LADIES
STEP FORWARD
"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST
BY JEAN
So-called normal hair is the envy of many women because it holds a hairdo long after not-so-normal hair begins to lose its usual problems. This envied normal hair is a natural gift, but to maintain its attraction of softness, sheen and easy manageability it does require fairly regular care.
Scalp circulation through brushing and massage, regular washing every week or ten days and occasional conditioning treatment between shampoos will ensure against normal hair developing slightly abnormal tendencies.
Whether your hair is normal, fine and fuzzy or stiff and unmanageable, JEAN'S BEAUTY SHOP has a ready solution. There are few tricks in the book unknown to our operators and stylists. Whatever your problem, let us solve for you—quickly and beautifully—at JEAN'S BEAUTY SHOP, 24109 Orchard Lake Rd., Phone GR. 4-7810.
THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: Nail-tips will chip less frequently if the base and top coats are carried over, under and around the tip.

Delta Gamma Women Plan Dec. 9 Meeting
The Delta Gamma Alumnae Farmington Association, will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, December 9, at the home of Mrs. Russell Atchison, 332 S. Rogers St., Northville.
At this meeting will be the Annual Talent Auction, at which each member donates an article of handiwork (sewing, cooking, artwork, etc.) which she has made to be auctioned to the other members. The money collected from the sale of the items is put in the treasury and is used toward their work for and donations to the visually handicapped in the Detroit area.

Miss Carlene Mae Beaty Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Carlene Mae Beaty became the bride of Ned Autton Brobeck in double ring ritual at the First Methodist Church in Plymouth, Michigan, November 29.
Rev. Sanford But performed the candlelight ceremony at 4:30 p.m. Decorating the altar were arrangements of white mums and two seven-branched candelabra. White pew bows marked the length of the bridal aisle, and candles and flower arrangements decorated the side windows.
Mrs. Thomas Lock, organist, presented a program of traditional wedding marches and appropriate selections which included, "O Perfect Love" (Barney), "I Love Thee" (Grieg), "Pomp and Circumstance" (Elgar), and "Because" (Hartford). As the couple knelt at the altar, Mr. Joseph Zrenchuk sang, "The Lord's Prayer" (Mozart).
ESCORTED to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage, the bride appeared in a sheath gown of blue satin. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline, elbow sleeves, and high rise cummerbund. The bride's V-neckline shaped train was fashioned with a black panel detailed with Alencon lace and studded with pseudo seed pearls. Her finger veil was pure silk illusion lace caught to a crown of seed pearls and Alencon lace. She wore the traditional pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade arrangement of white mums, centered by a yellow-throated white orchid.
Mrs. Ronald Kern of Farmington attended as maid of honor, and Miss Mary Jane Greizinger of Plymouth, Mich., cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaid.
The attendants wore identical street length gowns of royal blue brocade. The fitted bodice was detailed by a scoop neckline and elbow sleeves. The sheath skirt featured black fullness which was held to the waistline by self fabric rosettes. Matching pillbox hats with short veils complemented their outfits and each held a bouquet of white mums with matching blue bows and streamers.
Richard Fraker of Shillito, Pa., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man and Richard Greizinger of Plymouth, Mich., cousin of the bride, acted as groomsman.
THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore a jacket dress of peacock blue crepe with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white mums. Mrs. Fraker, chaperone of the bridegroom, chose winter white with brown accessories and wore a corsage of dinner mums.
Dinner was served at Pandora's at approximately 150 guests immediately following the ceremony. Miss Virginia Carley presided at the guest register.
An elaborately decorated four-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was surrounded with bows of white and white mums on a white skirted table.
A floral arrangement of mums served as center piece.

MRS. NED A. BRODBECK

for, the bride table. A four-Teachers College, Muncie, Indiana, the bride was affiliated with the Alpha Chapter, Phi Sorority. She received her master's degree from the University of Michigan. At present she is employed as a counselor at Farmington Senior High.
Mr. Brobeck was graduated from Eastern Michigan University and is a counselor and director of Adult Education at Southfield High School.

Kendallarks Well Received

The Kendallarks of Farmington were warmly received by the residents of Carmel Hall in Detroit on November 28. The chorus entertained these senior citizens with a well-rehearsed program of songs and small acts.
The "Frosty the Snowman" number which has been in preparation for this winter's programs was presented for the first time by the trio—Marlowe Belanger, Marian Spencer and Betty O'Connor—and made a hit with the audience. Because of clever costumes and war m characterization, it should appeal to all ages.
THE SISTERS AT Carmel Hall very graciously served coffee, soft drinks and cookies to the Kendallarks after their performance and treated them to an interesting and informative tour of this well-equipped residence for elderly people.
The chorus was saddened to be losing its director of seven years, Mr. Eddy Ellegood. Many members of the study group have been down to the museum to see it since the talk.
The December meeting will be the annual Christmas Party farm in Farmington, Illinois, with the "Silent Auction" of antiques. The proceeds of the auction go toward further study of our heritage.

Yule Party Set By Shrine Club

During the first three weeks of December most of us are just too busy to be really happy as we prepare our Christmas activities. Farmington's Shrine Club offers a solution to this problem. Club officers have planned an affair for Nobles and their ladies that promises to be a most enjoyable evening, all problems, daily burdens, and surpluses with good fellowship and compassion.
This magic evening is the 12th of December 1962, the second Thursday of the month—to be held at the Frontier Town (Parker House), 30689 Grand River, Farmington.
Social Hour starts at 6:30 p.m. with a very fine dinner to follow. Entertainment will feature MOSLEM'S GERMAN RAND (Noble Jesus Ellis is to be commended for his successful effort in obtaining this engagement).
There will be a strolling accordionist among us during the hour, plenty of door prizes and favors for the ladies, mistletoe and decorations.
Make your reservations early by calling: Art Leland, GR. 4-8015; Russ Ellis, GR. 4-1700; Fred Downham, GR. 4-3382; Norm Thayer, GR. 1-5418; Leo Harnwood, JR. 9-2066; Harold Webb, GR. 4-3260; or any club officer. Don't forget last year's Christmas party was a sellout so get your reservations early.

Town Club Meeting To Be Held Tonight

Town Club's December meeting will be held December 5 at the Farmington Savings and Loan. This will be a closed meeting at which new memberships will be voted upon. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. L. Blackburn, Mrs. W. Hook and Mrs. W. Todd.
All plans are completed for the Champagne Christmas Dinner Dance to be celebrated December 7 at the Northwest Sportsmen's Club. Members and guests are looking forward to a gala evening.

Antique Study Group Hears Curator Speak

The Quakerstown Quaker Chapter of Farmington met in the home of Mrs. Dana Freese on November 20.
Their guest speaker was Miss Mary MacDonald of the Dearborn Historical Museum. Her topic of discussion was "Furniture Implements." She brought with her many early pieces such as were used at the time Farmington was becoming a farming community. Among them were farming pieces and kitchen utensils. She also brought some very lovely old quilts and coverlets, some dating back to 1840. One in particular had names familiar to this area such as Halsted.
SHE ALSO TALKED about the current display of Early American Sign Lithography at the museum. This is the first public showing of this display which will tour this country. Many members of the study group have been down to the museum to see it since the talk.
The December meeting will be the annual Christmas Party farm in Farmington, Illinois, with the "Silent Auction" of antiques. The proceeds of the auction go toward further study of our heritage.

1821—Governor Cass negotiated treaty whereby Indians ceded all Michigan Territory south of the Grand River to the United States. Called Treaty of Chicago.

Encyclopedia Yr. Bk. Features Muirhead Clan
Mrs. Robert Muirhead, the former Sue Runde of Farmington, was pictured along with husband, Bob, and their youngest child, year-old Charles, in a spread of the Year Book "Reviewing Events of 1962," the annual supplement put out by World Book Encyclopedia.
The family was featured in a section dealing with modern farming technology. The Muirheads raise pigs under scientifically controlled sterile conditions of cleanliness. Their farm is in West Central, Illinois, a small farming community near Elgin, Ill.
Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Runde of 39045 Valleyview in Farmington.
