Business and Professional Women Meet
The Farmington Business and Professional Women held their first meeting of the 1953-54 season at Koster's on Monday, Sept. 22.
Recommendations for the year's programs were presented by the Committee Chairmen and were received by the members with approval.
A "WOMEN in Government Dinner" will be held October 7 at the Lansing Civic Center in Lansing. The dinner will begin at 7 p.m. and tickets will be $4.50.
The Farmington Club will be represented by Elise Avery, Anna Keller and Evelyn DeSott.
Members of the Federation have shown great interest in this meeting and since attendance is limited to 500 it is suggested that any women wishing to attend should forward their reservations to Margaret Layte, Women in Government Dinner, 1011 North Pine Street, Lansing, Mich. 48906.
Free transportation is being made by Chrysler Corporation and anyone desiring this accommodation may arrange for it by contacting Audrey Mahoney at GR. 4-7823 or MA. 4-4571.

NEW FASHIONS and automobiles were unveiled on September 25 at the Convention of the Sacred Heart when Chrysler, Ford and General Motors combined forces, with the Robert Salton of Detroit at the annual benefit on the Convention grounds at 1250 Kensington, Bloomfield Hills. Discussing the benefit are Mrs. F. A. Worack, 28423 Brandwine, Farmington (right), Mrs. Don Ahrens, Bloomfield Hills, general chairman, left, and Mrs. Herbert C. Pollock, Detroit, ticket chairman. One of the largest fashion shows in the country, the affair displayed 30 new car models from the automotive industry's Big Three, as well as furs from Roberts, children's fashions by Ethel M. Pollock and hats and shoes by Glen. Claire Pearson presented fall and winter design apparel from top American and European fashion houses. Keyed to the 1954 automobile styles, the fashions were modeled with the new cars during the show's afternoon and evening performances.

Student From Egypt Arrives For NFHS Visit
Laila Shalah El-Deen Faray has flown in from Garden City, Cairo last Friday.
Arriving at about 4 p.m., she met her new American family, the Wade Browns of 29915 Thirteen Mile Road.
LAILA was enrolled Monday as a senior, majoring in math and science. She has already graduated from high school in Egypt.
This American Field Service girl will be attending school and many of her activities with Laura Lee Brown, the Wade Browns' daughter, who is a North Farmington resident.
The weekend Laura, Lee plans to help her get acquainted and possibly attend Saturday's football game.
The Foreign Exchange Club, which meets on Thursdays, will be planning special events to encourage our international friendship in the future; all concerning Laila.

Monthly Meeting Held By Blue Star Mothers

The Blue Star Mothers of groups and clergy in Farmington City and Township. Two of the main points brought out by the meeting were given by Rev. Robert Willoughby of Dearborn Methodist.
He said, "Discrimination is a serious problem. We must welcome the newcomer no matter who he may be."
A pat of the back is extended to Fern Kanne who is so content about sending birthday cards to veterans in the hospital.
The Chapter knows it is appreciated by the boys because of a note of acknowledgment and appreciation.
The National Convention of the Blue Star Mothers of America is being held in Detroit at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on October 19 through 23. Delegates and alternate from Chapter 49 will be Chapter President, Irene Kruger, and Anna Fanzini.
Among the Mothers attending the State's Past Presidents District meeting at the YMCA Building in Pontiac on Sept. 17 were Ethel Lind, Anna Fanzini, Margaret Kahrl, May Fox and Perry Haddell.
Anna Fanzini was appointed as the Farmington Chapter's new state representative to University Hospital in Ann Arbor.
Last but not least, in the many things to do is the Anniversary Luncheon for the Chapter. This year our 20th anniversary and our luncheon will be held in the basement of Mrs. Lind's home which is equipped for doing such a job. It is held in the basement of Mrs. Lind's home at 5376 Spring Water, Orchard Lake, Michigan. Members wishing directions please call Ethel Lind, GR. 4-6111 or Chapter secretary, Catherine Byrne, at GR. 4-2494. The date is Oct. 17. It is to be a combined meeting and luncheon so please be there at 10 a.m. for the meeting. The luncheon is for members only.
These lines from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be read: "If the disciple is advancing spiritually, he is striving to enter in. He constantly turns away from material sense and looks toward the imperishable things of Spirit" (p. 21).
The Farmington District Library, announces a series of Pre-School Story Hours, beginning this coming Tuesday, October 1, from 10:30 a.m. until 1 p.m.
This has been a very popular service of the Library in the past and every effort will be made to have this on a continuing basis this year.
Our Library, continues to grow. The annual report, which covers the period from July 1, 1952-June 30, 1953, shows (following statistics: Circulation (Adult), 57,319; Circulation (Juvenile), 165,266; Circulation (Total), 165,266; Registered borrowers, 10,686; Books, 27,000; and periodicals and newspapers, 2.

Kenbrook PTA Guest Soloist to Be Featured Again to Offer At Fashion Show-Luncheon

The PTA of Kenbrook School is pleased to announce plans for the continuation of the French Program that has been in existence for the past two years.
Mrs. Margaret Selgren, graduate of the University of Michigan, Language School, is a highly qualified and a strongly recommended with a program of French teaching.
She is American-born, but she is French in the Junior High School and tutored in all grades of French.
She is an advocate of the new approach of the oral conversation, French method of which she will teach and also feels that this method will give the children new incentive and zest for the French language.
IT IS PROPOSED that she will conduct an advanced French class for children having participated in the program as a beginning class for all new interested children from the third to the sixth grade.
Mrs. Selgren is of the opinion that her experience in teaching French to children that two short periods for class are more advantageous than one long period. Notices are being sent to all parents of the Kenbrook School with a questionnaire. Heading this committee are Mrs. John Warner and Mrs. Marie Glesowski of Florence Sharp.
FARMINGTON IS surrounded by Leoni, Walled Lake, West Bloomfield, Pontiac and Birmingham all of which have a language consultant. This consultant gives the same or mutual benefit as an art or music consultant.
In the upper elementary grades she appears in the afternoon twice a week. The French committee at Kenbrook and those throughout the Farmington area are to be highly commended for the work that has been done in this field.
The Executive Board of the Kenbrook PTA held their first meeting September 3, under the chair of their new President, Mr. Robert Pierce. The first general meeting of the PTA is scheduled for mid-October.

MRS. GEORGE BRITTON

Mrs. George Britton will be the guest soloist at the St. Paul's Annual Fashion Show-Luncheon to be held Thursday, October 3, at 12 noon at Botsford Inn.
Her accompanist will be Mrs. Marion Palmer of Brainerd Subdivision.
Kaye Britton has appeared on Broadway in such hits as "Carousel," "Kismet," "The Chocolate Soldier" and many more. Her husband, George, is also a stage personality, replacing Elio Pinza in the leading role in South Pacific during his last two years on Broadway.
Kaye has been singing since the age of 24 when she made her first public appearance in Vancouver, B.C. At the age of thirteen Paramount offered her a seven-year contract for feature roles. And at the age of 17 she was in South Pacific during its last two years on Broadway.
Light Opera Co. Kaye started out to learn violin, switched to movie roles at the age of 17 she got a job as stand-in for Jane Withers.
MR. AND MRS. GEORGE Britton reside at 3424 Northwick, Briar Hill Sub. within North Farmington. Mr. Britton is now an account executive with Willing, Inc.
This annual fashion show will be featured by Chudiks of Birmingham.
Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Marge Eltig of Infant of Prague Circle. Tickets are available by calling the following: Jane Burd, 625-7376; Helen Himman, 625-6023; and Jean Koss, 625-7159. Door prizes will be given and the donation is $2.50.

Library Club's Friends Night Planned Here
On Wednesday, October 2, at 8 p.m. the Farmington Friends of the Library will hold their "Friends Night At The Library."
This informal gathering takes place in the front of the Farmington District Library and enables participants to share the books they have enjoyed and to hear of others' reading. No long book reviews are given, but short resumes of interesting books in several categories, usually a short discussion on a topic of local interest. The meeting lasts little over one hour.
AT THE OCTOBER meeting, Hal Wainwright, prominent local architect, will discuss "Suburban Renewal." Robert Briggs will report on Eric Hoffer's "On the Edge of Chaos." Edge Cope will review "The End of the Imperial Japanese Navy" by John M. Manassian, and Mrs. Richard E. Ford will present "Restoring the Landscape" by May Watts.
All book lovers are welcome to attend at 8 p.m. Tickets are entirely voluntary. If you have a book you think others would enjoy speak to the Program Chairman, Donald Nichols.
