Farmington Enterprise

FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1913

The Barrier Between You and Trouble

It is a wise man who can persuade himself that there are wolves abroad in the land other than the one which dire poverty usually impersonates. "No work" when are povery assuary impersonates. An work may be sna'ping at the heals of the laboring man. "Reduction if the office force" may be snarling even now at the sharied man. "Poor Grops" occasionally provide around the farmers' fields, and yet a little surplus in the bank is a parrier across which the wolf of "hard luck" has never been known to come. Protect your home and yourself by opening an account with this bank.

Farmington Exchange Bank (A STATE BANK)

Sam'l D. Holcomb, Vice Pres. Fred M. Warner, Pres. Harry N. McCracken M. Byron Pierce C. W. Wilber, Cashier.

OWEN HOUSE The Leading Hotel RATES: $1.50 AND $2.00 PERIDAT

STEAM HEAT FREE SAMPLE ROOM Livery in connection EUGENE S. ACE, PROPRIETOR

ł

Program Rendered, Officers El-ected and a Dinner Served Great interest and enthusiasu

SUNDAY SCHOOL

vas shown in the attendance at the Sunday school township conven-tion which was held in the M. E. church during the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, April 16. The following program was en-joyed by everyone present: Song and Devotional-Rev. D. M. Ward

Temperance and How to Teach t-Mrs. Alice Way Missions-Mrs. Minuie Wilber Importance of Rural Work-Mrs. R. Wolfe

Pouline Adult Bible Class-Miss Mary Stewart

G. E. Gullen

EVENING and Devotional—Rev. Song has. Lee Special Music

Address, 'Staying by the Stuff' Rev. H B. Henderson, D. D. During the business session the During the business session the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Mrs. Truscott, president; Mrs. M. Smith, vice president; S. D.

Harger, secretary and treasurer. Rev. G. E. Guilen, our former pastor, was heartily welcomed, and his usual cheery addression was "Essentials of Leadership," attentively listened to. Each one who heard Rev. H. B. Henderson, D. D., on "Staying by the Stuff'' went away with the de-termination not to be "quitters."

One of the very enjoyable feat utes of the day was the exceeding-ly delightful inncheon which our No other car ine out of Defroit is attracting so much attention at accessity were unable to stay for the present time as the Graud this part of the program missed something which was perfectly all real estate moving faster. Build right. dies served with their usual win

The Opportunity Is Here

If the people of Farmington do this whole line will be closely not take aduantage of the oppor- built up by people who want a few unity to get in on the ground floor on the lot proposition they will surely regret it in a very short time. There is no longer any ques-tion about disposing of village property to the Detroit people. It salesmen let loose in the city to, salement let loose in the rely to, start things and that is what is go-ing to happen to Farmington Every lot in the new Warner subdivision will be sold in 60 days and be to their city neighbors. then they go'up another notch and questions. on. Bear this in mind.

Clyde J. Carpenter, who was killed by a negro last Friday at Winchester, Va , had a number Winchester, Va., nad a humoe of relatives in Farmington. Mr. Carpenter, who was 26 years old and only son of W. H. Carpenter of Pontiac, was in the insurance business. Elliott Sprague, an uncle of the deceased, attended the funeral which was held in Pontiac Wednesday. Mrs. Jessie Power spent a few days this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sowle.

BEGINNING. * "Do you "Yes, I -Boston n know any French? can shru Franscrip

Former Farmingtonian is in Se-rious Trouble With the Law

NAMES

THE MAN OF

From the Pontiac paper we learn of the arrest of one R. J. Gibbons in Canada upon the charge of ob taining money by filse representa-tions. He was taken back to Pontiac where he was arraigned and bound over to the circuit court for trial and is now being held in the township is the complaining wit-ness and he charges that Gibbons secured $65 from him giving se curity on property which he did not own.

Primary Work-Mrs. T. Bradley Gibbons is thought to be the fel-Mother's Department-Mrs. H. low who worked in a local blacksmith shop in Farmington elast summer and who seemed to mas-ewart e quera e under several names at Essentials of Leadership-Rev. that time. He was married to a girl in Farmington upon a very Question Box-G. H. Kimball, short acquaintance and courtship and moved from here to Novi Accepts Position at Redford Miss Leola Ike, who has been a very capable assistant in F. L. Cook & Co.'s store in Farmington for some time past, will take the place vacated by Miss Lillian Baker in the Lahser store at Red ford and will begin her new duties in a few days.

Miss Ike will leave a large circle of friends at her old home. but will be welcomed in her new position as she has many friends in Redford.

Coming This Way Rapidly There is not a foot of territory along the Grand River road be-tween here and Detroit that is not tween here and Detroit that is not under the eye of real estate pro-moters and as soon as a piece is offered for sale it is picked up and put on the market either in build ing lots or in acre plots. No other car line out of Detroit business just now and at the pres ent rate two or three years hence built up by people who want a few acres each for their homes. In a short time Grand River values will equal those on Wood-ward and it is right that it should for Grand River has Woodward "beaten a mile" on soil, drainage only needs a force of real estate and all around desirability for nome sites.

Ladies' Literary Club T-e Ladies' Literary club met Thursday afternoon at the home of if not to the people here then it will Miss Mary Kennedy instead of here it with Mrs. Green or Northville, The rule of real estate men is to But one paper was read. "Winter advance the price of lots a peg Sports and Festivals in Switzer-when a quarter of a subdivision is land," and the afternoon was spent sold and when holf is allowered of old and when half is disposed of in discussing various interesting questions. In the near future a lecture un der the auspices of the club will be given. by Miss Katherine Sprague, who has lately teurned froni a trip around the world. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Library association, recently formed.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 30 at the home of Mrs. Edua Dohany.

KNOCKING HOLD HENGLAND

Patience - England, I believe, is a great country for institution. Patrice -- I chought matches were made in heaven? "Well, not the kind that are made

SLOO A YEAR

America's Handsomest Hosiery

Has stood the test for twenty-eight years, yet it has never "rested" on the reputation of the past year--each year it has set anew the high mark of hose merit each year it has earned a better name for excellence -that's why it has gained the confidence of the American Family-that's why it is demanded, purchased and worn by buyers of judgment and sensible econ omy.

See the Black Cat at our hosiery counter---convince yourself as to its merits! Feel its luxurious softness, see its shapliness, it's knit "grove fitting" for style, of softest yarns for comfort, colored by the highest salaried dyer in America for beauty, made with ex-tended reinforcement in heel and toe for wear.

LOOK FOR THE SIGN OF THE BLACK CAT

and you'll be sure to get satisfaction; you'll get hosiery that is the product of the highest skill, of the latest improved machinery; of twenty eight years' successful manufacturing experience. You'll get the most dura-ble and desirable hose made-Black Cat.

Fred L. Cook & Co.

I have the buyers for big and little farms all over this section and can sell anything that is offered at a reasonably fair price.

C. E. Ramsey Redford and Farmington

Or write the above for information