

Farmington Acres News

MARGE STOKK GR. 4-8489
IRENE WALKER GR. 6-2330

Birchwood welcomes two new families who moved into our acres recently. Mr. and Mrs. John Vasilis and their two young daughters, Zol Lynn, moved here from Detroit. They live in the Salem Cape Cod house on the corner of Flanders, Cindy and Glenn Vaseley next door to the Vasilis', are from Cincinnati, but have lived in Livonia previous to moving here. The Vaseleys have two young sons, Laura Ann and Robbie.

CAROL LAWISHE, as most of you know, spent the summer months as a Foreign Exchange Student. Since her return Carol has been making numerous appearances as guest speaker to relate her interesting experiences. Last month Carol spoke before the Kendallwoods Westley Guild, also at the Women's Association of the Methodist Church, and at the Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting. This past week Carol and her "American sister" (her companion Foreign Exchange student), Sue Thyngerson of Birmingham appeared at the October meeting of the Farmington Bridge Club.

BRIDGE CLUB No. 2 had their September card fest at the Robinson home of Joanne McCrie. Members present were Barb Adams, Nan Held, Janet Streng, Arline Strane, Joan Friedman, Pat Tibbadeau and subbing for Mickey Sanson were Fran Nichols. Prize winners for the evening were Pat at Tibbadeau, 1st; Janet Streng, 2nd; and booby prize was awarded to Fran Nichols.

The mothers of the Girl Scouts of Troop 659 held a meeting at the home of Irene Walker. Mrs. Vivian Erickson, chairman was present to discuss the availability of a new leader for the troop. Everybody present showed interest in Mrs. Erickson's comments, and we hope to be able to announce a new leader soon.

FARMINGTON ACRES said farewell to two of their families last week. Polly and Bill Ershaker and their two young sons moved to their new home in Birmingham. Bob and Hildesarde Black and their two sons moved to Lansing.

THE GEORGE BLACKS, La Donna and their four boys enjoyed a few days in Lansing. Betty Welch entertained friends and neighbors at a "Supperware" Party last week. Carl Boyd of Detroit, nephew of Shirley and Bob Smith of Lawrencewood, spent the week-end visiting with his cousins. Among the many activities enjoyed by the boys was an afternoon of bowling.

Due to the recommendation of their swimming coach, Jim Piggion and Ken Lawash will be swimming with Northwest Aquatic Club this winter.

KAREN OSBORNE turned 15 and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wells, came from Ohio to help her celebrate. Janet Streng and Joanne McCrie also chatted up another year. Happy Birthday, girl!

A stitch in time saves little ones, to paraphrase an old saying. Five-year-old Mary Nutt spotted five stitches on his head. Maureen Stock needed two stitches to close a nasty cut on her arm.

Many drivers who would not think of breaking the rules of the road apparently see no harm in detting them. Traffic rules, states the Institute for Safer Living, tend to lose their protective value when they are regarded as flexible, and are only half-observed.

This Is Kimberley

JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

Kimberley is certainly having a prolific summer! Congratulations are in order this week to Carl and Marton Kiliha proud parents of a new baby girl born on September 25 at St. Mary's Hospital. Six pound 8 ounce girl a Senia was welcomed home earlier this week by her sister Carolyn 15 and her three brothers Allen 14 Kenneth 11 and Craig 8 Wayne and Berniece Jones of Pipers Lane are still boasting about their very first 7 pound 12 ounce girl named Sandra Marie born on August 18 at Beaumont Hospital. The baby is grandchild number 12 for Berniece's parents Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Motley of Glendora California and number 8 for Wayne's parents Reverend and Mrs. J. Y. Jones of Detroit.

On the sick list is Margareta Hansson of Fiddlers Green who entered Ford Hospital on September 15 to undergo surgery. Margareta isn't expected home until about October 10.

KIMBERLEY'S visitors this week included Evelyn Fitcher's sister and her family Wanda and Bob Gordon and little Lori, 2½, of Toronto, Canada, who spent a long weekend with the Fitchers at their home on Greyhorne.

A special welcome to the guests at the Adosta home on Margie and Don Buchanan of Westmeath; and Carol and Kevin Carroll, 4 months, children of Bruce and Gertrude Carroll of Kilarian. The Buchanan and Carroll twins were born within weeks of each other, by the way. In addition, Shirley Pfaffman of Pipers Lane is an identical twin—her sister Lori makes her home with the Pfaffmans, so you're not seeing double!

Miguel, Julio's brother, is a chemical engineer and has been based in Tai Pei, China for the past 20 months from which he made extensive trips throughout the orient. Miguel flew from Tai Pei to San Francisco and from there to Detroit to spend a week with the Acostas before returning to Pipers Lane in the 24-hour flight home with his wife and three sons.

Nice to hear from Mary Baran of Fiddlers Green at home for the past weekend from college. Mary was accidentally omitted from the list of Kimberley's graduating seniors published in this column last spring for which I owe her an apology! Mary is currently majoring in history at Eastern Michigan and hopes to secondary teaching after graduation.

Dick Angelo president of the men's golf league announces that $200 on Wednesdays at Dun to Kay Olsson. The league is reserved for next season. Kimberley gets interested in joining the league can call Dick K, 474-0335.

A REMINDER that the first PTA meeting of the year is a week from Monday, October 14, at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Mr. W. C. Arnold of the Power Reactor Development Company, on the subject of Atomic Power at Lagoona Beach. A representative from the township clerk's office will be present for your convenience in registering to vote in this district.

Birthday bests to "Dougie Clarke, 20 on September 29; to Tom Durkin, 16 on October 1; to Jackie Burnside on September 22; to Susan Roth, 11 on October 3; to Bobby Green, 9 on the same date; and to Kay Olsson, 8 on October 3.

In the statistical department Kimberley's three largest families are the Helzens of "Dundalk, even-stein with 4 boys and 4 girls; the Gullys of Kilarian, also 4; and the Armstrongs of Kilarian, 3 boys and 5 girls.

We have five families with 7 children: the Topheys, 5 boys and 2 girls; the Koneys, 5 boys and 4 girls; the Kourtijans, 3 boys and 3 girls; the Martins, 2 boys and 5 girls; and the Dale Johnsons, 5 boys and 2 girls.

Five families boast 8 children: the Macielaks, the Kelols, the Gatros, the Buchanans, and the Mingsos.

More vital statistics — Kimberley has one set of triplets, Diane, Terry, and Bobby Butler, 16, of Greyhorne, and 7 sets of twins: Don and Ron Erickson, married sons of Don and Molly Erickson of Pipers Lane; Linda and Lee Wellner, 16, daughters of Gene and Belva Wellner of Eleven Mile; Dave and Don Kourtijan and children of Wally and Nancy Kourtijan of Fiddlers Green; Claudia and Cynthia Hendries, daughters of Charles and Martha Hendries of Greyhorne; Janice and Julie Howard, 4½, girls of Don and Kathy Howard of Pipers Lane; Doug and Di-
