

Kappa Delta Alumnae To Meet Here Oct. 14
A "More Beautiful You" is the theme of the Oct. 14 meeting of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta Society.
The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Donald Green, 3635 Lyman Road, Farmington, beginning at 8:30 p.m.
The co-hosts will be Mrs. Robert Kirkwood of Detroit.
A make-up and grooming demonstration will highlight the evening.
We invite all Kappa Delta Alumnae to attend this meeting. Contact Mrs. Thomas Hoffman, 474-6180.

Music Guild Plans to Hold New Auditions
The Metropolitan Music Guild is again holding auditions for membership on Wednesday, October 15, at 1:30 p.m. in the Music Room of Redford Union High School, Lincoln and Curtis, Redford.
Instrumentalists and singers interested in performing chamber music and solo and ensemble works with orchestra are still needed.
THE GUILD is being organized for musicians who are unable to devote the necessary time required for membership in a symphony or choral group, but would enjoy the opportunity of performing before an audience.
For further information please call Mrs. Helen Lacatis, GR. 4-0729.

THE EXCHANGE CLUB at North Farmington High School recently staged their Parents' Night program, at which time their foreign exchange student, Laila Fawzy of Egypt, was introduced formally to American Field Service chapter members in North Farmington. Pictured above are some of the principals who took part in the Wednesday evening, October 8, program. They are (L to R, seated) Laila Fawzy, Exchange Club president Zar Fawzy, and Laura Lee Brown, (L to R) standing, and Janet Lam, Exchange Club vice president; Lee Rundle and Sherry Harrington. Laila, who is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade B. Brown, 23915 Thirteenth Mile Road, where Laura Lee is her American sister, makes her home in Cairo, Egypt, in the United Arab Republic.

I could hardly wait for this issue of the paper to be published so that I could be one of the first to tell you to look on Page 75 of the October issue of the Better Homes and Gardens Magazine. The award-winning photo of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Manacke of Quail Hollow is pictured. Our congratulations to you from all of your Kendallwood neighbors for your wonderful efforts.
A fabulous time will be had by those that attend the Millomaires Party sponsored by the Kendallwood Farms Association on Saturday, Oct. 19 at 8:30 p.m. For your donation of $2.50, you will have a fun-filled evening of dancing, Midnight Buffet Supper, beer, mixed and soft drinks. The place is the American Legion, Hall, 31775 Grand River. Don't delay getting your tickets from John Glessner at GR. 4-0204 or Helen Strong at GR. 6-0824.
BRIDGE CLUBS are in full swing. Dot Davidge of Quail Hollow entertained her Duplicate Bridge and Luncheon Club on Wednesday, Sept. 25.
Mr. and Mrs. Maury Watson of Baintree entertained their Red Tree Bridge Group. This is the start of the 4th year. Due to Charles Billmeyer (a regular in the Club) attending the Boat Show in Chicago, there was a guest replacement of Don and Marion Robinson for the evening. High scores were Wilma Sileoff and Jack Flehman and boogie went to Erdine Gayford.
The K1 Squares started off their official Square Dance Session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eckley of Quail Hollow with all couples present, on Friday, Oct. 4. After the strenuous workout by the new callers, Walt Bore, the coffee and lunch break served by the hostess
