FLORAL PARK NEWS

E. R. PHILLIPS GR. 4-6575

Jack Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Harris of 23127 Violet, who has spent a trick in Korea, is home on leave, but will be leaving again soon. He will report back to Fort Wayne, Indiana.

We hear that Mr. Bert Lundsten of 23135 Violet Street is congratulated for receiving her five-year pin from the March of Dimes organization. She has worked for the organization each year for the past five years, and this year we hear she is to be in charge of the Floral Park District. Congratulations.

JOHN FLECK, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Fleck of 23103 Violet, is home on two week's holidays from his second year at Marquette, Michigan. John is a member of the Chi Sigma Nu Fraternity. Right now, he is waiting to hear about his grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Hennickson of 22454 Floral are glad to report that four-year-old Deborah seems to have recovered from her tonsillectomy performed January 7 at Children's Hospital. They say her appetite is back to normal. Incidentally, Debbie just recently won a prize of a Holy Bible for one year's perfect attendance at the Lutheran Church. Congratulations, Debbie.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY Staudreder of 22408 Floral are happy that the scariest fever siege at their home, just about over. Nancy, 7; Cathy, 5; and Mary, 4; all were confined with the fever. Only Mark, four-months-old, escaped, for which the family was thankful.

Remember, reservations for the AFS Benefit Dance at Northwestern and Southfield, must be in by February 1. The dance will be held February 8, at the Armistice-Cultural Center.

An afternoon Kiffie Kitch, of Quail Hollow was attended by Doris Ball, Ellen Love, Betty Oak, Peg Wagner, Laura Kaska, Betsy Manekke, Kay Scott, Florence Rasmussen, and the home of Irene Mazurek on Jan. 22. Bonnie and her family will be leaving shortly for Fenelon, Michigan.

Birthday parties were springing up everywhere: Patti Johnson, daughter of John and John Johnson of Heathstone, celebrated her eighth birthday, Thursday, Jan. 22, with the help of Sue and Pam Rickett, Wendy Kerr, Shelly and Vicki Murray, Marion Blomquist, Lynn Bulina and Susan Roble.

Lori Jondren, daughter of Shirley and Robert Jondren of Bayberry, celebrated her 6th birthday on Saturday, Jan. 24. Her guests included: Mark Davis, Bobby Lee, Karen Broadhead, Shelly Ziska, Lee Zillworth, Jeffrey Bower and her brothers Dick and Dan.

Jimmy Webber, son of Ginny and Joe Webber of Peppermill, had his first birthday party on his fifth birthday on Saturday, Jan. 24. Guests that helped him celebrate were Johnny Hundley, Jack Munro, Carl Gleiss, Jeff Carpp, Eric Overhardt and a Tommy Hutchings.

A YOUNG LADY who seems to be having her own way about everything so far is Kathleen Elizabeth Otten of Leamington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otten of Leamington, Ontario. She was born on December 28, about two months prematurely, while her mother and dad were vacationing there. She was of sufficient weight so that her proud parents could bring her home on Sunday night, Jan. 26, from Niagara Falls General Hospital, Canada, where she had been since her birth. Her brothers and sister, Barbara, 11, Patrick, 9, and James, 6, had to wait a month to get a glimpse of her but feel she was worth waiting for.

A reminder that the Queen of Angels Circle of St. Fabian's Parish, is sponsoring their 50th Annual "Silent Auction" on Wednesday, Feb. 5, at the St. Fabian's Social Hall on 12 Mile Road. Everyone is welcome. Silent bidding will start at 8 to 9:30 and all unclaimed items will be verbally auctioned. If you have items you would like to donate for the auction give me a call. I'll make arrangements to have it picked up. You don't have to belong to the Parish to donate your items.

Barbara Brogren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Brogren of Peppermill, was home for the weekend from Michigan State, so that she could watch her brother Brad, 1, participate in the Detroit News Ski Meet in Holly, Mich. It was very disappointing to all that there wasn't sufficient snow Friday to have the Ski event take place.

Loon Coon, eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coon of Quail Hollow, broke her leg when she slipped and fell while skating. Her cast will have to remain for three months.

FRED AND GRACE BULMAN of Craftsbury spent the weekend in Manistee skiing. They stayed in a lodge in Manistee where they could swim when they weren't skiing.

Jean and Bob Johnson of Heathstone attended the wedding of Jean's sister, Pat Pabey to Angelo Jordan in Dearborn. It was most exciting because Patti, the young daughter of the Johnsons, attended as a flower girl and mama Johnson was the maid-of-honor at the double ring ceremony.

Tom Armstrong, son of Joe and Bobbie Armstrong of Hawberry is home from Alhion College, where he is a Freshman. This is end of semester vacation for him and he will be going back in a week.

Millie Lotta of Quail Hollow is ticket chairman for the sale for the Fashion Show and Card Party, sponsored by the St. Mary Hospital, Guild, at the Ladywood High School Auditorium on Five Mile Road. The sale will be on Saturday, Feb. 5, at 7:30 p.m. You can get your tickets by calling Millie at 4-7261.

THE R.E. TREE, Bridge Club met at the home of Howard and Edna Gaylord on Farmville, 1st at Saturday.

Texas Medical Duty For Pvt. Youngblood

Army Pvt. Thomas E. Youngblood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Youngblood, 21420 Gill Rd., Farmington, was assigned recently to the staff at William Beaumont General Hospital, El Paso, Tex.

Youngblood entered the Army in August, 1963, and was stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

The 20-year-old soldier is a graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School.

ing book which was auto-graphed by those attending and a gift certificate.

Via the mails we get best wishes to all from John and Nancy Kinn, formerly residing on Brandwyne now living at 209 Union Lane, Bristol, New Jersey.

Also a hello and best wishes to friends and neighbors from Courtney and Deborah. The 20 friends and neighbors from Courtney are moving to Jackson and Marie Conley for son. Twenty-four couples attended the Bannet Hill and now the farewell party.

On Friday morning, Jan. 24, several ladies were invited to meet Donna Paulson, who will be moving into the Rundle's house shortly. Attending were Bea Clayton, Debra Cairns, Janet Lee, Kathy Ziska and Mina Rodamer.

ON TUESDAY, Jan. 21, 22 ladies from the Hill and Dale Garden Club honored Ruth Rundle at a surprise luncheon at the Danish Inn. She and her family will be moving to Massachusetts soon and the ladies wanted her to know they appreciated all she has done for the Club. She was given a garden-living at 162 Kendallwood, Murray Hill, New Jersey.

On Sunday, Jan. 19, a farewell cocktail party was held at the home of Jack and Kitty Beach on Peppermill for their dear friends. Pat and Jack Courtney of Dearborn. The 20 friends and neighbors from Courtney are moving to Jackson and Marie Conley for son. Twenty-four couples attended the Bannet Hill and now the farewell party.
