Youth Choirs Plan Concert

The combined choirs of the Southfield Community Church, 21212 Indian Street (between Birch and Lakewood roads, north of Eight Mile), will present a concert of sacred music on Sunday evening, December 15, at 7 p.m., according to Pastor Raymond Sayne.

In addition to several choral numbers, in which the Christians story will be presented (climaxing with the stirring Hallelujah Chorus, there will be numbers by the Ladies Trio, a vocal solo by Louise Sager and a trumpet solo by Douglas Sayne. The Joy Choir, which is the primary department, will also sing, directed by Miss Jean Clarke.

NEW ORGANIST for the choir and the church is Miss Helen Soyter, recently Mrs. Eric Buchanan, who recently resigned after three years serving as organist at the church. Miss Soyter is from Allenton, Pennsylvania and has come to Detroit to work in the office of the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade.

The youth program of the church centers around the Youth Choir Clubs which organize each department of the Sunday School into a choir. Recreational activities, both devotional and recreational activities, held during the week. The choirs combine on Sunday to form a choir of over 100 voices singing in the sanctuary.

Each year this concert is a highlight of their activity. Rev. Earl Rochester will bring a brief devotional message during the concert.

Call Hospital About Gifts

Each year at this season we receive requests from individuals and groups interested in remembering our patients at Northville State Hospital — patients who otherwise are "forgotten" by relatives and friends.

Through a call to our hospital's Community Relations Department (Fieldbrook 9-1807), I can obtain general directions and a specific patient's requests for Christmas.

Some individuals ask to contribute to hospital's Christmas Fund which general gifts can be purchased in advance by volunteers. Such general gifts as cigarettes, stretch socks, hairbrushes and so forth are utilized on Christmas Day.

When, in spite of every best effort, we learn of patients who have received no gifts. For some of these patients, the anticipation by patient and staff members for a Christmas leave with his family may have ended in disappointment. The availability then of general gifts can be most important.

We know from previous years that patients certainly appreciate these remembrances during the Christmas season.

Christian Science Sermon Schedule

Jesus' instructions on how to pray will be brought out in this Sunday's Bible Lesson at all Christian Science church services. The subject is "The Lord's Prayer of Man."

Golden Text: "The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him, to all that call upon Him in truth. . . . The Lord prevereth all them that love Him" (Psalms 145:18, 19).

Related readings from the Christian Science textbook will open with these lines: "Our Golden Text, 'After this manner therefore pray ye,' and then he gave that prayer which covers all human needs" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 16).
