LADIES STEP FORWARD

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST

It was bound to come, and it now appears that the machine age has wormed its way into the singularly feminine ways of beauty.

A large cosmetics manufacturer announced that an electronic computer has been called into play to work its panel lights, whirl tapes and flip out answers to many beauty problems.

The manufacturer has this to say: "The pioneering step provides women with a scientific, individual, skin-care and make-up analysis and recommendations based on answers to a personalized questionnaire.

When you come right down to cases, ladies, you can't rely on a computer to nicely solve matters relating to your hair: this is a job for JEAN'S BEAUTE BEAUTY SHOP. Our operators and stylists have the knack of fitting the perfect style to you specifically. Make your appointment today at JEAN'S BEAUTE BEAUTY SHOP, 24109 Orchard Lake Rd. Phone GR. 4-7810.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: We hear of women who after washing and rinsing the hair rub one or two tablespoons of honey and lemon juice into the scalp for a lovely sheen.

Miss Margaret June Habicht Exchanges Wedding Vows Here

Miss Margaret June Habicht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Habicht of 34655 Brittany Drive in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. George Walter Bechtold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Bechtold of Minneapolis, Minnesota on Saturday, September 14, in a 1 p.m. ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

The Rev. George Ramsey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, officiated at the double ring ceremony. White gladioli, accented with yellow chrysanthemums, formed the church decorations.

THE BRIDE presented a picture to long remember in her classically styled gown of crystal white dulcette satin combined with Alencon lace. The lovely lace traced an elaborate rose pattern over the little bodice designed with bateau decollete, court length sleeves, and traditional buttons down the back. Below the delicate waistline, the skirt, adorned with a front panel of Alencon flowers, blended from Watteau pleats to toe-touching length and swept to a full chapel train crowned with a dainty French bow.

A matching Dior bow held her bouffant veil of silk illusion. ATTENDING THE BRIDE were her sisters, Miss Mary Habicht and Miss Lee Habicht. They wore floor length dresses of maize organza over taffeta with bustle backs, and carried white baskets with yellow roses and daisies. Their headresses were maize bows accented with ribbons.

Mr. James Bechtold, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The groomsmen were Mr. George Habicht, Ushers were Mr. William A. Hoisington, Jr., Mr. Donald Lang, Jr. and Mr. Bradley Kerns.

Mrs. Robert Mino sang "Through the Years," accompanied by the organist, Mr. Herman Barlow. For the wedding the bride's mother chose a toast brown organza over matching taffeta with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

THE BRIDEGROOM's mother wore a dark blue silk crepe sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow and white roses.

A wedding reception was held at the Rotunda Inn at Pine Lake following the church ceremony.

The newlyweds toured Mexico with special stops planned at Monterey, Mexico City and Guadalajara. They plan to make their home in Long Beach, California where the bridegroom, an Ensign in the United States Navy, is stationed on board the U.S.S. Topeka.

For traveling the bride chose a cranberry red wool crepe sheath with matching mohair coat and black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Farmington Senior High School and graduated from Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. in June of this year. He is also a 1963 graduate of Northwestern University.

Mayfair Co-Op Nursery Open House Planned

Everyone is welcome to the Mayfair Cooperative Nursery annual open house on Sunday, November 10, from 1-5 p.m. Parents, grandparents, children, friends and neighbors will have an opportunity to see the nursery's equipment, children's handwork and to meet the teachers, Miss Jane Fagen and Mrs. Bernice Biddick.

The nursery's four officers, Arlene Robertson, Carol Sader, Pat Graham and Elaine Kalagian will be hostesses and refreshments will be served by Carol Leonard, social chairman, and Hattie Lewis, special events chairman.

There are four openings in the afternoon session for four-year-olds. Any parent interested in a meaningful experience for their child is encouraged to visit the nursery which is located on Middlebelt between Northwestern Highway and 14 Mile Road.

Girl Scouts to Open 1964 Calendar Sale

Girl Scout Calendars will go on sale in the Farmington area beginning Monday, November 11.

The sale of calendars is one of the principal fund-raising projects annually taken on by the Girl Scouts.

A Girl Scout uniform exchange program is also underway locally. For further information call Mrs. C. Wissinger at GR. 4-4087.

Miss Judy Anne Yordy Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Judy Anne Yordy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert G. Yordy of 24631 Hathaway in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, September 14, with Mr. Gilbert Oliver Linderman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Linderman of 33348 Nottingham Drive in Farmington.

The wedding took place at the Cherry Hill United Presbyterian Church in Dearborn with the Rev. Richard Morey presiding.

IN THE CANDLELIGHT ceremony the bride wore a white peau de soie gown with a flowing chapel train and wrist-length sleeves. Her hair was a crown of seed pearls securing an elbow length illusion veil. The bride bouquet was made up of a yellow centered white orchid, white mums, ivy and orange blossoms.

Mrs. David Haddock was the matron of honor. She wore a teal blue dress and carried a bouquet of yellow roses with ivy.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jill Yordy, the bride's sister, Mrs. Donald Yordy, the bride's sister-in-law, and Miss Janice Morrish. They wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor.

Mr. John Linderman, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Robert Linderman, Mr. Donald Linder, both of Farmington, and Mr. Donald Yordy of Detroit. Ushers were Mr. Kenneth Linder, Mr. Donald Yordy and Mr. Ronald Jackson on board the U.S.S. Topeka.

BETH CUSICK was the flower girl. Daniel Cusick was the ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bridegroom.

Miss Sherrie McManus, the cousin of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song," accompanied by the church organist.

The bridegroom's mother chose a pastel mint green chiffon over taffeta dress with white matching shoes and purse and white gloves. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bride's mother wore a chateau lace dress of frosted pastel blue with matching shoes and purse and white gloves. Her corsage was also a white orchid.

An Open House was held at the home of the bride's parents following a church reception. Serving the guests were Mrs. Karl Krueger, Mrs. George Cairns, Miss Dora Johnson, Miss Margaret Johnson, Miss Brenda Krueger and Miss Mary Jane Johnson. The bride's cousin, Larry Beth Cairns, presided at the guest register. Three hundred and fifty guests from six states attended.

THE NEWLYWEDS honeymooned in Washington, D.C. and toured the eastern and southern United States. They are now making their home in Farmington.

She has been employed in the office of Dr. Raymond F. Schroeder, D.O., 32829 Grand River Avenue in Farmington.

He is employed at the General Motors Tech Center and a 1963 graduate of Michigan State University.

In this broad earth of ours Amid the measureless greatness and the slag, Enclosed and safe within the central heart, Nestles the seed of perfection.

MR. AND MRS. GILBERT O. LINDERMAN

Martha Jones Weds Nov. 2

Miss Martha Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Mrs. Max and Mr. Jones of 1259 West Lake Drive in Walled Lake, was united in marriage to Mr. Winston F. Hill, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Moran Hill of 415 E. Nicolet of Walled Lake, on Saturday, November 2, in St. Anne's Episcopal Church, Walled Lake.

The bridegroom's father officiated at the wedding ceremony.

FOR HER WEDDING the bride chose a gown of white tulle silk with lace and pearls and a short bouffant veil secured by a tiana crown of seed pearls and crystals. The gown's sleeves extended to the wrist and ended in points over the hand. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart red roses, white feathered carnations and asphodels with white velvet tubing streamers. A removable corsage of sweetheart red roses centered the bridal bouquet.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Charles J. Jones of Walled Lake.

Attending the bride were the bridegroom's sister, Miss Heather Hill, the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Kelstrom and Miss Linda Dasenettes. They wore white brocade and red velvet dresses with white fur muffs and white fur pill box hats. Their flowers were red rose corsages pinned on their muffs.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Jones chose a blue two-piece silk brocade dress with matching accessories. She wore a light pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a red and white faille dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. James Anderson was the best man. Ushers were William Cutler, Sr. and Jack Kelstrom. Santa Segula was the flower girl. Ring bearer was Paul Brereton.

The paternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Naimuth, wore a white carnation and pink sweetheart rose corsage accented by her ensemble.

The newlyweds honeymooned in Montreal, Quebec and plan to make their home in Walled Lake. She is a former resident of Farmington.
