Studebaker

"Yes Sir! Studebaker wagons are made to back up a reputation."

"I know, because wagons of every make come into my shop for repairs, and I have a chance to see how few are Studebakers."

That's the opinion of thousands of blacksmiths who know the quality of Studebaker wagons.

The owners never regretted that they bought Studebakers.

Tested materials, accurate workmanship insure a wagon unequaled for durability, and this careful selection of wood, iron, steel, paint and varnish has been a fixed rule with the Studebaker Company for sixty years. That is why a Studebaker wagon runs easiest and lasts longest. It is built on honor.

Whether you live in town or country, there is a Studebaker vehicle to fill your requirements for business or pleasure — and harness of every description made as carefully as are Studebaker vehicles.

Told in a Few Words

Chas. Castledon, Cumberland, Wyo., says he had the worse cough a man ever had and cured it in a few days with Dr. Warner's White Wine of Tar.

FINE DEFINITION OF CULTURE

Somewhat Rare Possession About as Valuable as It Is Given to Humanity to Acquire.

What is culture?

First, what is it not? It is not anything one may put on. It is not fine manners, fashionable clothes, correct speech, nor skill in the tricks of politeness. It is not "knowing how to enter a room properly," nor sipping soup from the side of the spoon, nor using the right fork, nor having the art of saying pretty nothings. Neither is it knowledge of books, not acquaintance with the last comic opera or play, not having read the latest novel. It is not knowing Greek, Latin and English literature, nor any other mind-stuff. One may be perfect in all these things and be a cad. These arts and accomplishments have their value, but it is not culture value.

What is culture?

It is the harmonious, healthy development of one's personality.

It means a brain developed until it thinks clearly, the will until it acts properly and stands firm, and the feelings until they minister to life, not destroy it.

Culture is simply skill in using one's self. It is opposed to awkwardness, stumbling, bungling and the like.

It is not good against bad, righteousness as against sin, nor morality as against immorality; it is high as against low, fine as against coarse.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

THE REASON

"She looks so discontented and dissatisfied."

"No wonder. She has a husband who gets her everything she wants."

LENTEN CASUISTS.

Lenten fasters in the middle ages were excellent casuists, if rather weak in their zoology. To them all was fish that came from the sea. Whale flesh was roasted and served with peas, the tongue and tail being accounted special titbits; the porpoise, too, was roasted and served as a Lenten dish, even at the table of the king. French settlers in Canada, however, showed the greatest ingenuity in this respect, when, observing that the beaver spent much of its time under water, they determined to class it as a fish, and dined on roast beaver on fast days with great content, the flesh being sweet and tender, not unlike pork.—London Chronicle.

TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE.

"Gold has been discovered near Reno."

"What of it?"

"Might be a chance to go out and dig up the price of a divorce."

TOO FIENDISH.

"I would hesitate at nothing to accomplish his ruin."

"Why don't you present him with an automobile?"

OF COURSE.

"Does your wife talk more than one language?"

"Yes, she talks every language she is conversant with."

NATURAL DEMAND.

"If the women are sent to congress what will happen?"

"Why, every woman will want to be speaker of the house."

ITS CUE.

"The starch trust is now attacked by the government."

"That trust ought to find it easy enough to present a stiff front."

CASUALTY.

Knicker—I hear Jones was in a street car accident.

Bocker—Yes, he got a seat.

Redford

The Milton Grace house was sold this week to a gentleman from Ohio.

The house of Feole Bros. burned Tuesday night together with most of the contents. A defective flue is thought to have caused the fire. Only a very light insurance was carried.

The Mansfield house on Hartford avenue is progressing rapidly. This will be quite a large and expensive house.

Attend the opening ball game the 10th.

The big traction engine that was being used to grade the streets in the new Oak Grove subdivision broke down Tuesday and the work will be delayed for a few days.

No word has yet been received from Fred Crawford.

John Cort has begun a house on North Lahser avenue which will be a very neat and attractive residence.

The stewards of the Redford M. E. church will have a social in the basement of the church Thursday evening, May 8. All come and have a good time.

Next Saturday, May 10, the season's big doings in the sport line will open, when the Redford club will entertain the City of Straits lodge on the home grounds.

The visiting team is made up of the best Detroit amateurs, all known to Redford fans. "Nig" Fruttig of S. & S. plays first; Geo. MacCallum, last year of Redford, Dickerson of S. & S.; Derr, formerly of Redford, and Carrier of Papki's Athletics, a former Michigan pitcher and Ypsi catcher, are also with them. The bunch are planning on carrying off the honors in the Detroit Masonic League this year and have been secured to open the Redford season as a star attraction.

The home team will be strong as ever and possibly strengthened just enough to cope with Manager Carrier's aggregation. Clarence Hutchins will no doubt be in twirling form by that time; Beutley will be on the job, as will Brown, Faas, Tupper, Mack, Burgess, Andrews, Hantz and others.

Groundkeeper Dad Hutchins says the grounds promise to be in the pink of conditions.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from cold and exposure resulted. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a very severe cough, but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time." Refuse substitutes. Sold by T. H. McGee.

Foley Kidney Pills repay your confidence in their healing and curative qualities. Any kidney or bladder disease not beyond the reach of medicine will yield to their use. Mrs. Cordelia Copeland, Ardeola, Mo., says., "I had a kidney and bladder trouble for over a year and five bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me." It is the same story from everyone who uses them. All say, "they cured me." Sold by T. H. McGee.

NATURAL GROUNDS.

"Why is it that so many people believe in investing in real estate?"

"I don't know, but it is a belief that is gaining grounds."

HE MEANT WELL.

Fond Father—Well, we have a new baby at our house.

Motor Enthusiast (absently)—What horse power?—Puck.

ACCOUNTED FOR.

"And he is one of the most economical of men."

"I wondered why he was so unpopular."
