

Eight Youths to Be Confirmed at Salem

Following the custom and tradition of the Church, eight young people, who have completed a period of instruction, will be confirmed into church membership on Palm Sunday, at the regular 10:30 o'clock service of Worship at Salem United Church of Christ.

Confirmation is looked upon in a twofold manner: as a confirmation of what has been attained, and as a confirming of the intent to live in a Christ-like manner.

Those to be Confirmed are: Debbie Baker, Kathy Bush, Chris Schoeller, Sharon Schulz, Karin Wackernagel, Gary Dix, Randy Dozer, and Alan Paxton.

FARMINGTON OAKS
MARIE RUYLE 474-6272

Farmington Oaks continues to grow so fast that statistics become obsolete while they are being added. The latest arrivals are Arthur and Madeline Procknow, their son, Robert, 24, and their daughter, Susan, 20. Arthur works for the Republic Flow Meters Division of Rockwell Manufacturing Company, and lives in their new home on Chestnut Lane Saturday from Detroit.

Some of our Boy Scouts spent a very wet weekend on a camping trip in the Holly recreation area. Scoutmaster Jerry Boskoske and Assistant Scoutmaster Wes Robertson and men from the Acres took twenty-one boys from the two subdivisions. Wes got sick and came home early. It rained Friday night and only one tent floated away. The boys started their twenty-three mile hike on Saturday in very nice weather and finished it in very nice rain. When they got back they cooked supper out in the rain. Ken Guyette and Dale Robertson received their cooking and first-aid merit badges. Mike Smith and Nick Abid qualified for their cooking merit badges. Ronnie Klein, Randy Duncan, and Jeff Blackwell worked on Second-class requirements. I think the boys all deserve a special badge for mud endurance after their "King of the Castle" game.

A SHOWER was held for Plakho at the home of Babs Carragher last Tuesday, with Pat Guyette, Madeline Hinz, Esther Olson, Waltraut Venzon, Ann Volton, Katie Ray, Lee Bergin, and myself in attendance. The surprise had been planned last month but Donna and us all by having the baby early.

The wet season sicknesses seem to be upon us again. Ricky Skierik suffered the double tragedy of having his birthday last Monday. Result: no party. Also, Neil Billman, back in town on a business trip, reports that he and just recently settled down in their new home in Schenectady, New York when the children came down with colds, fever and measles. Guess that was their going-away present from Farmington.

The Clines spent the week fighting the 24-hour flu. All but Ken succumbed.

The Verens had their twins, Ralph and Robin, baptized at the American Lutheran Church on Sunday, the eighth. Ralph had a rather non-angelic look, black eyes for the ceremony.

NORM SKEIRIK went to Chicago for the Presbyterian Men's Council area meeting which is an annual affair.

A number of children were confirmed at Our Lady of Sorrows Church on Saturday. David Walen, Ken Smith, Jayne Doornik, Pam Plakho, Mary Ann Ruyle, and Barbara Carragher were, among those confirmed. Barb managed to get over the flu just in time to get to church.

Jim Ruyle was sidelined from the regular Wednesday night volleyball game at Flinders School, after sustaining a sprained knee in his finger, one of the more heavily contested games.

Abraham Tesoro celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday on March 18, and Billy Plakho, on the 19th, taking some of his friends to the show for the occasion. The department of minor coincidences reports that Ken Klein and Cousin Cline both have a birthday on March 18. Wonder who's the oldest?

Belated Happy Birthday to Paul Ruyne. Another candle on the cake for Ned Dusenberry on March 12; Paul Toomey who was thirteen on March 8; Patti Masow who celebrated ten years on March 9; and Ray Persia who celebrated on the 16th.

The Guyette and Ruyle families traveled to Frankenthum Sunday for their chicken dinner.

We have a first sighting of a robin seen by Tom Ruyle on Sunday, March 8. No confirming witnesses.

LADIES STEP FORWARD ON THE BEAUTY SCENE

BY JEAN

THE BEATLE BOB is new freedom to give new freedom to the English, right now, straight off the heads of "The Beatles," a singing swinging four with their own particular "beat" that has wide popular appeal. It's short with shaggy bangs, sideburns, pushed behind the ears, looks like it needs a haircut on the boys, looks feminine and in-the-best on the girls.

A VERY SPECIAL EASTER SUGGESTION—DOUBLE DELIGHT

MOTHER has a variety of hair styles to choose with "the Accent on Softness." A woman's coiffure should express her personality.

Secret of the new styles, is superb hair shaping to give new freedom to the coiffure, and to establish the custom fit of an elegantly shaped head. Add to this a soft professional permanent wave that is now more important than ever before, particularly for the understated and more simple styles, and you have easy-to-manage softness that has wide popular appeal.

DAUGHTER: For the very young we feature Pique Points and curllets all over which is a natural for her almost curly hair.

Here for the teens are waves that really swing! This hairdo has what the young teen wants: It's easy to manage, has a certain care for neatness in style line, and plenty of movement. Upkeep requires a minimum of homework once the proper haircut and underbody perm has been given.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: Call early for Easter appointments.

THESE TOWN CLUB members are pictured above at a luncheon meeting last Friday, March 13, at the home of Mrs. Robert C. Miller, 28212 Greenfield Drive in Farmington, to wind up final arrangements for the Club's seventeenth annual card party-fashion show, to be held at North Farmington High School on Thursday, April 2, at 8 p.m. The women are (l. to r.) Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Donald Wingard and Mrs. W. Dix.

Baseball for Boys, Farmington Area Recreation, a child is sent to Camp Oakland, and many others.

Town Club maintains a free hospital loan closet, loaning crutches, a hospital bed, and other equipment to anyone in the community who needs it.

Three busy Town Club members met for lunch last Friday to wind up final arrangements for the seventeenth annual card party-fashion show to be held at North Farmington High, 13 Mile at Farmington Road, on Thursday, April 2, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. R. Miller and Mrs. W. Dix admired the beautiful staided brocade evening jacket with removable natural white mink collar worn by Mrs. De Wingard. A similar jacket in beige with autumn hued mink collar has been donated by Nancy Mackinnon of the DeWaver Shop as one of the door prizes.

PRINCIPLE door prizes are the jacket mentioned above, three certificates for furniture from Homestead Home, a large table decoration by Lawrence Mayer, and about forty other prizes.

Honoring our newest state, Hawaii, the party has been proclaimed "Nu-Nui Hoolua Lea," (a very big gathering for fun) by President Mrs. Steve Bruce. Every detail from flowers on the tea table to door and table prizes, will carry out the Hawaiian theme.

Town Club members, taking tickets to an evening of refreshments, will wear the traditional muumuu. In charge of decorating the high school gym, Mrs. Bill Grotz has secured swaying palm trees and even a smoking Diamond Head!

FASHIONS from the R. B. Shops and furs by George Dixon will be modeled to the accompaniment of pop music, and hair styles will be by Ernest & Ise.

Quite a lot of fun and glamour for just a small admission charge. The open invitation is extended to anyone who wishes to make up a table. Tickets can be obtained from any Town Club member, or by calling Mrs. Monroy, GR. 4-1479; Mrs. Yurk, GR. 6-1002; or Mrs. Rainey, GR. 4-7650.

Proceeds from the card party will be used in the purchase of a $1,000 to the Farmington Library for books, and each year donations are made to the General Citizens Youth Guidance Committee of Greater Farmington feels is so important to the community, needs money to get started. Their goal is $1,000.

They appreciate the donations that have already been received from the Elks, B'nai B'rith, Blue Star Mothers, Franklin Knolls Women's Club, The Ministerial Association, Mr. and Mrs. David Hefflin and Mrs. Dan Guy.

So far, only $150 has been collected toward the goal. If you can see they need more money.

YOU CAN SEND your donations to Mr. W. Mitchell, 30600 Springland Dr., Farmington. If you have questions, he will be most happy to answer them for you.

The "Get the Youth Working Committee" feels that the people of Farmington are still not aware that there is such a committee. The chairman, Mr. Carpenter, has a list of teenagers who need jobs. Spring is coming and a lot of clean-up, fix-up and paint-up jobs will need doing. If you have a job to be done call Mr. Carpenter, 474-3267, and he will give you more details.

Young people who need jobs can also call Mr. Carpenter.

Company customers place 16.5 million local calls daily, and 300,000 long distance calls each day.

Farmington Coed Earns U. of M. Degree

Sharon L. Watson of 32420 Baintree Drive in Farmington was graduated from Michigan State University, East Lansing, at winter quarter commencement exercises held Friday, March 13.

Miss Watson received a bachelor's degree in science degree in physical education.

Graduates included 49 doctoral candidates, 150 master's degree candidates and 605 bachelor's candidates.

The commencement address was delivered by Walter Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers.

Winter term at MSU closes Saturday, March 21.

Okkhi Camp Fire Group Meeting Held

The Okkhi Camp Fire group held a Council Fire on March 17 at the home of Denise Schenkel, 28236 Kenalwood. At that time they received honor beads for which they have been working since last fall.

This past week the girls made their own ceremonial vests on which the beads will be displayed. Each girl will take an active part in the delightful ceremony to which their parents are invited Tuesday evening.

Okkhi members participating are Denise Schenkel, Dana Hollander, Suzanne K. Y. L. M. Leslie Carrier, Carol Anderson, Patty Wilson, Maria Seigler, Mary Evelyn Cindrie, Monica Wake, Barbara Faber, Lisa Trebble and Connie Kusun.

When painting small designs on flat surfaces, draw designs on masking tape and cut out with a razor blade. The tape can then be pressed into position, and used as a painting guide.
