

News from Kimberley

JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

A calendar and a pencil will come in handy this week as the monthly date book and the annual calendar are on sale at the Springbrook Florist's Barn on Saturday, within a few days of the North American National Convention. The Barn is holding its annual door-to-door candy sale from November 9 through November 11, and the date book is on sale Monday night, November 11, at 7:30 p.m. The girl scout's annual calendar sale is current in its progress.

Jack and Doty Gatros and their six children have been transferred to Lansing by Ford. The Gatros have been in the area for some time, and expect to take possession by Thanksgiving. Their Pipers Lane Atlantic model home for the past two years, has been sold to Ford. One of the Gatros' daughters, Cathy, 14, was guest of honor at a surprise pajama party given for her by Barbara Newman, Dundak on Friday night, October 25. The girls who gave the party were Cathy, Kathy, Linda, Karen, Rayner, Lauren, Churchill, and Pam Near.

Kimberley also says goodbye to the Tighas family of Pipers Lane. The Tighas have rented the Stahl's home for the past year, and moved last week to their new Atlantic model in North Kimberley.

Sorry I erred in reporting last week that the Edwards' home on Middlebell is for sale. I had in mind the Edwards' next door neighbors, Ross and Edith Barber, and inadvertently switched names.

OUR TEEN CLUB, known as the Kimberley Monograms, held a dance on October 25 at Beechview School, attended by some 90 teenagers. The dance was a big success, due in part to Ray Butler's generosity in donating nine gallons of cider. The club is currently taking new members, limited to Kimberley teens from 13 through 19. Call Carol Northen, GR. 4-5332, for further information. The Monograms' new sponsors for this year are Fran Ehlers of Westmeath, and Jean Butler of Greythorne.

Sally Jo Armstrong, daughter of Edna and Fletcher Armstrong of Killarney, was married to Jerome R. Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Singer of Detroit, on October 19 at St. Paul's Church in Grosse Pointe. The wedding was officiated by Rev. James J. McManis, who is now in Michigan on his way to the Michigan Tourist Council.
