

Questers View Slides of Area

The January meeting of the Mill Creek Questers was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Carter, 16734 Ashton, Detroit.

The chapter discussed the recent interest in the National Quester organization in restoring the old lighthouse at Michigan City, Indiana. Built in 1888, the lighthouse has a romantic history linked with lake shipping. It is being turned over to Michigan City for historical purposes and will become the Old Lighthouse Museum.

Mrs. Elaine Ford of Farmington presented the program of the evening: "Early Farmington" and showed colored slides of some of the historic buildings and sites of Farmington.

Gold Star Mothers Have Card Party

The Gold Star Mothers of Farmington held their annual card party and luncheon at the home of Grace Auten on Shawasse recently.

On Monday, Feb. 3, a group of our ladies traveled to Ann Arbor to give a party for some hospitalized veterans. Fern Ramage and Irene Kreuger were in charge.

The February meeting of Chapter 49 will take place at the Wheeler Street Station at 1 p.m. on February 20.

JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

The barn on Middlebelt did burn on Sunday night, January 18, as reported earlier, and again on Saturday night, January 25, but did not burn down until Sunday night, January 26. The third time was its death knell, and it was not to be.

The welcome mat is extended this week along Eleven Mile Road. Harold and Ray Butters and their three boys are new neighbors in the Provincetown corner of Barwell and Eleven Mile. Native Detroiters the Butters moved in on December 15. The family includes Raymond, 21, a student at the Detroit Institute of Technology; and Henry Ford Community College; Bob, 17, a senior at Catholic Central; and Richard, 13, an eighth grader at St. Livonia. The bride-elect is a process development engineer with GM Diesel.

Welcome also to Ruth and Wally Edmunds who moved to Kimberley on New Year's Eve. Formerly of Boston, the Edmunds purchased the home formerly owned by the Kollmorgen family. The three little Edmunds are Chip, 7, Jack, 6, and Lindsey, 2½. Wally is in sales with the Ford Motor Company.

Marabelle Chalmers of Pipers Lane used to be a professional dance teacher, but has been inactive of late, while raising four boys. Now that the youngest is in school she has decided to go back to her dancing and currently teaching ballroom to both children and adults at the Virginia Dickman Studio in Farmington.

Congratulations to the subdivision moms, who made the Dimes. Collections in Kimberley totaled over $300.

THE FARMINGTON Garden Club has announced that they will again be selling flowers.

Appointment of Howard R. Wiley of Farmington as supervisor at the Southfield general agency of Acta Life Insurance Company has been announced by R. C. Garrison, general agent.

A graduate of Alma College, Mr. Wiley joins Acta Life after three years' experience with another life insurance company. He is a member of the Detroit Life Underwriters Association and vice president of the Alma College Alumni Association. Mr. Wiley lives at 32008 Wayburn Street.

Two Top Math Pupils in Area

Two students from Farmington were among the top 100 pupils competing in the Seventh Annual Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition. It was announced this week by Professor James H. McKay, in-charge of the competition.

The two top mathematics students from this community were Roger Mirgo of 2933 Pipers Lane who is a student at North Farmington High and Lorraine Chorky of 32331 Balm-tree, who attends Marian High School in Birmingham.

Their accomplishment is particularly noteworthy when it is considered that over 20,000 students from 536 Michigan schools took part in this wide testing competition.

These top mathematics students in the state will be held on Feb. 15 at an awards banquet sponsored by Michigan Bell Telephone to be held at Oakland University near Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Reyno and family of 2933 Pipers Lane, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Ann, to Kenneth Robert Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee, 2611 Barbados Rd., Farmington. The couple is planning a June 12 wedding at the Avers Street Church of Christ in Orpus Christi, Texas. Both are attending Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas.

crab trees' this spring. The trees, which proved so popular last year, should be delivered by March 2 for May delivery. Phone your orders to Anita Cronpton, 476-0140.

Sympathy is extended this week to Ed and Ellen Braun on the loss of Ellen's father, and to Ray and Rose Peterson on the passing of Rose's mother.

"Birthdays bouquets" to Mary Lee Rankin, 11 on January 28; to Ruth Kelly, 12 on February 3; to Lili Clark, 10 on February 6; to Allen Allen, 10 on February 10; to Chuck Evans on January 21; and to Michael Garrett, 3 on February 1.

"Happy anniversaries" to Marie and Chuck Evans, 17 years on January 27; to Jo and Bud Olson, 17 years on February 1; to Ralph and Phyllis Kimbrough, 18 years on February 3; and to Dave and Betty Wilmer, 22 years on January 30.

The Shaws of Pipers Lane are back from a week of skiing at Shanty Creek; a new resort just outside of Bel-Aire. Doug and Barb took daughters Laurie, 7, and Carol, 5, along with her grandmother (in Alpena). Carol is wearing visible evidence of her progress on skis, a cast covering her right leg, broken in a fall during the trip.

The Association Meeting on January 29 was well attended by the residents, and proved to be a lively one. Among the topics discussed was the safety situation at East Junior High, and the membership voted monies to construct a temporary gravel walk along Middlebelt. Curt Hall, Township Supervisor, faced a barrage of questions pertaining to the safety of the township in the winter and on the ways and how, much of city.

Patterned after the familiar shower held by the women friends of future mothers, Jerry Hoffmeyer of Farmington hosted the boys in a lively party featuring the regular gifts, opened and admired and set up by the future father, including a bathrobe and blankets and other items of baby supplies.

A delicious lunch was served by the host, Hoffmeyer, ably assisted by Charlie Warhaman also of Farmington.

After the meal the boys cleaned up the dishes and the house and engaged in the familiar games usually found at a shower. First prize in the diaper installing race went to Earl Teeples of Farmington with the booty prize awarded to Bill Hirth of Northville.

Two honors in the dice game went to Marie Glumb of Farmington. Also in attendance at the shower were the future grandmothers, Bill Steinbock and Dr. Warhaman of Farmington. The Muhrehead family formerly lived on 14 Mile in Farmington.

More than half of Michigan's land area is forested, according to a Michigan State University forester.

Mary Tomko Rites Monday

Funeral services were held Monday, Feb. 3, from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home for Mary Tomko, 2776, Latta, who died Thursday, Jan. 30, at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Dearborn following several months of illness.

Chaplain Earl Pennanen of the Groves-Walker American Legion Post in Farmington officiated for the funeral services. Interment was at Park View Memorial Cemetery in Livonia.

Mary Tomko was born on Nov. 6, 1905 in Cleveland, Ohio to John Tomko and the former Anna Najmik. During World War II, Miss Tomko served as a WAC in the armed forces. A resident here for about ten years, she was employed as a waitress.

Surviving are two brothers, Andrew and John Tomko from Pontiac; and a cousin Joseph Tomko from Maple Hills, Ohio.

WAC Pvt. Kathy Davis Stationed in Chicago

WAC Pvt. Kathy J. Davis, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Davis, 22540 Power Rd., Farmington, was assigned to Headquarters, Fifth U. S. Army in Chicago, Ill., Jan. 21. Private Davis is a clerk typist in the WAC Detachment of the headquarters. She entered the Women's Army Corps in August 1963.

In honor of Founders Day, Mrs. Duane Norman, past president, examined the members of the many important events in which the P.T.A. has played a major role. Just a few of these have been the establishment of kindergartens, legislation on child labor, juvenile courts, vocational education, and the local graduation and scholarship programs. She emphasized that P.T.A. is not a coffee klatch but an organization dedicated to upholding its objects and principles.

William Van Dell, chairman of the by-laws committee, submitted a revised set of by-laws which were read and adopted by the membership.

Elected to serve on the nominating committee were Mrs. A. Shobe, Mrs. A. Long, Mrs. S. Brittnie, Mrs. P. Sennevald and Mrs. J. Farmer.

Following an adjournment, delicious refreshments were served.

Feb. 10, 1933 - A new feature in telegraphic service was introduced in New York when the Postal Telegraph Company started to deliver "singing telegrams."
