FLORAL PARK

E. R. PHILLIPS
GR. 4-5775

Mrs. William Blakley of 22702 Lila had a visit with her son, Wayne, who flew in from his home in Poughkeepsie, New York, on the Sunday before Christmas and stayed until after the holidays. Her other son, Vernon, and his family of four, born, formerly of Cape Town, South Africa, visited with them on Christmas Day. While here they flew over Detroit and surroundings in Wayne's four-seater plane.

Robert Thomas Shepard weighed in at 8 lbs. and 6 ozs. on January 14 when he joined the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shepard of 22804 Floral. The remainder of the family, in order of seniority, is Pat (Patricia) Jo, Cheryl, Nancy and Ralph. Welcome to Floral Park, Sir.

NEWCOMERS TO THE Floral Park area are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall of 22820 Floral. They moved in December 14. Mr. Hall, just recently discharged from the Army, works for the Ed. Russell Fabricators Company of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of 23017 Hawthorne employed the company of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hupert of Saginaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clapper of Bay City, both family of Mrs. Hoeglund. They were here for the installation of Officers of Jobs Daughters, Masonic organization. Mr. and Mrs. Hoeglund's daughter, Loraine, was installed as "Guide," on Saturday, January 11.

Incidentally, Mrs. Hoeglund assisted at the opening of the Shawansee School's Recreation Program which started Saturday, January 18, and will continue for six weeks. Seventy-five boys and girls, grades three to six, enjoyed the opening day of planned and organized games.

Last call for tickets for the Briar Hill Square Dance. Zeke Copp still has 3 or 4 tickets left. The dance will be held at the Farmington Players Barn on Saturday, January 25, at 8:30 p.m. Set ups, chips, and a prize will be provided by Y.O.B.

Barbara Kleinhaus celebrated her 10th birthday on January 4 by having luncheon followed by a movie party. Her guests included her sister, Cindy, Nancy, Auman, Nancy Bramlage, Meredith Ramsey, Carolyn Sheldon, Debby Setler, Melinda and Gail Sones.

WILMA PRATT, formerly of Old Bedford, gave birth to a baby girl on January 4 weighing 6 lbs. and 15 ozs. The baby is named Carolyn Lee. The Pratt's new address is 3083 School View, Eden, N.Y.

Frankie Wyman celebrated his 7th birthday on January 5 with a party for a few close friends. Those who attended were Erin and Holly Dunivan, and Johnny Acker. After playing games supervised by his Daddy, the youngsters had birthday cake, ice cream, and pop. Frankie's little sister, Sarah, who had her first birthday on January 7, shared the birthday cake with him. Later in the evening, Frankie's Godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Romano and Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMan, came over to extend their best wishes.

MARY HEDGES' father, Mr. Johnson, has been in the Ford Hospital with a serious case of pneumonia. Her mother has been confined to bed. Mary came from Kalamazoo to help out at home. We all hope that your parents feel better very soon.

Bunny Stephan has been in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. She has had a persistent temperature so the doctor wants to run some tests to determine the origin of the trouble. Bunny's new sister-in-law was involved in a skiing accident which resulted in a badly twisted knee. She is now getting about on crutches. Hurry and get well so you can get back on the slopes.

Pat Deats, who became 11 on January 7, had a birthday party on January 10. Her friends who came to help her celebrate were Betsy Nauman, Meredith Ramsey, Nancy Allen, Susan Devil, Barbara MacLeod, Cheryl and Pam Moffitt, Debby Marzinske, Mary Lemieux, Kitty Kalfreider, and Marie Danmore. The girls enjoyed playing games and had a treat of hot dogs, ice cream, and cake.

DIANE O'NEAL, who became 10 on January 4, gave a birthday party on January 10 to celebrate. The non-sleeping party goers were Beverly Hatch, Kathy Mykyns, Mirsha O'Brien, Jill Pate, and Angie Garcia. The guests went to the Berkeley Theater to see "Take Her, She's Mine." The management treated them all to a box of popcorn because they were a birthday party group. Later that night, or perhaps it was morning by then, the girls made pizza and had ice cream and cake.

Although Meredith Ramsey was 11 years old on January 9, she invited her friends to a party on the 11th of January. Her guests were Nancy Bramlage, Pat Deats, Cindy and Barbara Kleinhaus, Debby Setler and Carolyn Sheldon. After a lunch at home, her father took the gang bowling. Later, they all returned to the Ramsey home for ice cream and cake.

Brownie Troop 22 had a mothers' meeting at the home of co-leader Shirley Sloane on January 14. The other co-leader, Amy Charron, was also present. Shirley was the guest of honor at the fact that there was almost a 100 per cent turnout. They discussed the activities and the program in which the troop will take part.

CAROLINE DEATS was the guest of honor at a baby shower given for her by Fran Copp on Tuesday, January 14. The guests present were Ginny Biehl, Joan Denmore, Margaret Fredricks, Fran Mann, Grace MacLeod, Shirley O'Neal, Norma Surbeck, Joann Ward, Hazel Young, and Carolyn's sister-in-law, Phyl Tyson. Grandma Copp also sent a remembrance. Carolyn said everything was so very nice and wishes to give her thanks to everyone again. Although Carolyn didn't tell anyone, she also celebrated her birthday on the 14th.

Dick Patterson took a quick hunt up north with his grand parents, Sam and Mrs. Imbo, on January 15. They left early in the morning and went to 'Bad Axe' and Caswellville, where they had lunch. They then visited the cottage to see that everything was alright. After taking care of some business, they all came home again, arriving here about 7:30 in the evening. It was a nice day for a long ride.

JOANE AND BILL WARD moved from Briar Hill on Friday, January 17. They will be taking a leisurely 10 days to drive to their new home in California. They feel that by their successful in finding a very nice place. Nan and Jack were very helpful by driving half way between Palo Alto and San Jose and about 45 minutes from San Francisco by car. We wish you good luck and happiness in your new job and home.

While playing hockey with his friends, Jimmy Patterson was smacked across the nose and eye by a hockey stick, Jimmy was skinned nose, a swollen eyelid, and assorted colors in the area for a couple of days. His dignity was injured more than anything else.

Jack and Nan Sheldon took a flying trip to Davenport, Iowa from January 6-10. They went to look for a house and were successful in finding a very nice place. Nan and Jack were very helpful by driving half way between Palo Alto and San Jose and about 45 minutes from San Francisco by car. We wish you good luck and happiness in your new job and home.
