LADIES STEP FORWARD

SPRING FASHION CLOSE-UPS

Feminine — Flattering — Fantastic — These are the words that express this spring's mood — Girls look prettier than ever — Heading in for spring is the strong feminine force. Watch for these feminine signs.

Almost every suit has a blouse. This is new because for a long time we've worn skirt and buttoned jacket without a blouse or at most with a shell. This year many jackets are worn deliberately open and definitely designed to show a bowed blouse, or a tucked blouse, a blouse of print or color or broderie. The already famous suits of this year are soft—a softening of the shoulders—a delicate movement to the skirt—a definite prettiness.

Speaking of Prettiness... Hair for the shining young look of fashion can be achieved with the exciting, exclusive and unique process of tint in "Media Creme" by L'Oréal of Paris. It provides a superb conditioning treatment while giving a custom blend of true lasting color. For tint correction, color blending or color analysis call GR. 4-7810.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: Give a lift to your routine. Treat yourself to a change of hair color or style.

Rita Irene Hoskinson Weds R. H. Warthman

Miss Rita Irene Hoskinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan D. Hoskinson of 2887 Christian Drive in Farmington, will be changed wedding vows, with Mr. Robert H. Warthman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warthman of 2320 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington, in a double ring ceremony at the Orchard Methodist Church in Farmington on Saturday, January 25.

The candlelight ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Frank Cozadd, pastor of the Orchard Methodist Church. Pink and white gladioli and white mums decorated the church altar.

"Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. William Newlin, accompanied on the organ by Miss Janet Greene.

THE BRIDE WORE a white lace floor length gown. Traditional white pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and a headpiece of pearls and crystals completed her wedding ensemble. White carnations and a red rose were formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Linda Hoskinson, a cousin of the bride from Dearborn, was the bridesmaid. Mrs. Donald Warthman of Farmington, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, served as a bridesmaid. Miss Anna Currier of Farmington served as the maid of honor.

The bridesmaids wore ballerina length gowns of red lace over white. The bride's attendants carried white mums with bouquets of red and white carnations.

William Harlow of Farmington was the best man. He was Mr. Donald Warthman of Farmington, brother of the bridegroom and Mr. Tom Hollender of Livonia, a cousin of the bridegroom.

A RECEPTION was held following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church, served by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

For the occasion, the mother of the bride chose a blue iridescent two-piece dress with matching shoes and purse and white hat and gloves. She wore a corsage of white carnations tied in blue.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a two-piece beige dress with brown accessories. Her flowers were white carnations tied in light green.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Farmington Senior High School. He is presently employed at the 3-Ray Machine Products.

The newlyweds are currently making their home in Farmington at 30250 Clairview Drive.

Longacre PTA Plans to Hold Election of Officers for 1964

The Longacre P.T.A. will meet tonight Thursday, March 12, in the Multipurpose Room of the school at 8 p.m. As a regular part of the business meeting new officers for the coming school year will be elected.

Officers open are those of president, father vice president, mother vice president, teacher vice president, secretary, treasurer and P.T.A. Council representative. Nominations from the floor will be welcomed in addition to the nominees that will be presented by Mrs. Albert Shobe, chairman of the nominating committee.

AS AN INTERESTING addition to the above happenings all parents will have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Ken Lachmann, principal of Beechview School. He'll explain the philosophy and history of the Science Program in Farmington and bring us up to date on what we're doing in the elementary schools.

All parents after the meeting will be able to view their children's Science Projects and Experiments in Room K-1, 3, and 9.

In addition to the projects there will be a health nurse in the library displaying available visual equipment with charts, films, books and slides for those who are interested.

Plan 'Harbingers of Spring' Luncheon and Fashion Show

Adding the finishing touches to the "Harbingers of Spring" Smorgasbord Luncheon and Fashion Show, sponsored by the Hill and Dale Garden Club, were Committee women under the leadership of the chairman, Mrs. Joseph Pietro, with the assistance of her co-chairman, Mrs. J. A. Aylesworth.

The Hill and Dale Garden Club held a Smorgasbord Luncheon and Fashion Show in 1961. It was such a success at that time that members and guests requested a repeat.

THE HARBINGERS of Spring will take place on Thursday noon, April 2, at the St. Fabian's Social Hall on Twelve Mile Road.

Each member of the Hill and Dale Garden Club is participating in making the event a success from making the salads to the active models in the fashion show.

The fashion show commentators will be Mrs. C. Parker Glick, while the fashion models will be Debra Ruhlman, Fran Abela, Marjorie Shelds, Gladys King, Bernice Olsen, Bertha Simmons, Pat Camp and Carol Jorgenson. The models will be outfitted by Harvi's Suburban Casuals of Farmington while the hairstyling will be done by Fashions by Agosta Hair Styler of 2034 W. Seven Mile Road, Detroit.

SOME OF THE proceeds from the Harbingers of Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show will go to the Garden Therapy project that is sponsored by the Hill and Dale Garden Club in which many of the members teach Garden Therapy to the handicapped and mentally retarded children in the Farmington Public Schools.

Besides having a delightful lunch, an afternoon of viewing the newest styles in spring attire and hair fashions, and possibly holding the lucky ticket for door prizes or a table prize, you will be assured that the proceeds will go to a very worthwhile cause.

For information on the Harbingers of Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show, you may contact Mrs. Fred Bulman at GR. 6-0056.

AAUW to Hear Dr. Peter Tack Speak March 18

The Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women will meet on Wednesday, March 18, to hear Dr. Peter Tack speak on conservation efforts in Michigan, particularly in regard to water resources. Dr. Tack is head of the department of fisheries and wildlife at Michigan State University. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the Farmington Senior High School. It is open to the public.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Robert Benya, chairman; Mrs. Otto Kern; Mrs. C. R. Krall; Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann; Mrs. M. Leach; and Mrs. William J. Spicer.

Branch members are busy with a round of other AAUW activities:

1. Mrs. Richard Armstrong, membership chairman, is sponsoring a series of coffees designed to help members get better acquainted and give prospective members a chance to find out about the Association.
2. Mrs. Thomas Czubiak and Mrs. M. Sadi Ozker have been named co-chairmen for the AAUW Book Sale next fall and are already working on plans. This event is held annually by the local Branch to benefit the Farmington District Library book collections of local high schools, and the AAUW Fellowship Fund. The co-chairmen will be glad to accept donations of books from anyone in the community from now through September.
3. A group of members interested in Michigan history has formed under the leadership of Mrs. Ernest Gaston. They have delivered into the settlement of the Upper Peninsula and at their next get-together will turn their attention to the economic development of the state. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Kittredge, 5554 Kingsline, at 1 p.m., April 9.
4. The Crafts Study Group has experimented with silk screen printing, block printing, and other graphic art forms this year under the leadership of Mrs. Eugene Schoeneich. On Sunday, April 5, the group is taking a trip to Greenfield Village Museum.
5. The Occident and Orient Study Group has been concentrating on India. Each participant in the group has agreed to become an "expert" on an aspect of life in India and reports on it to the group. This has led to lively discussions on Indian politics, art, and yoga. A meeting on March 19, Mrs. David Mills will report on Gandhi and his philosophy. Mrs. Robert Simanek is chairman of the group.
6. Women in another study group are reading up on advances in science since their college days and discussing the implications for laymen. Mrs. Robert Mowitz leads this group.
7. Former teachers and others concerned with young people are studying Expectations in Education. This group is led by Mrs. David Skinner.
8. Program Chairman Mrs. David Mills is arranging a Branch meeting for April 15 with Dr. George Rooper, headmaster of the City and Country School, as speaker. (The School's work with gifted nursery school children is the subject of feature article in the March 10 issue of "Look" magazine.)

The study groups welcome interested non-members whether or not they are eligible for AAUW membership as well as all members to their gatherings. Women interested in participating in one of the study groups are invited to phone the group leader or Branch President Mrs. Theodore Lapinski.

Women interested in joining the Association may find out about membership requirements by phoning Mrs. Robert Armstrong, 474-8182.

PTA Opens Meeting To Cville Students

Students are invited to participate again in the Clarenceville Jr.-Sr. High School P.T.A. March 17 at 7:30 in the Junior High cafeteria. Both the time and the place of the meeting has been changed for this meeting only.

A compilation of the rules of conduct for members, formulated in group discussions at the February meeting, will be presented to the floor with comments by a panel of parents, teachers and students. Mrs. Kelpert will be panel moderator.

Students participating on the panel will be Sue Arsenault, Elaine Jagendner, David Milarch and Jim Silva.

The object of the meeting is to put the rules into final form.

Farmington Blue Star Mothers Plan Easter Hospital Visit

At the February meeting of the Blue Star Mothers it was decided that March 25 would be the day for the Chapter's annual Easter visit to the veterans at Maybury Sanitarium. This is the day the Chapter takes Easter goodies, including homemade cookies, so veterans can truly have a joyful Easter. All ladies baking cookies should have them at Fern Ramage's home by March 24 to allow for packing time.

The "Mothers" have been having parties at the veterans at the Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital also. Fern Ramage's husband who so graciously offered to drive the women and pick-up and help with the party activities, was made an unofficial honorary Blue Star "Mother." The Chapter reports it would use more like him to help them keep up their work.

FERN IS REALLY busy these days. She has already staged another party for A.A. Hospital which took place on March 2. The ladies baked cupcakes for this one.

The March card party will be held at the Wheeler Street Station on its regular date, the second Wednesday of the month. It will start at noon with a dessert luncheon. Notices of change of menu from luncheon to dessert luncheon, this menu is to be followed from now on.

THE MARCH MEETING date will be one day earlier (March 25) because of the school of instruction being held the following day. Many of the chapter ladies will be attending the S. of J. and have changed the meeting for their convenience. The meeting will be held at the home of Mary Jo Brown.

Four Mothers, Catherine Byrne, Irene Krueger, Jean Fox and Mae (Jarrist) Lathers, attended a National Society

FOR YOUNGSTERS

Raise a wooden chair for youngsters by sawing four rubber-tipped door bumpers into bottom end of legs. Bumpers can easily be unscrewed when no longer needed.
