Antioch Youth To Have 2-Day Retreat, Oct. 11
The Lutheran League of Antioch Lutheran Church 13 Mile and Farmington roads, will conduct a two-day spiritual Youth Retreat, October 11-12, at Oakview Lodge, Michigan. Miss Jean Nielsen, president of the League, has announced the appointment of Miss Sheri Scott, Mark Campbell, Dwight Miller, and Miss Carol Heck, Senior Advisors; and herself to a planning committee for the Retreat. These Youth Retreats are held bi-monthly. The theme of the Youth Retreats are: "The Right to Rebel!" The theme was selected on the basis of discussions with young people climaxed by the recent battle of the upper rebellious attitudes of the modern teenager; with emphasis on the question, "Does he have a right to rebel?"

Catholic Girl Scout Leaders to Meet
All adult active in Girl Scout units are invited to attend the annual Fall Leaders' Institute which the Catholic Diocesan Committee for Girl Scouts will hold on Friday, Oct. 25, at the Shrine of the Little Flower grade school auditorium, Woodward at 12 Mile Road. Earns Diploma At Henry Ford Nursing School
Miss Margaret Ruth Hanson of Farmington was among 50 young women who received their diplomas during the 37th Annual Commencement Exercises of the Henry Ford Hospital School of Nursing. The ceremony was held Saturday, September 14, in the Roshomon Memorial Building on the Wayne State University campus in Detroit. Miss Hanson was President of the Michigan State Student Nurses' Association during her senior year of nursing training at Henry Ford Hospital. She has successfully passed her State Board examination and is now a registered professional nurse (RN).

WCS Rummage Sale Planned This Saturday
"Rummage" is the password at the First Methodist Church, Grand River at Warner, as the Women's Society of Christian Service prepares for the Fall Rummage Sale to be held in the church basement Saturday, October 12, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The women are still collecting the usual assortment of cast-off articles and invite everyone in the community to contribute. The list of items includes clothing (especially children's and youth's); toys; sporting goods; household articles such as dishes, kitchen utensils, bed spreads, blankets, quilts, sheets; tools; lamps; radios; clocks; record players (even if they don't work) - in fact, if most anything. Mrs. Floyd Balman (GR. 4-8435) and Mrs. Clarence Duhon (GR. 4-2897), co-chairmen of the event, will even arrange to pick up rummage if donors can't bring it in. Those bringing articles should bring them to the rear door of the church, by the parking lot, and the hours are 9 to 12 noon and 2 to 4 each day. Volunteers for the sorting crew, and Mrs. Balman says rummage should be at the church by Friday at 2 p.m. so that sorting and marketing can be completed that afternoon. Mrs. CORWIN OVERTON, as Women's Society Treasurer, is in charge of the "cashiers" who will check out the customers "super market style." An added feature this year is the "Coffee Corner" where coffee and doughnuts will be available for weary shoppers. Members of the WSCF will serve the coffee under the leadership of their president, Miss Diane Dimford. Proceeds of the Rummage Sale will be used in the ever widening missionary program of the Women's Society of Christian Service. Such a sale also brings to the community much needed clothing and household goods at a very nominal price. Any articles left over from the sale are sent to a non-sectarian charitable organization. No charge absolutely nothing is wasted. Clean out those closets today! The sale is Saturday, October 12.

Plan Dinner Party At Prince of Peace
A Progressive Dinner for 25 couples is being planned by the Antioch Lutheran Church, Newmarket Road, for Friday evening, October 11. The evening will begin at 7:30 with appetizers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Follebot, and continue with salad at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Tanner, the main course at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kupferschmidt, and conclude with dessert and special entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schroeder. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Peter Fuzco and Mrs. Charles Kupferschmidt. Bargains Galore are your reward when you read The Enterprise Classified Ads.

Yep, I'm still hanging around and never felt better. I've decided to make this another Perils of Pauline type cliff-hanger just to be difficult and nasty.

Another Off
The ailing list after feeling under the weather for a couple of weeks is 4-year-old Linda Larson. She has been in the hospital since her birthday to have her tonsils and adenoids removed. "Birthday and an Anniversary Corners: Walter and Beverly standstill. Her birthday was observed their 7th wedding anniversary last Saturday, October 5.

LYNN ADORCE, daughter of Tom and Doreta Adorice, became 11 years old on October 1. Ellen Berger was given a small surprise birthday party by her friends and parents to celebrate her 15th birthday last Thursday. Her little sister, Beth, became 4 years of age a few days later on Friday, October 4.

Tommy Handzik became 3 years old on October 2. Jeanice Bouffard, Rick and Jo Bouffard's daughter, Quaker-town Lane, celebrated her birthday on Friday, October 4, and Kevin Brunt, eldest son of Denis and Audrey Brunt of Old Homestead Road, blew out four huge candles on his cake Friday, October 4.

Next week, on October 12, the 18th Teacher's Institute will be held. On those days there will be no school for the children. Students from the North Farmington Student Exchange Club will be canvassing the Old Homestead Road area for voluntary donations and the North Farmington area on Thursday, October 17, all day selling pumpkins for Halloween. All monies raised through the pumpkin sale will be used to help finance local students in the area.

1st Methodist Church Women Study Classics
The Fall Study Group of the Women's Society of Christian Service at F. Methodist Church is meeting each Wednesday morning in October from 9:15 a.m. to 11 a.m. Mrs. William Harris is coordinator of the Group and the Rev. Richard T. Markham is the teacher. Textbook for this Fall Study is "Teachings Toward Perfection" by Francois Perfection. The THREE CLASSICS to be examined are "Christian Perfection" by Francois Perfection, "The Spiritual Life" by Evelyn Underhill. The Study includes not only the three books, but the lives of the three authors as well. Perfection, a Roman Catholic, founded the 17th century search for perfection; John Wesley, founder of Methodism, the 18th and Evelyn Underhill an Anglican, spanned the late 19th and 20th centuries. THIS ANNUAL study program sponsored by the women of F. Methodist is open to all who wish to come. A group from the Willowbrook Community Church joins them each year, as do women from the Lakeside Churches. Mothers may leave preschool children in the nursery where an adult attendant is in charge.

Home In Old Homestead
The Americans Abroad Program. Several hundred dollars are needed by the Student Exchange Club in this project to help all try to give them helping hand. The students will have a car-load of pumpkin for you to choose from and the price will be very reasonable. A REMINDER to those parents of children attending Longacre Elementary that the first PTA meeting of this school year will be held tonight and school at 8 p.m. All adults are welcome to attend or join even though they might not have children in school as education, school taxes and our youths are a concern to everyone in this day and age. The son of Lori and Dorothy Karle of Lyman Road, Jack Karle recently visited in the Boy Scouts of America's honorary camping society the Order of the Arrow. Many youth of camping among other prerequisites are required in order to be eligible for this Scouting honor. The Boy Scouts will be picking up newspapers and magazines on October 26 in this area.
