LADIES STEP FORWARD
"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST
BY JEAN
Adroit enlarging of eyes isn't quite as difficult a feat as you might imagine. To begin, use black eyeliner and extend your black eyeliner a bare fraction of an inch in a straight line—beyond the natural edge of your top eyelid. Switching now to charcoal gray eyeliner, start barely inside the outer corner of the lower lid and form a line outward until it meets the black line to form a triangle.
The advantage of using charcoal gray for the lower line lies in the softening effect it generally provides.
There are advantages of another nature in trusting hair care to JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP. Our operators and stylists have both the training and experience to turn out consistently fine work. Be it a permanent or high-fashion styling, you are assured of satisfaction at JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP, 24100 Orchard Lake Rd. Phone GR. 4-7810.

Miss Patricia A. Merrow Weds Richard A. Alkire

Miss Patricia A. Merrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Merrow of 30343 Gladstone Drive in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, October 12, in the Orchard Methodist Church, Farmington, with Mr. Richard A. Alkire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Alkire of Northville, Michigan.
The double ring ceremony was presided over by the Rev. Frank Cozadd, pastor of Orchard Methodist Church. The church was decorated by two altar bouquets of carnations, roses and lilies.
The bride's gown was floor length lace over tulle with a square scalloped neckline, accented sleeves with sequins and pearls decorating the neckline. Her bridal bouquet was of Stephanotis, white orchids and lilies. She was given in marriage by her father.
The maid of honor was Miss Kathleen Newton of Detroit. She wore a gown of hot pink with dusty pink carnations for her bouquet.
Bridesmaids were Joyce Mitchell of Fry Road, the sister of the bride, and Diane Thrush of 28832 Tuck Road in Farmington. The bride's cousin, Kathleen Wakeman of Northville, is a junior bridesmaid. They wore peacock blue gowns and carried light pink carnations.
GERALD STOWELL, of Garden City served the bridegroom as his best man. Ushers were Lee King of Northville, William Merrow, the bride's brother, of Warland, Michigan, and James Strange of Upland, California.
Lynn Merrow, the bride's niece, served as flower girl. The ring bearer was James Aysworth, a cousin of the bride.
Kenneth Wakeman, a cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."
The brides mother wore a blue chiffon over tulle with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a gold and white brocade with matching accessories. Both wore cymbidium orchid corsages.
A reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Farmington following the 7:30 p.m. church ceremony.
The newlyweds honeymooned in northern Michigan. Both are employed by the Consumers Power Company and plan to make their home at 12 Hillcrest Road in Northville. She is a 1961 graduate of Farmington Senior High School.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD A. ALKIRE

Mortimer-Helgren Wedding Vows Exchanged October 5th

Miss Judith Ann Mortimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mortimer of 2324 Locklin Lane, Union Lake, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, October 5, with Mr. John Matthew Helgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Helgren of 28570 Schroeder Road in Farmington.
The double ring wedding ceremony was held in the Lion Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor with the Rev. R. B. Piper officiating.
ATTENDING THE bride as her maid of honor was Miss Barbara Gobel of Detroit. Serving as best man for the bridegroom was Mr. William Birch.
The bride is attending Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti and the bridegroom is in the School of Architectural Design at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor where he is in his junior year and affiliated with Sigma Tau Gamma. He is a 1960 graduate of Farmington Senior High School.
The newlyweds honeymooned in western Michigan and are now making their home in Ypsilanti.

MRS. JOHN M. HELGREN

North Farmington held its annual open house, Tuesday, November 12, 1963.
The programming was arranged so the parents were able to spend ten minutes in each of the students' classes following their child's class schedule. In these classes the teachers explained what the course consisted of, why it was taught, and explained various teaching methods.
Throughout the evening there were five special activities the parents could view. At 8:15 there was a film strip shown on the north Central Accrediting Association. This film explained what the accrediting association is and how it pertains to our school.
The gymnasium was an arena of activity highlighted by nine tenth grade girls exploring the field of modern dance. Among other activities taking place in the gym were volleyball, trampolining, jump-rope, and a wrestling demonstration.
The parents also were invited to view a special student council meeting which was held in the library.
Coffee was served with a tour of our kitchen and displays of our type "A" lunches.
To end what Mr. Humble termed, "A very successful open house," the French Club presented the story of Cinderella... in French!

Meeting Nov. 25 For Mill Creek

The November meeting of The Mill Creek Quilters, an antique study group, will meet at 8 p.m. on Nov. 25 at the home of Mrs. Frank Stevens, 35154 Gary Drive, Farmington.
A "Silent Auction" is the program for the evening. Guests are invited. Call GR. 4-4867 for details.
The group attended the twelfth annual Henry Ford Museum Antique Lecture series as their field trip for the month of November. The subject of the first lecture was "The American Wing at the Metropolitan Museum of Art," speaker James Biddle, Curator of the American Wing, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City.

Children's Choir To Sing Nov. 24

A newly organized children's choir at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington will make its first appearance in the Thanksgiving service at 10 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 24.
The group of about 30 youngsters, directed by Mrs. Neil McCallum and Mrs. Martin Gluckstein, will sing "A Song of Thanksgiving" and "The Song of the Golden Corn."
Mrs. Robert M. Eddy will help accompany the first number on the recorder, and Mrs. Gluckstein will add a ton-tom to the second; which is based on an Indian folk song.
"Thankful to Whom?" will be the topic for the morning sermon by minister Robert M. Eddy.
Following the service, the regular discussion groups on ethics and current events will be held, with church school in session from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Rebekahs to Have Dinner

Plans are now being made by the Novi Rebekah Lodge for a special dinner honoring Mrs. Catherine Eberhard on her election to the laws committee of the Assembly of Michigan.
The dinner will be at Saratoga Farms at 6:30 and reservations must be in to Mrs. Noble Button no later than Dec. 5. Call FL 9-2356.
The next regular Lodge meeting will be on Monday, Dec. 2, which will be in the form of a Christmas party at which dollar gifts will be exchanged. Gladys Tremper and Hettie Crane will be co-hostesses.

The P.N. Grands met on Nov. 19 and the Drill Team will meet on Dec. 5 for a full practice in preparation for installation day.

Jean Herren at Beauty Show

In attendance at the annual Beauty Show of Detroit at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on Sunday and Monday, Nov. 10 and 11, in conjunction with National Beauty Show Week was Jean Herren of Jean's Bel-Aire Beauty Shop.
Mrs. Herren who has owned and operated Jean's Beauty Shop in Farmington since 1945 and has been at her establishment at Orchard Lake Road and Ten Mile for the past seven years was one of 12,000 at the show.
The fatal mistake some drivers made was to let a frosty or snow-covered windshield come between them and the dangers ahead. What they didn't see were platform demonstrations by outstanding artists. There were salon service demonstrations in styling, hair cutting, coloring, permanent wave-killed them.
