LADIES STEP FORWARD

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST

Although there is an abundance of feminine beauty afoot, there are few natural beauties so perfect in every respect that they can't and don't resort to beauty boosts. Artificial lashes, for example, are used more and more to elongate or enlarge eyes and to fill where natural hairs are sparse.

Artificial lashes are quite easy to cut and trim, and the real skill in their use is to subtly blend the natural and the artificial. Although the false lash adhesive is transparent when dry, it is wise to follow up with an accent of eye liner or eyebrow pencil and to finish up by blending carefully and tastefully with mascara.

Karen Jane Robinson Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Karen Jane Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Robinson of 2080 Frederick street in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, November 30, in the Salem United Church of Christ, Farmington, with Mr. Douglas C. Herveia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Herveia of 28379 Nine Mile Road in Farmington.

The candlelight wedding ceremony was presided over by the Rev. Carl Schultz of the Salem United Church of Christ.

FOR THE DOUBLE ring ceremony the bride wore a silk pea de soie gown with a lace bodice and a lace applied skirt. A seed pearl crown secured her shoulder length bouffant veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white feathered carnations, white sweet-heart roses and ivy.

Mrs. Wesley Jones was matron of honor. She is the bridegroom's cousin. Mrs. Jones wore a red velvet dress with a white length bouffant skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of red and white carnations and red sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids were Linda Catherine, a cousin of the bride, and Lydia Pepper. They wore gowns matching that worn by the matron of honor. The bride's attendants wore matching red velvet hats and veils. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets with the same flowers as the matron of honor.

BRUCE LINK served as the bridegroom's best man. He is cousin of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Dean Bradley and Thomas Matt. The bride's brother, Russell Robb, was the ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Nielson served as ushers.

Clara Simpson, the soloist, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Cheryl Herveia, sister of the bridegroom, was a junior bridesmaid.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a silver blue brocade dress with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dawn brocade dress with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of gold rose buds.

A RECEPTION was held at the Farmington Elks Lodge where a buffet dinner was served to 230 relatives and friends. Among the guests were the bride's great-uncle Irv Robinson, of Lake City, Michigan; Mr. Martin Greu, the bridegroom's grandfather, and Mrs. Charlotte Nygood, the bridegroom's grandmother.

The couple honeymooned in northern Michigan and are now making their home in Farmington.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Farmington Senior High School. Karen graduated in 1959 and Douglas graduated in 1957.

1707—Council of Indian chiefs was held at Fort Pontchartrain to settle Indian difficulties.

Annual GOP Women's Meeting Held Here

The annual meeting of the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington was held at the First Farmington Savings and Loan social room recently. The following slate of officers were elected: President, Mrs. Richard Galt; First Vice President, Mrs. Stanley Thorpe; Second Vice President, Mrs. Edwin R. Oglesby; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Harry Kowetz; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Harley Walters; and Treasurer, Mrs. John McCormick.

Following the business meeting, a film sponsored by the Council League of America presented Ronald Reagan in his talk, "The Welfare State."

New Hospital Wing Ground Breaking

The ground breaking ceremony for a new three-and-a-half million dollar addition to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, will take place Sunday, December 15, at three p.m. on the hospital grounds.

When completed the new facilities, a five-story wing, will provide additional private, semi-private patient rooms and a new emergency department. Also included in the modernization program are a new kitchen and cafeteria, a 27-bed nursing unit for chronic disease rehabilitation and an expansion of the outpatient clinic and physical therapy department.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Polley of 2440 Brandwine Road, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Lucille, to Mr. Gary Allen League, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. League, Downers Grove, Illinois. Both attend Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, where she is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta and he is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The wedding will be an August event.

FHS Christmas Concert Dec. 16

FHS's annual Christmas Concert will be presented in the Senior High Gymnasium Monday evening, December 16, at 8 p.m.

Participating units will include the Band, Choir, Girls Glee Club, Palomares and Twelve Tones, each of which will present four numbers as its contribution to the program.

As one of the features of the evening, Christy Tuley, speech student, will narrate "The Night Before Christmas," while the Band supplies the background. Mr. Robert Zimmerman and William Fenchel of the Farmington Music Department will direct their respective groups.

Tradition has its place throughout the presentation. A ceremony will be performed, presenting each new Falconaire with a stole, an accessory to the choir robe. The "Halleluiah Chorus" which will be sung by the massed choir, joined by visiting alumni, will conclude the concert.

As in former years, the audience will be invited to share in a singalong of familiar Christmas carols, accompanied by a special brass ensemble. Guests will also be eligible for door prizes and Santa will be Mr. Thomas Peace, of the FHS faculty.

Gayle Hamilton has been appointed general chairman of the concert. She is assisted by ticket chairman, Dave McAdams; publicity chairman, Cathy Letson; and Miriam Gordon, decorations' chairman. Other committee members include Ruth Dodd, Keith Thompson, and Dale Winston, all responsible for the lighting.

Meridel Karl, Gary Dodd, Pat Hartson, and Sandy Austin will be the usherettes.

The proceeds from the ticket sales will go to the Music Department.
