

Name Lincoln Club Speakers

The Oakland County Lincoln Republican Club announced this week that the Hon. William S. Broomfield will introduce their guest speaker, the Hon. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, congressman from New Jersey's 5th District, at their 75th annual banquet at the Pontiac Ellis Temple on Feb. 11.

Both Broomfield and Frelinghuysen serve on the important Foreign Affairs Committee. Toastmaster for the evening will be Robert J. Temple, senior assistant prosecuting attorney for Oakland County. Temple stated that, "This will be an ideal occasion for the residents of the county to hear Broomfield as the congressman representing all of Oakland County prior to the congressional redistricting."

Broomfield will represent the present 15th District until January 1965.

Seek Soloist For Symphony

The Southfield Junior Symphony is seeking a soloist for their Spring Concert which will be presented the end of April. Auditions, open to any instrumentalist of school age, will be held Feb. 17 in the Southfield High School auditorium at 8 p.m. Each performer should provide his own accompaniment for the audition, and file a $1 fee with Richard Brown (EL 2-2689) before Feb. 10. The selection performed should have a suitable orchestral accompaniment available.

QUALIFIED JUDGES will select the soloist to appear in the 14th concert given by Southfield Junior Symphony, group of 60 teenagers who meet each Saturday morning during the school year for practice in Southfield High School. A young person interested in playing with the group should contact Brown, conductor of the symphony.

The University of Michigan was first to offer a summer institute on thermo-nuclear fusion sponsored by the Atomic Energy Commission, 1959.

Local Blue Star Mothers Install New Officers

January was installation month for the Blue Star Mothers of Farmington.

The installation ceremonies took place in the meeting room of the Clareville Methodist Church with Department President Catherine Woodworth as installing officer and our own past president, Irene Kreuger, as Chaplain.

Mrs. John Byrne was installed as President of Chapter 49. Newly elected board is: First Vice President, Mary J. Brown; Second Vice President, June Kohler; Recording Secretary, Virginia Lindsey; Finance Secretary, Edna D. Brown; Treasurer, Anna Fazzini; Chaplain, Ethel Whitefoot; Historian, Margaret Kahl. The historian and the recording secretary were not able to be at the regular installation so they were sworn in to office at the regular January meeting.

Music for the ritual was played by our musician Dorothy Gay.

A dessert luncheon was served by past presidents of Chapter 49 with our two oldest past presidents, Ethel Lin and Ella Vanderburgh, doing the pouring honors. Visiting Chapters were Novi 41, Detroit 30, and Highland Park 20.

Our Chapter furnished the entertainment for a party at Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor recently. A group from Betty Johnson's School of Dances, under her son Bill to accompany the dancers, entertained. Bill Johnson also played several organ numbers.

Clareville School News

BY BILL HARRIS

In basketball action last Friday, the Clareville Trojans posted a 53-42 victory over hostly Dave Graves, senior center for the Trojans racking in a total of 28 points himself. Gary Gearhart tallied for 13 more in the Trojans' winning cause.

The victory took some of the sting out of the 53-42 loss which Clareville had suffered at the hands of West Bloomfield a week earlier.

Students at Clareville's junior and senior highs were in for a pleasant surprise on January 21 when a special assembly was held and the Castro singers from Uruguay performed for the student body. They sang and played folk songs typical of those in their native country.

The group was composed of three young men, Oscar, Miguel and Ruben, and a woman, Rita, married to the eldest of the three brothers.

It was interesting to learn that the flute and drum used by the group were actually constructed by these players and that only the guitar was purchased ready-made.

The music was somewhat foreign to the student body. The tunes and songs were strictly native to Uruguay.

Following the performance, the players were invited to witness an all-American pep rally at the school. They seemed impressed.

JC's Prepare for Annual Show

On Saturday, January 25, forty members of the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives held their annual musical variety show.

The show director, Bill Conroy, announced that this year's production is titled, "Do You Remember?" and will take place on March 20 and 21, at the Farmington Junior High auditorium.

This marks the eighteenth consecutive year that the local Jaycees have put on a show to raise funds for their many worthwhile civic projects. Starting with a minstrel show in 1947, which played to some 200 people, the shows have grown into productions which now draw approximately 2,000 local residents yearly.

A few recent shows which were very successful, were "Runnin' Wild," a touring 20 musical; "Over 'n There," a World War I musical comedy; "No Biz Like Show Biz," a college campus variety show; and "Music in Rhythm," a hill-billy musical satire.

These yearly shows are written, directed and produced by the Jaycees and utilize only local talent.

Maureen Dailey Feted At A Bridal Shower

A bridal shower was given for Miss Maureen Dailey last week by her attendants: Mrs. Thelma Palmer, Phyllis Smith, Nadia Hanna and Margaret Scholzholtz at the home of Mrs. Smith on Wakenodon in Detroit.

About 40 guests attended and enjoyed her with gifts. One given by Miss Hanna was a two-piece suit to be worn as part of her going away wardrobe.

Miss Dailey has a bachelor's degree from Wayne State University and will receive her Master's degree in June as a child psychiatric nursing.

Miss Dailey was married to Charles Nell on Feb. 1.
