Universalist Church Slates Drama Sunday
"Which Way the Wind," a drama probing the question of how to achieve lasting peace, will be presented at the Universalist Unitarian Church of Farmington Sunday, March 22, in place of the 10 a.m. service.
Hope Nantoli of Farmington will direct the drama and play one of the four parts. Others will be taken by Mrs. Robert Eddy of Farmington, Homer Fowler of Livonia and Joseph Ristic of Garden City.
Mrs. Nantoli, a member of the Farmington Players, is well known in this area for her dramatic talents.
The drama was written by Philip Lewis and portrays his view of atomic age dangers through a series of short interludes, flashbacks, dramatic discussions, arguments and quotations from such sources as newspapers, civil war letters. Presidential statements and scientific articles.
When presented by the American Friends Service Committee in Philadelphia, it was described by Philadelphia Inquirer as a work "guaranteed to jolt any viewer who is complacent about the way the world is heading."
Two discussion groups, considering education and ethical questions, will convene at usual 11 a.m. at the church, following the dramatic presentation, and a coffee hour. Church school classes will run from 10 a.m. to noon.
All interested persons are invited by Minister Robert M. Eddy to view the special presentations and visit the church.

News From Briar Hill
JAN PATTERSON, 626-6283
LOIS HOLMES, 626-9060
Briar Hill's newest family is now "at home" at 30139 Briarlane. Roger and Carol Towne moved from Grand Rapids about three weeks ago. The Townes have two children — Scott, 5 1/2, who is in kindergarten and Leslie, who will be 4 on March 24. Roger works for All-Chalmers as a sales engineer. He is originally from Dearborn and is a graduate of U. of M. Carol, who is a Detroit, attended the U. of M. of Denver and Colorado and Wayne State.
David Nauman was given a surprise supper party for his 10th birthday on March 10. He was also a "Mike" party. Dave's guests were Mike Kulas, Mike Davoy and Mike Moore.
Bob McMath took Cub Scout Den 9 tobogganing in place of their regular meeting on March 10. David Nauman and Jim Moore had been cancelled for the treat.
SUE MOREEN was rushed to St. Mary's, March 17, for an emergency appendectomy. The stitches were removed on Monday and she came home on Tuesday. She will miss about two weeks of school. Meanwhile, her 12-year-old sister, Rhonda, is recovering nicely from a case of chicken pox.
Friday the 13th was a good bowling night for Bob MacLeod. He had a 600 series with games over 200 bowling with the Men's League.
Last weekend was quite hectic at the Hage home. On Friday night, Sue and Jake rushed to the hospital. Sue, with muscle spasms of the leg. X-rays were taken and nothing was found, so she was able to come home. Then Saturday, David, who had been sick for a few days, was taken to the doctor's office, where X-rays showed he had pneumonia. He is being treated at home.
More St. Fabian's children making their Confirmation on March 15 were Clippie O'Neill, Bob Roe, Mary Lemieux and John and Peter DeWitt.
Jean and Bob Denaro gave a dinner in honor of daughter Diane's Confirmation. Diane was pleased to have her grandparents, sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. David and Jean DeWitt, Chicago as her guests.
Hazel and Bob Young of Briar Hill, entertained a long time friend, Mr. Loren Peck of Wabash, Ind., from March 15 to the 22nd. Mr. Peck was working out of Bob's office and is looking for a home in the area.
Getting back into the swing of things at the Woodbrook Swim Club for the coming year are the following: men from Briar Hill who were elected to the board January 1964, President Pat McCarthy, vice president; Harry Ramsey, financial secretary; Jim Moore, treasurer; and Ted Kleinhauer, Bob McMath and Pat Pattison, committee chairman.

March 13, to visit former neighbors, Mary and Shiel Hedges. Later that night, the two families came home in a pouring rain.

Ministers Set Good Friday Services Here

Good Friday Services will be held again this year for the community of Farmington. The Farmington Ministers Association has planned for two services, one for those of the city and one for those in the township.
The service in the city will be at the First Methodist Church, Grand River at Warner, from 2 to 3 o'clock. The Rev. Richard Markham will be the host pastor, while ministers of the community and young people will take part in the service and meditations.
THE SERVICE for those in the township will be at the First Presbyterian Church, Farmington Rd. at Eleven Mile, from 2 to 3 o'clock. The Rev. George Ramsey will be the host pastor. Special music will be provided at both services and the community is cordially invited to these holy week services as we remember together the event of Calvary.
Ministers sharing in the Good Friday Services will be Rev. Frank Cozard of Orchard Methodist, Rev. Carl Schultz of Salem United Church of Christ, Rev. William Holmes of North Farmington Baptist Church.

Christian Science Sermon Text Slated
Set Toastmistress Club Meeting Here
Paul's words, "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth" (Col. 3:2), will be the Golden Text at all Christian Science churches this Sunday.
The Bible Lesson on "Matter" will also include this explanatory passage from the Christian Science textbook: "You command the situation if you understand that mortal existence is a state of self-deception and not the truth of being" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 403).
Redford Toastmistress Club will meet on Tuesday, March 24, at 12 noon at Botsford Inn, 28000 Grand River, for a Panel Book Review, "Portrait in Brownstone," will be moderated by Mrs. Wm. Sutterfield of Detroit.
Mrs. Rahula Prouse of Southfield, Mrs. Richard Miller, 20773 Grand River, and Mrs. Harold Young, both of Detroit, will be the panel members.
To conclude the program, Mrs. Richard Miller will make her "Ice-breaker" speech.
