River Avenue, between Power and Lake-way avenues. Walker resigned his post with the Public Safety Department to take on the management of the Quik-Pik Market here.

Former City Police Sgt. To Manage New Market

Dick Walker's Quik-Pik Market has now opened its doors at 32330 Grand River Avenue in Farmington.

Walker, who for nine years served with the Farmington City Police Department, resigned his sergeant's post to assume the new business role.
Both he and his wife, the former Wanda Cushman, a lifelong resident of Farmington, will take part in running the new Quik-Pik Market which will be open to customers seven days a week from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m.

GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION is being planned for the near future for all Farmington residents to become acquainted with the market, which handles more than 4,000 nationally advertised items.

Among the features to be included in the Farmington Quik-Pik's Grand Opening will be many free gifts and refreshments. The star attraction will be "Ricky the Clown," of WXYZ-TV, a well-known and popular television performer.

The Quik-Pik manager, who resides with his wife and their four sons, Davey and Danny, twins aged 7, Scott, 3, and Steve, 1, on State Street in Farmington. Walker served for 15 months during the Korean War as a sergeant with the U.S. Army and joined the Farmington City Police Department in 1948. He was released from the service. He is well-known to many Farmington residents.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding ceremony at Mario's Dining Room.

The bride is a 1950 graduate of Farmington Senior High School and of the Guy Carey Beauty School. She has been employed at the "Brick" and like Salon in Farmington. The bridgroom is employed by the Phoenix Plumbing and Heating Company of Detroit.

The speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Audrey Chute from the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers Staff. Mrs.
Chute was chairman of the Summer Leadership Training Workshops for Officers and Committee Chairmen held at Higgins Lake and Waldenwoods during the past summer.

SHE WILL SPEAK on the subject "Where Do We Fit," explaining the structure of P.T.A. from the local unit to the National Council also giving a brief history of P.T.A.

Following the meeting a social hour will be held which will give opportunity to meet and talk with your neighbors and your child's teacher, while refreshments are served.

The officers of the Shiassee P.T.A. for the 1954-55 year are President, Robert Johnson; Father Vice President, Robert Lekovich; Mother Vice President, Georgia Ruelle; Teacher Vice President, Ronald Kuiper; Secretary, Betty Harper; and Treasurer, Mrs. Eunice Lubinski.

Dr. Earl C. Kelley, Professor of Education, Wayne State University, Detroit, will speak on the subject, "An Defense of Youth."

DR. KELLEY'S experience in education runs the gamut from teaching in a one-room rural school, teaching high school chemistry in Oak Park, Illinois, counseling in the Milwaukee Vocational School, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to his present responsibilities as professor and chairman at Wayne State. Other professional pursuits include acting as chairman of the Curriculum Planning Committee, Michigan Department of Public Instruction and Vice President of the International Society for General Semantics.

Dr. Kelley has been involved in many community activities.

Farmington Oaks

EDNA MOSLEY
474-2410

The Flanders PTA Women's Bowling League got under way a couple of weeks ago and the competition now is getting keen. There are four teams of four women each bowling at the Farmington Lanes every Friday afternoon.

Marie Ruyle is the president; Pat Gueyette, vice president; Dorine Douglas, secretary; and Edna Mosley, treasurer.

ANY WOMEN who might be interested in bowling as a substitute for their newspapers, let Gueyette (476-3039) and give her your name. We also need one regular bowler, so get in touch with Pat Gueyette.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 45 is planning on a paper drive in the near future and would appreciate it if everyone would save their newspapers for them.
Troop 45 Scouts in the sub are Nick Abid, Ken Gueyette, Mike Smith, Dale Robertson and Tom Ruyle.

Bill Ruyle, Joe Gueyette and Jim Ruyle went bow and arrow hunting this past weekend near Houghton, Mich. They didn't catch anything but they certainly had a beautiful weekend to be in the country.

The rest of the Ruyle family spent the weekend visiting grandparents in Saginaw and Midland. Tom Ruyle celebrated his 22nd birthday on Oct. 5 while at the home of his grandparents.

BETTY ROBERTSON is beginning to feel better since her return home. Betty was a patient in Mt. Carmel Hospital for a week with a severe asthma attack.

Nancy Sturmont celebrated her 15th birthday on Friday, Sept. 13, with her grandparents at a family dinner. Saturday afternoon, Nancy and three girl friends went horseback riding as an added celebration.

HAUL AND DIANE Runyan have returned from a two-week September vacation. The Runyans' stayed at a cottage on Crooked Lake near Petoskey, Mich.

Tom Houser took son, Mike, and eleven other young boys to see movies on the same Saturday, the 15th of Sept., to celebrate Mike's 8th birthday. Besides friends from school and the subdivision, Mike shared his party with two house guests from Detroit, Robbie and Carl Kangas.

Miss Miki Herrington of Grand River Ave. flew to Miami Beach, Florida last week to be interviewed as a stewardess for Eastern Air Lines.

Dr. Earl C. Kelley to Address N. F'ton Parents Association

The North Farmington Parents Association will hold its first meeting of the current school year at 8 p.m. Tuesday, October 16, in the cafeteria of the North Farmington High School, located on 13 Mile Road between Orchard Lake Road and Farmington Road.

Dr. Earl C. Kelley, Professor
of Education, Wayne State University, Detroit, will speak on
Youth."
