Road Program

County Board of Eight Mile Road in 1951.
The annual report from the county road commission to the township on road improvements scheduled during the current road improvement program lists only those road improvements which are to be carried out solely through county financing.
County local roads in Farmington Township, which the township normally participates in the financing of improvements on, are not enumerated in the annual report. The Oakland County Road Commission has jurisdiction over all roads in the township and is responsible for their maintenance and any improvements.
Only primary roads, mile roads and section line roads, are completely under the financial obligation of the county and the township sharing the cost of their maintenance or improvements on all other local roads.

Shiawasse PTA Learns More About Library

The functions of the school library was explained by Mrs. R. Reanne, the school librarian, at the March meeting of the Shiawasse PTA which was held in the school library on Wednesday, March 4.
Mrs. Reanne explained how the library was used by each grade level of the school and what was taught to the pupils each grade on how to use the library. She also explained how the books were selected to build the library and had on display a large selection of new books which the P.T.A. members were urged to inspect during the program.
Following the program, a business meeting was held with Robert Johnson, president presiding. A special committee which was selected to bring the by-laws of the Association up to date in accordance with the policies of the Michigan State Congress of parents and teachers reported that the by-laws had been completed and were passed out to the membership to study. A vote for their acceptance would be conducted at the April business meeting. The membership committee reported that its goal of 111 members had been reached.
During the business meeting in election officers for the 1951 year was held and the following officers were elected: President, Robert Johnson; Vice President, Robert Johnson; Secretary, Mrs. Fred Johnson; Treasurer, Mrs. Eunice Lubinski; Teacher-Vice President, David Coffin; Secretary, Mrs. Carolyn Brown; and Treasurer, Mrs. George Ruelle. The new officers will be installed at the meeting in May.
A Social hour concluded the evening.
Shiawasse P.T.A. plans to send a delegation to the Pre-Union Clinic to be held at the Kellogg School of Michigan State University on March 17.

City Re-Zoning

stained from voting. Two members of the planning commission were absent from the meeting.
Two basic reasons were cited by the planners for favoring the re-zoning requested for this property. They felt that there was a good use for the land in view of the fact that there is a swimming pool adjacent to the land and also to the fact that there is an expressway directly to the south of the property.
THE GENERAL feeling among the planners was that professional office buildings on this property would provide a good buffer between the swimming pool and expressway and the single family homes to the north.
"It will now be up to the council to hold a second public hearing on the re-zoning request and make the final decision for or against it."
The date for this hearing will probably be set by the council at its next regular meeting this coming Monday night, March 19.

pump them out weekly for a two-month period.
IN CONNECTION with the Gill Road addition discussion, the desirability of obtaining additional land at this site was also brought up. Since not all of the seven acres presently owned is usable, the superintendent of schools stated that he felt it would be desirable to obtain approximately four more acres of adjacent property.
The board authorized the citizen advisory committee's sub-committee to investigate with regard to what vacant adjoining property was available and what the asking price for the property would be if such is available.

Have Special Ed Money Problem

Supt. G. V. Harrison informed the Farmington Board of Education Monday night that some curtailments in the special education training program now being conducted in the district in conjunction with the Oakland County Board of Education may be necessary next year.
The amount of state aid money which is being received for special education programs is being cut back and the one-half mill tax levy being made by the county for special education purposes cannot be spread thin enough to offset the loss, Harrison explained.
Some children with physical, mental or emotional problems may not be able to continue to be helped through the special education program in the future unless more state money is forthcoming, the superintendent said.
If schools latermerit the aid, the board asked that the administration draft a letter in its behalf urging state officials to take steps to correct the present system of allocation where by less instead of more is being provided by the state for the needed special education programs. They asked that copies of the letter be sent to Representative Ray Baker, State Senator Farrell Roberts and Governor Romney.

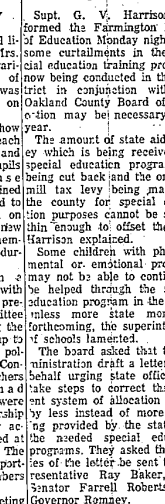

Safety Problems

present in the audience, living in Farmington and Nine Mile roads, stated that he was strongly opposed to the idea of "opening school district money to provide sidewalks for children in the township. He pointed out the fact that he and other residents on the west side of Farmington Road between 8 and 9 Mile were required by the city to pay for the sidewalk installed there to provide a safe walking route for their children.
At the conclusion of the discussion, the board asked the administration to begin a study of safety problems in the district in the vicinity of all schools in the district and report back to the board with recommendations on possible action to be taken. It was pointed out to the board that such a detailed study would probably take several months.

Lower Speeds

the state legislature adopts the proposed bill, the county will be able to act on its own initiative in such cases through enabling legislation provided in Lansing.
It was the feeling of the township board that should the proposed house bill No. 382 be enacted by the legislature, the county road commission would cooperate fully in bringing about reduced speed limits on heavily traveled primary roads, thereby border township schools.

SNOW-COVERED CURB PROVES HAZARDOUS

A Farmington Township man slipped and fell on icy pavement in the residential parking lot on Tuesday afternoon and was rushed to Redford General Hospital for treatment of injuries.
The heavy snowfall had covered the curb at the edge of the parking lot and was attributed as the cause of the accident. Released after treatment for minor injuries, was Richard Howard of 3300 Quaker Valley Drive in Farmington.
The township board of trustees will be asked to consider legislation to require the township to have the parking lot cleared of snow and ice.
