.

HELEN HINMAN and Mary Jane Burr would like you to call them for tickets for the Annual Fall Fashion Show sponsored by St. Fabians. It will be held Thursday, October 3, at Botsford Inn — luncheon and a style show — door prizes and fashions by Chudis of Birmingham.

Ted Morris' mother and grandmother had one day to get him ready to return to St. Benedict's College in Kansas and they really had to hurry. Ted had thought of going to Wayne State but decided to return to St. Benedict's which he has attended for the past several years.

CAROL MORRIS rescued a very small kitten from the middle of Farmington Road before it was killed and brought it home. It is very cute and has stayed outdoors and they haven't the heart to call the Shelter, so if someone in Briar Hill would like a small calico kitten please call Maxine at 626-7158.

On August 16, Carolyn and Carl Deas with their two children packed their camping trailer and took off for northern Michigan. They stopped near Interlochen and were treated to the sight of eight high school bands from in and around this area going through their football presentation routines. They took a boat trip through the Soo Locks and also the Toonerville Trolley and boat to Taquamenon Falls. Several nights were spent in a national forest in the Upper Peninsula where the scenery was breathtaking. They toured a copper mine and also visited a Circus Museum at Baraboo, Wisconsin which was quite interesting. Labor Day weekend found them in Chicago visiting friends and seeing the Zoo and Science Museum.

THEIR RETURN date was September 3 and they are already planning another weekend of camping in Indiana.

I would like this column to include all residents of Briar Hill but I can't possibly know of all the comings and goings and have to rely on only what I hear about. Again I would like to ask that you call with family news, club news and I shall be happy to write it up.

Country Club Fall Luncheon For Hosp. Guild

A style show presented by the Alice Rebecca Fashion Shop of Farmington, will highlight a fall luncheon at the Western Golf and Country Club, benefits going to the Redford General Osteopathic Hospital Guild.

The style show will present fall clothes, casual and evening, with hats by DeAnney. This will be the first money making project for the Redford General Osteopathic Guild, with hopes of making enough funds for a Film Dryer, in dire need for the X-Ray Dept., at the hospital.

REDFORD GUILD members modeling are Mrs. Betty Grant, Mrs. Carmen Tini, Mrs. John Paver, Chairmen of the James Lane and Mrs. Ronald Gallagher.

The luncheon will consist of tenderloin tips, salad and dessert, Sept. 24, Western Golf and Country Club.

Reservations by Farmington residents are being taken by Mrs. Milton Koslosky, Mrs. Raymond Schroeder and Mrs. B. J. Page of Westbrooke Manor, also Mrs. Frank McDevitt of Raphael Rd.

AAUW Seeking Library Books

Everyone interested in the Farmington District Library will be happy to know that 511 books were added to the library shelves within the past year as selections from books collected for the AAUW Annual Book Sale.

The library has first choice of all books turned in and, in addition, has a percentage of the proceeds of the sale for the purchase of new books. AAUW IS NOW asking for the books you no longer use. Books of all kinds: history, novels, text books, reference books, poetry, travel, and children's books. Whatever you have will meet a need for someone else and the proceeds of the sale will enable some talented woman to prepare herself for service to humanity.

In addition to books, good records, games, and magazines of permanent value, such as National Geographic, are needed. Books may be left at the Farmington District Library or call Mrs. Richard Penick 626-3446 or Mrs. Robert Benya 476-3068 for pick-up.

See you at the Legion meeting
