Trained in Electric Device Repairing

Army Pvt. Darryl R. Sokaly, son of Mrs. Fern M. Minock, 32651 Cloverdale, Farmington, completed a 13-week electrical device repair course at The Engineer Center, Fort Belvoir, Virginia, late in September.

During the course, Sokaly received instruction in the repair of searchlights, sniperscopes and related infrared devices.

The 24-year-old soldier entered the Army in April 1963 and completed basic combat training at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

He is a 1957 graduate of West Branch (Mich.) High School.

In observance of National Newspaper Week, a familiar quote from the late and great Will Rogers is, "All I know is what I read in the papers."

So, it is with high commendation to the newsboys that deliver these papers, that I submit their names. Delivering the morning Detroit Free Press with an average route of 50 per boy are: Norm Anderson of Westerleigh, Randy DeGrow of Kendallwood Dr., Tom Lanzatella of Lorikay, Joe and Tom O'Connor of Old Forge Lane, Tom Davidson of E. Marklawn, Tim Ferguson of Weyburn, Bill Achtenberg of Westerleigh. The Free Press is delivered to these boys' homes between 4:30 and 5 a.m.

Mr. Pantell estimates each route between 45 and 50. The 4-star editions come out right after school and the 5-star around 4:30. In the winter, generally a little later. If papers arrive a little late it is usually because they have not been delivered to the substation until late. As for collections, these boys pay their bill on Saturday between 10 and 10:30 a.m. Mr. Pantell also feels it is a little more difficult for the newsboys out here than in the city and consequently it takes the boys longer to cover a route.

Now that a surprise Birthday Party was carried off very effectively; Mrs. Raymond Felix can read it in the papers. The party was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Mino of Nestlewood. Mrs. Felix made it known she was "just thrilled" as Nan and Hal McDavid, Florence and Larry Sharp, Hilda and Don Niven and Phyllis and Jack Dingeman pulled off the surprise. Snacks, punch, cake and ice cream and coffee completed a pleasant evening.

ROY AND BETTY Arnold moved here from Kingsport, Tennessee about a year ago. A newcomer to the household is Deborah Lynn, born on September 26 and weighing 9 lbs. 8 ozs. The Arnold family reside at 29020 E. Marklawn Ave.

The enacting of the different wives of Henry VII was given by Cornelia Otis Skinner to the Birmingham Town Hall audience Thursday, October 10. At the Birmingham Theatre for this marvelous performance were Dee Dougherty, Betty Sheridan and Nancy Trowl. It was 10 years ago at the opening of the Birmingham Town Hall that Mrs. Skinner first gave this performance, so this will not be the first time this was in the papers.

A familiar dance group to the paper is a 3-year club now starting on the "silver" dance steps. Dancing under the direction of Don May are Dinghy and Larry Sharp, Nan and Jack Passfield, Marge and Bill Keegan, Peg and Harley MacIntosh, Nan and Hal McDavid, Mary and John Harvard, Nancy and Dick Armstrong and new to the group are Pat and David Camp. The first session for this year was held at the home of Marge and Bill Keegan of Aranel.

YOU CAN SAY you read it in the papers when you attend the general meeting of Bond School on October 21 at 8 p.m. Margo Glucksteln would like to remind you that following a business meeting, there will be a presentation by a member of the School Board. Also on the program for the evening will be an introduction of the entire school staff.

A big night is planned for Saturday the 19th. Kendallwood Farms Association is holding a "Millionaires Party" at the American Legion Hall on Grand River. For the price of $2.50 per person, you get money to play with and a midnite buffet supper. There will be prizes. Call Helen Streng at 476-0824 for reservations and information on tickets.

FOR YOUR BOWLING reading, the Friday Niters have these scores to offer. The Bluebirds remain in first place. Jim Brown with his 212 and Nancy Valassis with her 180 take the high score honors. Jackpots were won by George Porteous, Babe Stevens and one was split between Tony Pasienza and Jerry Brynn. Nancy Valassis took the overaverage for the ladies. Jim Brown with his 212, Jerry Brynn a 204, and Cliff Wells sub with 202 are the only 200's. Cliff got a 575, Jerry a 559, Jack Virgin 551, Bob Crossman 528, Jim Brown 525 and Tony Pasienza 518. Art Richards sub. 516, Ron Milne 515 and George Valassis with 509 make up the 500's. Frank Schuster took the 3-10, George Porteous the 3-10 twice, and Art MacClean the 5-10.

Thursday Tenpins show Team No. 2 in 1st place. Bob Davis 519, Chet Johns 531, George Stencil 523, Jim Renfrew 528, Jerry Rinke 519, Paul Boys 519, Bud Bolin sub 512, Bud Simonds 511, Del Hare 504, Dick Tuller 506, Don Bundy 502 and the ladies, Alexis Castle 528, Jan Boys 516, Greta McMullen 503, George Stencil's 234 and Jay Boys 201 are the only 200's, add also both are high scores for the evening. Jim Renfrew took the 5-7, Kathy Kraft the 2-9 and 2-7, Maxine Renfrew 3-7-10, George Stencil 5-7-8, and 5-7-10, John Kopczynski 9-7, Trev Clark 5-10, Hope Hare 2-7. Jackpots were taken one by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Peddar and the other by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kraft.

Last topic — Elephants. Why do elephants wear pink tennis shoes? Because while ones get dirty too fast. Why do elephants swim on their backs? To keep their pink tennis shoes dry. Don't ask me where I heard those. All I know is what I read in the papers.

Democratic Fund Raising Drive Planned

Farmington Democrats are consolidating fund raising and membership drives into a single solicitation beginning this week. Combined will be the annual "Dollars for Democrats" drive and the Farmington Democratic Club's 1964 membership campaign.

Club chairman, Harold Shipiece, 25708 Westmoreland, has named Mrs. Edward C. McIrvine, 24953 Moore, to head up the combined drive. Mrs. McIrvine said that precinct delegates and precinct workers will be calling on Democrats and others in the township and city starting this Friday.

SHE EXPLAINED that the first dollar contributed to the drive will go for "Dollars for Democrats" — a fund that will be divided between state, county and the local organization. A second dollar will buy a year's membership in the Farmington Democratic Club, according to Mrs. McIrvine.

Contributions above this amount will be used to finance Farmington Democratic club activities during the important 1964 presidential election campaign, Mrs. McIrvine said.

Mrs. McIrvine said that small contributions are the lifeblood of a political party and that the drive was aimed at expanding the participation by Farmington area residents in Democratic activities.

She said that persons who wish to contribute but are not contacted during the drive can do so by calling her at 474-7893.

THE DROPOUT

Educators view high school dropouts as a tragic waste of manpower. Once a potential mechanic, salesman, or secretary who could have been making a comfortable living, the dropout becomes a growing part of the labor force competing for the unskilled and semi-skilled jobs which offer an unstable income and uncertain employment.

Approximately one million teen-agers drop out of school each year for a number of reasons, ranging from personal financial needs to a dislike of school. The squandering of their talents on low-paying jobs gives them a false, temporary feeling of financial security. It is a pity that so many of them soon join the ranks of the unemployed when the demand for untrained labor decreases because of lay-offs or technological changes. Too late and too frequently dropouts realize their limited education is a handicap when their salaries show no appreciable increase over the years, while the educated worker passes him by in a career and financial sense.

President John F. Kennedy's Committee on Youth Employment, an out-growth of the President's concern for the dropout, points out that a solution to the dropout dilemma is the responsibility and obligation of every citizen.

AL BRAKE

HENRY C. McMILLIN

New Sales & Service Mgr's At Town & Country Dodge

Russ Gilbert, president of Town and Country Dodge, Inc. of Farmington recently announced two new appointments to managerial posts at his dealership.

Henry C. "Mac" McMillin has been newly named the Sales Manager at Town and Country Dodge. He has 18 years experience in the automotive field behind him and has been a Detroit area resident since 1939.

McMILLIN, a native of Iowa, formerly operated a dealership in Urbana, Ohio. In the Detroit metropolitan area he has held positions with automobile dealerships in the capacity of general manager, business manager, sales manager, truck manager and salesman.

He and his wife, Mildred, reside in Detroit with their 16-year-old son. They also have a married son aged 26 and two grandchildren.

AL BRAKE has taken over the Service Manager's position at Town and Country Dodge. He brings to his new job nearly twenty years of experience in the automotive field.

Brake worked for 17 years in the parts and service department of Floyd Rice in Detroit. He is a native Detroiter.

The new Service Manager at Town and Country also brings to his new post two years of experience working in a garage at a Pontiac automobile dealership.

A Navy Air Force veteran of World War II, Brake and his wife, Katherine, now make their home on Wormer Lake in Waterford Township. They have five children including one married son and are expecting to become grandparents in the immediate future.

Great Books Group Invites New Members

Recently a new local Great Books Discussion Group was formed.

This Great Books Group will meet every two weeks and will discuss a new reading at each meeting. The group is being co-sponsored by the Farmington Board of Education through the adult education department and by the Farmington Public Library.

The next meeting is scheduled for this Friday, Oct. 18, from 8 to 10 p.m.

To join the group contact Richard Tyler, adult education director, at GR. 6-0810; Robert Nelson, secretary of the group, 29117 Hawberry, GR. 4-7733 or GR. 4-7308; or Mrs. James Worley, coordinator of the Great Books Program, in Royal Oak at LIncoln 2-2721.

At a recent discussion conversation centered around The Declaration of Independence.

"Do you believe all men are 'created equal'?" "Can you have a democracy if you believe they aren't equal?" "When is revolution justified?" A discussion of The Declaration of Independence raises these and many other questions about some of the basic concepts of our way of life.

"The participants of this round - table discussion believe The Declaration of Independence deserves more than immolation in a dusty shrine," said Mrs. Worley. She added that "It is our 'Declaration of Independence' and it should be studied and discussed. Writings in our cultural heritage should be kept alive by use and thought."

The Great Books Course is designed for this purpose and this local Great Books Discussion Group is formed to read and discuss writings by the greatest thinkers of all time — books which have left a permanent influence on our Western Civilization.
