

Woody Herman to Play At Country Club Here

The entertainment committee for the Farmington Country Club has scheduled a Woody Herman show for one of its eight dinner dances throughout the year.

Beginning with the inaugural and New Member Ball on Saturday, April 18, and extending through the end of the New Year's party on Dec. 31, the club has programmed all night entertainment for each of its parties.

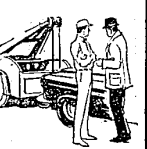

Cataract, one of the major causes of blindness in the world, is a clouding of the lens in the eye that blocks the passage of light rays needed for sight. It is treated only by surgery.

Pink ribbons are in vogue again at the James Maher home on Lakeside. Jean Maher gave birth to a son, Margaret, 10 lbs., 14 oz., at Providence Hospital in Detroit. Tim Jean even the Maher family to two each.

Blue ribbons are decorating the Art Zelda household in Robinson. Barbara Zelda presented her husband and delighted family with a 6 lb. 9 oz. baby boy, Feb. 10, at Providence Hospital in Detroit. Their new son has been named Gary.

Near neighbors of Ginny and Bill Oakes of Laurelwood were surprised with a farewell "potluck" dinner in their honor last week. The party was held at Mary Lou and Mel Rhodes' home, with guests Joan and Ken Osborne, Lee and Clint Justice, Helen and Nori Janowski, Elvie and Lynn Steele, and Bob and Lucille Green. Wishing them luck, Ginny and Bill were presented a gift for their new home. Ginny said she'll drive from Lansing to continue in her bridge club here. Their new address is 2510 Heights Ave., Lansing, Mich.

WE WELCOME B11 and Mary Taylor and their children, who purchased the Oakes home on Laurelwood. The Syls, with their three children—Susan, 4½, Meredith, almost 3, and Bobby who is almost 2, moved here from Jackson, Michigan.

Bridges Club No. 2 invited their husbands and friends to a progressive dinner party, with a gathering to round up the evening at John and Joanne McGreir's home on Laurelwood. Couples enjoying the festivities were the Hols, the Stengs, Arnolds, Strands, Nichols, Brunettes, Dozers, Karwicks, Blatts, Adams, Michaels, Egnars, Friedmans, Higgins and Grays.

Ray and Jeannette Weaver were happy to see Ray's mother and dad last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. Weaver drove from L. O. to spend the day with their grandchildren.

Happy Birthday to six-year-old Jeffrey Dorsh. Jeff had the help of his big sister Debbie and her friend Janet Raymond as he entertained ten little friends on his big day. Enjoying the fun and goodies were: Mary Stahl, Anna Marie Lombardi, Michael Clouse, Paula Raymond, Kim Morley, Bobby Adams, Neil Stunsford, Doug McGreir, Debbie Laughlin and Robby Besalke.

JOYCE HARTWIG celebrated her twelfth birthday at a farm-

Norm and Sue Heverly entertained Sue's brother and his wife last weekend. Bob and Mary Heverly, who visited from Orchard Park, N.Y., were taken to a hockey game while here in the Detroit area.

Thrup 267 Brownies held their jubilee on February 10. The girls invited their parents to the ceremony, and put on a play, written by Marion Orel. The new troop members include Eugenia Brandt, Deborah Burns, Laurel Ann Orel, Mary Sue Jansor, Susan Greenberg, Sally Isles, Kimberly Winston, the four Wischmeyer, Claudia Cook, Suzanne Lawrence, Leslie Degdon, Deborah Gibb, Rob-Jackson, Melanie Mutchler, Susan Schramm, Elaine Janowski, Heidi Peterson, Lisa Burrill, Debra Greiner, Patty Calichio, Susan Koels, Kathy Jensen, and Pamela Rankin.

The leader of the Brownies troop is Stephanie Burns, and the assistant leader is Marion Orel. The Committee Chairman for the new troop are Nancy Brandt, Mary Johnson, Margie Cook, Elaine Greenberg, and Patty Winston.

Robert Vanden Hulst, who is a Lt. Commander in the Naval Reserve, has assumed the duties of Executive Officer of the Dearborn Naval Reserve Unit.

OUR "WLS and pills department" has been very busy of late, unfortunately. B. J. A Weaver, three-year-old son of the Raymond Weavers of Lakeside, has been in the news again. The little fellow has been in the hospital with a bottle of aspirin. The aspirin he shared with his baby brother. Could be we have a budding doctor in our midst?

Young Timmy Noble has been a victim of strep throat. Also suffering from a strep bug were the four youngsters of the Jack Murrys. Young Jack Murray started it with Scarlet Fever and then Jack, Cheryl, and Shannon Murray all became ill at once. Their mother, Fern, was sure she was running a hospital ward. Roy Smith suffered from an acute sinus infection. Latest mishaps in his young career are a strep throat and a run-in with a bottle of aspirin. The aspirin he shared with his baby brother. Could be we have a budding doctor in our midst?
